

SHOULD BE TROUT HATCHERY ON M'KENZIE

Lane county has a greater commercial asset in its game and fish than in any single business enterprise...

In further explanation of his attitude he today pointed out how the business men of Eugene could be repaid for the money invested in a trout hatchery...

Properly advertised people from all over the country will come in increasing numbers. Indeed, they are already coming, as may be seen from the hundreds that go up the McKenzie...

He is interested in the rejuvenation of the McKenzie river as a fishing stream from the standpoint of the sport, but does not believe that needs to be taken into account, so strong is the other plea.

TRIAL MARRIAGE GEORGIA STYLE

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—Drop-stitch hose, V-shaped lingerie, cosmetics, artificial teeth, puffs, rats, and padding are the weighty matters which are being discussed by the committee on ways and means of the Georgia legislature today.

Representative George Glenn, of the Whitefield district, is responsible for the problem, having introduced a bill to prevent the sad disillusionment of husbands "the day after."

According to the provisions of Glenn's measure, any marriage which has resulted from artificial attractions offered by the bride shall be declared null and void.

GIRL RIDER KILLED BY RUNAWAY STEED

Roseburg, Or., July 13.—Alice Mathews, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Frank Mathews, of Myrtle Creek, was thrown from a runaway horse near that town and injured so badly that she died an hour later.

OREGON CITY MURDERER IS LANDED IN JAIL

Oregon City, Or., July 12.—Surrounded and followed by a howling mob of 300 men and boys, Math Jancigaj, who last night murdered 16-year-old Mary Smrekar in a fit of jealous rage, was rushed to the county jail this morning by Jailer Nehren and Constable Miles, while a large posse of officials, headed by Sheriff Beale and accompanied by Detective Vaughan and two bloodhounds, from Portland, were following the trail scented by the dogs on the Logan road up the Clackamas river, stopping in the vicinity of Redland on Tom Potter's farm.

For five blocks the crowd, its ranks swelling with every step, yelled and sought for first place, all eager to get a near look at the defiant prisoner, whose smile of delight at the notoriety he was receiving never faded until the jail doors closed upon him.

Interesting tales lead up to the story of last night's tragedy. The Smrekar family came here two years ago from Michigan. Besides the father and mother there were six sons, two of them now grown, and two daughters. The father is highly respected.

For a time they kept boarders until the owner of the house objected, and it was during that time that Jancigaj, an inmate of the house, met and fell in love with Mary Smrekar.

LOGANBERRIES MAY BE DRIED AND SHIPPED

The problem of what to do with the loganberries, the vine of which so many have been planted in this vicinity as well as all over Western Oregon, may be solved soon, for an effort is being made at Salem to dry the berry and ship it to Eastern markets.

The raspberries dried last year by the growers near Salem brought the growers about 22 to 23 cents, and it is hoped that the loganberries will do as well. However, the whole matter is in a very unsettled state, and farmers are warned not to be too optimistic.

CARUSO'S LOT NOT HAPPY ONE

Paris, July 14.—Enrico Caruso, who is performing at the opera in his first Parisian season, has been explaining to an interviewer the penalties he pays for being the most expensive tenor on earth and how he sighs for the days when he was less famous.

The man who has paid his money to hear me, and the management, which pays me $2000 a night," he said, "would not forgive me if I were not always in the best of form. Trusted by some, watched by others, I am a machine which never must be out of order. But the machine is human and subject to external influences—people forget that."

"So the thought that I may not come up to the mark haunts me continually and tortures me when I am about to walk on the stage. I tell you frankly I was happier when I was earning ten francs a night. I spent seven francs, kept three and knew that my reputation was not ruined if I happened to give a creak."

"I am always hungry. Before singing I smoke like a chimney, but I take nothing but a cup of tea on account of my voice. When I am taking parts which keep me on the stage the whole time I do not think of it, but when I have long intervals I feel the terrible pangs of hunger gnawing within."

"My peculiar form of stage fright makes me the unhappiest man in the world when I am about to sing. In my present position at the point at which I have arrived I am forbidden to have the least weakness. I am in the case of a man who must, cost what it may, be continually at the pitch of his reputation."

JUNCTION CITY NEWS FROM THE TIMES

Died—July 9, 1908, Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Oldham, aged 2 years, 2 months and 17 days.

A match game of baseball has been arranged between the home team and the Crocets, of Eugene, for Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Mr. Scheldt, of the local telephone office, informs us that the Pacific States Telephone Company will commence shortly to rebuild their system in this city. We hope the improvement will soon be made, and also that in the changes to be made the convenience of the patrons will be taken into consideration.

Some sneak thief entered the residence of Wm. Leppert Monday afternoon during the absence of Mrs. Leppert, who had dropped in at a neighbor's, and ransacked everything in the house. The light-fingered gentleman was evidently after money, for no article of value seemed to be missing. There was no money in the house at the time and the thief secured nothing.

A bear entered the premises of Wm. Trip, some three miles north of here, Monday, and helped himself to a calf. This is an unusual occurrence for a bear to be prowling around the middle of the valley, but there is no mistake but what it is a bear all right. His tracks were plainly seen and his sleeping place was discovered in the brush. It would be a sport for some of our crack hunters with their dogs to get after Mr. Bear and run him up a tree.

J. H. Miller, the new proprietor of the water works, has been having all kinds of trouble with his plant. A splendid new well has been put in, cemented and walled up, and proof against the introduction of any foreign substance. A new six-horsepower engine has been installed, and also a new pump. Everything is now in readiness, and Friday the new machinery was put in motion and the tanks were soon filled. From this on there will be no dearth of water.

Mr. Miller requests us to state that all patrons are requested to use all the water they want to make up for lost time.—Times.

FIRST VICTORY IS IRISH-AMERICAN

London, July 13.—The first heat of the 1500-meter run in the Olympic games was won by J. Sullivan, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, of New York. Lightbody, of the Chicago Athletic Club, was second. Meadows, of Canada, was third. Sullivan's time was 4:08 2-5.

The outcome of the first heat was no surprise to the spectators and competing teams, as it was predicted that the Americans would have no difficulty in winning the event. This race has been conceded to the American sprinters without question by every one who had watched the work of the various contestants.

Melville Sheppard, of the Irish-American team of New York, won the second heat in 4:05, establishing a new record two-fifths of a second better than Lightbody's at the Olympic games at St. Louis. J. P. Halstead, of the New York Athletic Club, finished second, and Butterfield, of England, finished third.

N. F. Hallows, of England, won the third heat. Laughl, of Italy, finished second. Relly, of the Irish-American Club, of New York, failed to finish.

Although it was generally conceded that the Americans would carry off the honors in the 1000-meter event, England refused to give up hope after entering stars of the magnitude of H. A. Wilson, who won the trial race at the stadium, J. E. Deakin, southern county cross-country champion, and A. J. Robinson, the national and international cross-country champion.

Friends of G. Butterfield, the mile champion, were deeply disappointed at the showing he made in failing to finish better than third in the first heat.

Sweden also counted upon a place in this event. Kisti and Hallstrom being the favorite entries.

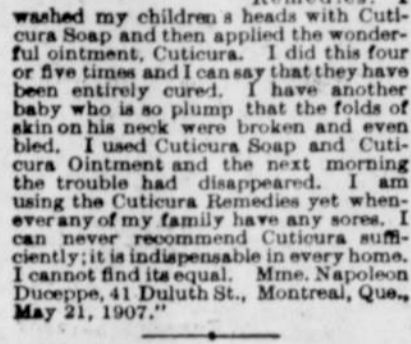

Halstead, who finished second in the second heat of the 1500-meter event, won the American tryout in 5:01 1-5. He ran under the colors of Cornell at that time.

FOUND CUTICURA INDISPENSABLE

For Her Children—Little Girls Suffered with Itching Eczema Which Simply Covered Back of Heads—Baby Had a Tender Skin, Too.

ALL PROMPTLY CURED BY "WONDERFUL OINTMENT"

"Some years ago my three little girls had a very bad form of eczema. Itching eruptions formed on the backs of their heads which were simply covered. Before I heard of Cuticura, I used to try almost everything, but they failed. Then my mother recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I washed my children's heads with Cuticura Soap and then applied the wonderful ointment, Cuticura. I did this four or five times and I can say that they have been entirely cured. I have another baby who is so plump that the folds of skin on his neck were broken and even bled. I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and the next morning the trouble had disappeared. I am using the Cuticura Remedies yet whenever any of my family have any sores, I can never recommend Cuticura sufficiently; it is indispensable in every home. I cannot find its equal. Miss Napoleon Dupeque, 41 Duluth St., Montreal, Que., May 21, 1907."
