LOST VALLEY NOTES

(Special Correspondence.) Lost Valley, July 30.—Haying is now almost a thing of the past in this vicinity. H. M. Parvin made a trip to Eugene last Thursday. Rev. Frank Kelly, pastor of the Baptist church here, spent the past week visiting friends at Dorena and Sagnaw. E. M. Parker and family started for Silver Lake and other Eastern Oregon points last Wednesday, the 23d. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. McDougal spent a week in our pleasant valley visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fenton. They left yesterday for Hazel Dell, where they will stay for two or three weeks. T. H. Fenton visited in Eugene last Saturday. Bro. D. E. Ryker has sent an appointment for the 5th Sunday in August. Rev. Baker's visits are always appreciated. Bro. R. L. Edwards held services at Trent last Sunday. Edgar Johnson and Rhode Wilbourn started for a hunting trip today. Several of our neighbors have been camped up the river several miles, picking blackberries. G. E. Miller, of this city, received a message today that Mrs. Louis Nichols, who with several others was killed by a crazy South street car conductor, was the sister of his wife.

JIM HILL TELLS WHY HE GIVES UP THE ORIENT

St. Paul, Minn., July 31.—The announcement that the Hill lines have abandoned the marine portion of their share in the trade with Japan and China, while retaining affiliation with Japanese steamship lines, came as a shock to many people of the Northwest. According to the chairman of the board, James J. Hill of the Great Northern, it was to be expected.

"Why," exclaimed Mr. Hill, "our Pacific trade has been gone for a year. As long as 15 months ago I told them that was coming. Asked if the action of the American trans-continental roads in withdrawing from the Pacific carrying trade was due to resentment at the action of the Interstate commerce commission, Mr. Hill replied: "Resentment, no. The commission cannot be blamed for enforcing the law. The Pacific trade was given up because it did not pay. America today has no flag on the high seas, or might as well not have, for we cannot compete with any other country, and must hand the load over to anybody that asks for it. The only way for us to continue in the Pacific trade would be for the railroads to own their own steamers and run them at a heavy loss. We are not a seafaring nation. We have no sailors, though under the law Americans must constitute two-thirds or three-fourths of the crew. What we must have to make an ocean-carrying trade possible is not subsidies, but intelligent legislation that helps instead of hinders."

EX-GOVERNOR BUGG DEAD AT STOCKTON

Stockton, July 30.—James H. Bugg, former governor of California, died early today of Bright's disease, aged 58.

WARNING AGAINST DANGEROUS ROADWAY

Editor Guard:—The building of the street railroad just within the city limits at Judkins' Point narrows an already narrow road to the danger point, especially considering the fact that two teams passing there one will be forced very near to the railway track. And no person who has driven horses to any considerable extent will fail to realize the danger that will mean there with a car passing at the same time.

The remedy? The road should be widened twenty feet. And the city authorities should not wait till some one is killed or crippled before doing it.

Then for two weeks or so the north side of the east end of Thirteenth street has been left without a crossing over the street railway. Any one driving east on that side of the street, especially at night, would find himself in a pretty pickle when he got where the street railway crosses the railroad—in a rack, as it were.

Chases $145 Thief, Kills $250 Horse. Brownsville, Or., July 29.—C. Troutman, a farmer living near here, who lost $145 through a farm laborer, has given up hope of catching the thief. The fugitive laborer was a tramp, and had been hired but a short time when the robbery took place.

Troutman gave chase to his thieving farmhand on horseback. He arrived in Albany two hours behind him, his horse covering the distance in a little over an hour. After reaching home the animal dropped dead. It was valued at $250.

SPECIAL BOND ELECTION ON OCTOBER FIRST

At a meeting of the city council last night a resolution was passed providing for an amendment to the city charter by vote of the people, granting the city council power to issue water bonds to the amount of $500,000, providing for levying a tax of one mill per year, and providing for the use of the income and the establishing of a water board after the plan is completed. The resolution also provides for voting $50,000 sewer bonds, including $27,000 sewer warrants already issued. According to the resolution the city council shall have charge of the water plant until completed, after that a commission to be appointed to manage the plant. The vote on the resolution was as follows: Garrett, aye; Roach, aye; Fisher, aye; Gilbert, aye; Harbaugh, aye; Williams, aye.

An ordinance providing for a special election to vote on this amendment was passed. The election will be held on Thursday, October 1.

Another resolution providing for amending the city charter so that the street improvement fund can be increased from $2000 to $15,000 was introduced. The vote on it stood: Garrett, no; Roach, no; Fisher, aye; Gilbert, aye; Harbaugh, no; Williams, aye. The mayor cast the deciding vote, which was no, and the resolution was lost.

Morris Bros. Get Bonds. A resolution accepting the bid of Morris Bros. for the balance of the $300,000, as specified, was passed so that they get only one per cent for printing the bonds and getting legal opinion upon the validity of the proceedings, was passed by the following vote: Garrett, aye; Roach, aye; Fisher, no; Gilbert, aye; Harbaugh, aye; Williams, no.

Attorney Will Get More Pay. An ordinance increasing the salary of City Attorney Bean from $50 to $75 per month was passed unanimously.

An ordinance repealing an ordinance prohibiting military companies and fire companies from drilling on the streets was passed.

The matter of paving Sixth street was the subject of much discussion. It was voted to rescind the order awarding the contract for paving the street between Olive and Willamette street, and then the matter of awarding the contract for paving the street from Oak to Olive street was lost. The vote was as follows: Garrett, aye; Roach, no; Fisher, aye; Gilbert, no; Harbaugh, no; Williams, no. The mayor voted no.

The city attorney, though, was directed to draw ordinances to pave Fifth street from Olive to Willamette, and Sixth street from Olive to the alley between Willamette and Oak, and advertisements for bids will be published again.

He was also directed to draw an ordinance to pave West Ninth street from Olive to Lincoln, two blocks distant.

Open Willamette Street. R. McMurphy appeared before the meeting and spoke upon the matter of opening Willamette street through the depot grounds to a point opposite his residence on the slope of the bluff. He offered to dedicate the land for the street opposite his house without cost, and he stated that he and E. W. Pollock, who owns property abutting on the proposed street, were willing to have the extension paved. The matter was referred to the city attorney, who will confer with the railroad authorities in regard to it.

The cannery has been leased for the season by the Elmore Company, of Astoria, who have large snipping and canning interests on the Columbia river. Preparations were being made to open the cannery at the beginning of the coming salmon season on the Siuslaw, and the load of supplies carried on the Gerard C. was that brought in. Later a big crew of Chinese laborers were coming down from Astoria, and it was planned to operate the cannery to its full capacity.

The fire was a spectacular one and attracted the entire population of the little town of Acme as well as people from Florence and other nearby points, many of whom went to the scene in boats, this being the only means of transportation from one point to another on the lower river. Nothing could be done to save the building from total destruction. One cannery, that owned by Wm. Kyle at Florence, will have to take care of the salmon run on the Siuslaw this season as a result of today's fire.

The headquarters of the national committee are the same as those occupied as local headquarters in the last two national campaigns. But the visitors today found few of the old familiar faces. Chairman Hitchcock has surrounded himself with a clerical force that is almost entirely new to the work. For the most part the clerks and attendants are young men whom Mr. Hitchcock terms "hustlers." The sons and nephews of committee-men and others with a pull are conspicuous by their absence. The committee expects that it will have to get along with a leaner pocketbook than in previous years and as a consequence none but workers will be kept on the payroll at headquarters.

WORK BEGINS ON TWO NEW RAILROADS

Brownsville, Or., July 29.—Work on the new railroad up the Callipoola river from Brownsville has commenced. Ties are now being placed along the proposed route.

The new line is badly needed. It will open up one of the finest dairy and fruit sections of the country, besides giving an outlet for the millions of feet of lumber sawed by the mills in the Callipoola valley. A new switch has been placed at Brownsville by the Southern Pacific for the big cannery.

Dallas, Or., July 29.—That a railroad between Dallas and Salem will be running in full operation within fifteen months is now an assured fact. Engineers in the employ of the Salem-Falls City & Western Railroad Company have been out over the line for the past month engaged in making surveys. This work has been practically completed and contractors will be put to work as soon as the necessary details are completed. It is understood that Ledbetter, of Portland, Spaulding, of Newberg, and other wealthy men in Portland are backing the line.

Brownsville, Or., July 29.—C. Troutman, a farmer living near here, who lost $145 through a farm laborer, has given up hope of catching the thief. The fugitive laborer was a tramp, and had been hired but a short time when the robbery took place.
