PORTLAND MARKET REPORT.
Portland, Or., Aug. 6.—The cabbage shortage this year has made the price for sauerkraut much higher than it has been for years, but the quality is much below the average. This is attributed to the lack of rain and to the heat.

The farmers all raised cabbage last year and the rainfall was abundant. As a consequence the dealers almost had to give away the product. This year, disheartened by the poor demand of last season, the gardeners did not put in very many plants and the dry weather was so unfavorable to the growing of what little was planted that the present shortage was caused. The price was not reduced from the 2-cent mark.

Peaches Still Scarce.
Peaches continue scarce and in great demand. The early Hale variety is going off the market and the Crawford peaches will not be in yet for two weeks, so there will be no possibility of the price dropping. The crop was short this season anyway, owing to cold weather and frost in the spring. Two carloads of the fruit are expected today from California.

More Apples and Potatoes.
Apples continue in good demand and are coming in more freely, as are potatoes, these two commodities, as is natural becoming more abundant with the advancing season. The price remains at the same figures as in yesterday's quotations. Loganberries and raspberries are practically out of the market.

Chicken Market Overstocked.
More chickens came in today and the result was that a market already had shape, was made weaker. Dealers report retailers generally well stocked up and for the present at least, unwilling to take on more. Hens today were quoted at 11 to 12 cents and Springs at 14 and one producer man expressed the belief that before the end of the week hens and Springs would sell at about the same price. The outlook is for a dull market for the rest of the week. Eggs were unchanged today.

Cherries for Three Weeks.
There will be cherries in the market for the next three weeks, and perhaps longer, but of course not the abundance of the past two weeks, and the chances are that prices will remain about as at present, 5 to 10 cents a pound. Lamberts are now the main dependence, and the best of these bring the top price indicated. Some late Duke's offered today sold at 5 to 6 cents.

Butter at High Price.
Creamery butter is more than ordinarily hard to supply the insistent demand with, and the price is steadily growing higher. The milk product is now selling for 27 1/2 cents a pound straight.

Prunes Are Firmer.
The new crop Oregon prune market is quoted firm on a 3 1/2 cent bag basis. Some sales were made early in the season as low as 2 1/2 cents a pound straight.

Vegetables.
Potatoes—New, $1.15@1.25 per 100 lbs; sweet potatoes, 7c per lb.
Melons—Cantaloupes, $2 @ 2.75 per crate; watermelons, 90c@1.00 per 100 lbs; crated, 1/4c per lb additional; casabas, $2.50 per dozen.
Onions—California, red, $1.25 per sack; Walla Walla, $1.25@1.50; garlic 10c per pound.

Root Vegetables—Turnips, $1.50 per sack; carrots, $1.75; parsnips, $1.75; beets, $1.50.

Hops and Wool.
Hops—1907, prime and choice, 4 1/2@5c per pound; olds 2@2 1/2c per pound; contracts, 9@10c.
Wool—Eastern Oregon, average best, 10 @ 16 1/2c per pound, and to shrinkage, Valley, 15@16c; Mohair—Choice 18 @ 13 1/2c per pound; Casaca Bark—New, 4 1/2c per loads, old, 4c; carloads, 4 1/2c per loads.

Market Notes.
Shippers are now getting about dollar a box for Bartlett's E. O. B. California.

The shipments of deciduous fruit from California up to July 22 amount to 2415 cars, compared with 1840 up to the same date last year.

The price of cheese has advanced at Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, is reported finer at San Francisco, the present quotations at San Francisco for Oregon cheese are higher than in Portland.

The California Fruit Canners' association quote Royal Ann higher than any other brand, quotation is $2.85 for No. 2, $2.25 for No. 2 1/2 extras; $1.75 for No. 2 1/2 standard, and $1.50 for 2 1/2 seconds.

Canners in California are offering less than half as much for peaches as they paid last year. In vicinity of Anderson the claim offering $15 a ton and growers holding off for $20. At San Francisco it is reported that canners offered $25 for fancy Bartlett's.

The last issue of the California Fruit Grower says prunes are undoubtedly much firmer under current figures. December closed at an increase of four cents over the opening.

The farmers of the grain belt seem to want to hold, many of them waiting for the 80-cent mark to be reached. Last year at this time they would have been glad to sell for 75 but now they want a dollar.

Portland Livestock Market.
The local wheat pit today maintained its busy aspect of yesterday and a number of shipments changed hands. Prices varied from 87 cents for December at the opening to 91 bid and 92 asked. The market closed strong at 89 cents bid for September No. 1 club. This was an advance of three cents over the opening figures. December closed at an increase of four cents over the opening.

MR. AND MRS. SOUDERS TO LEAVE EUGENE

The Bon Marche is inaugurating a great closing-out sale, it being the intention of the proprietor, W. L. Souders, to dispose of the goods at manufacturers' cost so that he will be able to leave Eugene about September 10th to take up his residence at Seattle, where he is interested in a big factory for making food products from bananas. Mr. Souders is vice president of the International Banana Company, of Ann Arbor, Mich., which manufactures 22 different kinds of food products. The company is just completing its plant in Seattle, and Mr. Souders is compelled to be there to manage the big concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Souders, who have been prominent in the business and social life of Eugene since they came here several years ago, are loath to leave Eugene, but greater opportunities are in sight for them and they feel that they must take advantage of them. Their many friends also regret very much to learn that they are to leave the city.

SHOE SHOP IN COBURG

Walter Francis, the former Eugene high school football player, before he died from his injuries at Seattle the other day, asked his father, who was at his bedside, to give all his former schoolmates and friends in Eugene his love and asked him to tell them that he often thought of them during his last days and hours. Mr. Francis requests The Guard to deliver his son's message in this manner, as he would be unable to see many of the friends personally.

Hon. R. A. Booth and son, Roy, went to Yoncalla this afternoon. Roy has purchased a large farm there and will engage in the raising of stock on an extensive scale.

ANDERSON AND BERGER FALL OVER STEEP PRECIPICE

A telephone message to The Guard from Lowell late this afternoon brought the information that the vehicle in which Jake Berger and Tom Linn, of Eugene, and "Stub" Anderson and Eliza Pickard, of Portland, were riding on their way to Hill's ranch, on the upper Willamette, where they intended spending some time hunting and fishing, tipped over and fell down a cliff at Dead Horse, about fifteen miles above Lowell, resulting in serious injuries to Berger and Anderson. Berger suffered a broken leg and a broken arm, while Anderson had his shoulder broken. The other occupants of the rig escaped without injury except bruises. There are no particulars of the accident, as the person who telephoned from Lowell hurried away soon after the accident happened without inquiring as to how the rig happened to turn over. Drs. Bartle and Seafie were telephoned for, and they left Eugene about 3:45 this afternoon to attend the injuries. Dr. F. M. Day, who is on his way home from an outing up the Middle Fork, was expected there this afternoon and he, too, will help to care for the injured men.

EUGENE MAN BADLY HURT NEAR CORVALLIS

The Corvallis Times of yesterday tells of an accident to a Eugene man as follows: "Yesterday evening a camper, with his family, enroute from Newport to Eugene, was thrown from a horse near the bridge on South Main street. The gentleman is past 60 years and suffered a badly crushed hip, which was attended by a couple of local physicians, who report that the old man will not be able to move for ten weeks, and will never again walk easily."

It is not known who the man is. So many Eugene people are going to Newport now, and a good many of them are driving over.
