GEO. LONG INVENTS IMPORTANT MACHINE

It has been known by a few people here, tha home town of Geo. Long, who for years operated a flouring mill in this city, associated with his father, J. C. Long, under the name of J. C. Long & Co., that he has spent much time the past few years in perfecting a device which would effectually clean wheat preparatory to grinding, with the view of getting more flour and a better article out of a given number of bushels of wheat.

For the past two years Mr. Long has had his invention well in hand and associated with his father and brother, "Fate" has been operating his machine, now perfected and fully covered by patent, in a small mill at Elsworth, on the Columbia river, not far from Portland.—Cottage Grove Western Oregon.

LOVE STORY FROM LIMERICKS

There was a young lady of Kew, whose eyes were a beautiful blue, in every good book you will find, if you look, that the heroine's eyes were this hue. One day, by a fortunate chance, she happened to meet at a dance a pleasant young man (that's the usual plan in beginning a thrilling romance). They were both of them excellent dancers, and so, in the course of a Lancers he remarked, "I opine that the weather is fine." She replied with the shyest of answers. And thus, having broken the ice, and thinking the girl rather nice in the usual way of a fellow who's gay he squeezed her soft hand once or twice. Later on they sat out in the hall; the ferns were delightfully tall, and the chairs were so placed there was no room to waste, but that didn't matter at all. An acquaintance beginning like this is a chance that one ought not to miss. It is rather absurd, but I can't find a word to rhyme with those lines—except kiss. The youth was a pushing young man, and pursuing the usual plan he called on her father (who really was rather a brute), and in this way began: "I have called, sir, to ask for the hand of your daughter Elizabeth, and I hope you will see your way to agree to my suit and will grant my demand." The business man, keen as a knife, said: "You wish for my girl as a wife; if you answer one question you may purchase the ring; now what are your prospects in life?" Said the youth, "I am one of those men whose fortune consists in a pen; my intellect shines in Limerick lines. I win prizes again and again. I'm really a marvel at rhyme, my metre is simply sublime. Just think of the sizes of some of the prizes, to enormous dimensions they climb." Said the father with scarcely a pause, "Such merit must win my applause. As a son-in-law you will undoubtedly do, so take her, young fellow, she's yours."

FOR HARBOR IMPROVEMENT.

(Florence West.)

The committee of the Siuslaw River Improvement Club are busy at work securing information and striving to get things in shape as fast as possible to submit the question of issuing bonds for the harbor improvement to the people for their approval. The adoption of the initiative method of enacting laws has complicated affairs so that there is a difference of opinion among attorneys about the proper course to pursue in voting the bonds. When asked about the matter Attorney General Crawford stated that without investigating it was his opinion that when the initiative was adopted it took control of this question out of the hands of the legislature and that the law to permit the issue of the bonds could be passed only by a vote of the people. One attorney who is also a member of the legislature, doubts whether such a law passed in this way would be constitutional and be sustained by the courts. The committee will consult some of the ablest attorneys of the state and get their opinions as to the best course to pursue. It is important that every step be taken in the right way that there be no doubt as to the legality of the bonds. Meantime our people are in a hurry to have work commenced on the jetty just as soon as possible, and are practically unanimous in their support of this plan to raise funds for that purpose.

For Stomach, Liver and Kidney trouble, it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best, too, for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at W. A. JULES CAPTURED AFTER SHORT FIGHT

Marysville, Cal., July 17.—Exhausted from want of food, his clothes in tatters and himself worn out from tramping the mountains for three days, seeking to evade his pursuers, Adolph Jules, the Italian who last Tuesday shot down and killed two fellow countrymen at a construction camp on the Western Pacific Railway, and attempted to murder the American foreman and his wife, was captured today at Toll Gate by a sheriff's posse in Plumas county, after a sharp fight.

Finding himself intercepted and his retreat cut off, Jules opened fire upon the posse with his rifle with which he had shot Antonio Liberatos and Giovanni Puccini in the Western Pacific camp. He was quickly surrounded and after manw shots were exchanged, finding that he could not break through the cordon about him, surrendered to the officers.

To prevent a lynching, the prisoner was hurried to Oroville and placed in jail.
