PINCHOT TALKS ON PRESERVATION OF THE FORESTS

Boston, Mass., Aug. 14.—Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States, addressed the typographical convention on the preservation of the forests today. He spoke as follows:

"The conservation of national resources is the use of hard sense business principles and practical knowledge in dealing with the land we live in. It means keeping this country a good place to live in for ourselves and for our children. Most of all, it means the avoidance of waste."

"When the founders of this nation landed in America they found one of the most magnificent forests of all the world. They used some of it, but they or their descendants wasted as much as they used, until today the end of our timber supply is in sight. If the present rate of cutting should continue it will be gone in twenty-five or thirty years."

"We have had and we still have vast mineral resources. But we have wasted about half the coal in the mines already worked by defective methods of mining and by taking the best and much of the power in the coal is wasted when we burn it. The coal, once burned, cannot, like timber, be replaced by care and cultivation. Once gone it is forever gone."

"We have the most wonderful system of rivers to be found in any civilized country, and the least used. There is less transportation on our rivers, taken altogether, now than there was fifty years ago, in spite of the vast sums spent upon them, and they are less navigable than they were then. We have allowed them to be clogged with the soil washed from our fields, and every one of the hundreds of millions of tons so lost every year helps to make the farmer poorer and to reduce the product of our farms."

"It is a great and pressing patriot-

BUDGET OF LIVE NEWS STORIES FROM COTTAGE GROVE

Dr. Katherine Schloef and baby and a lady friend, Mrs. Weaver, narrowly escaped drowning in the Coast Fork in the vicinity of Rouse's mill Monday night. They were driving to Black Butte in a buggy behind Mrs. Schloef's spirited horse and while rounding a very narrow grade on the river bank the horse slipped and jumped to the side of the road, throwing the buggy over the bank into the river with the two ladies and the small child. For some moments the ladies were entangled in the buggy cover and were held under water, but they finally extricated themselves from their perilous position and with some effort reached the bank, the water at this point being from five to six feet deep. However, aside from being severely strangled and soaking wet, they returned to Rouse's mill nearby and were given dry clothes and cared for while they recovered from the severe shock of the accident, returning to their home in this city Tuesday. It was a very narrow escape from a fatal accident.

Free Library
A meeting is called for next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Cozy Korner, to discuss the plan of establishing a free library and reading room in this city. A committee of two from every church and organization in Cottage Grove has been appointed and it is hoped that all persons interested in the plan will come out. A free library and reading room is something that every city of this size needs, and all should not only speak favorably on the question when the opportunity affords, but they ought to attend this meeting next Wednesday evening and "push a good thing along."

Swimming Pool and Rink
W. B. Cooper, a local real estate man, is breaking ground for a new $3000 building which he will erect on Fourth street. The structure is to be occupied by a swimming pool and a skating rink. It will be two stories high and 100x80 feet. The skating rink will be upstairs, and the swimming pool, which is to be made of concrete, will occupy the lower floor and basement. A hardwood floor will be laid in the skating rink and this, combined with the size, will be appreciated by the skaters. The new building is expected to be finished within the next six weeks.

Nearly Burned to Death
Frank Chapman's little six-year-old son was badly burned at Wednesday by pulling a small forge containing live coals over on him. He was pinned down by the forge and rendered unconscious, several minutes passing before he was observed and removed from his perilous position, during which time he was severely burned on the left side, including the side of his face. Dr. Schloef was called and relieved the little fellow from his intense sufferings and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Miscellaneous News
On Monday evening the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Higgins, of the Klondike mill, on Moskey creek, overturned a tin can of scalding water over herself, badly scalding her face, breast and right arm. Dr. Kime was called, who dressed the burns. He reports the little one as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Mary E. McCulloch, of Anlauf, fell down stairs and broke her left arm about three and a half inches from the shoulder. Dr. Kime was called to reduce the fracture and reports her as getting along as well as might be expected. She is an elderly lady, 73 years of age, and is the mother of Mrs. Frank Ahlf.

The new bridge across Brumhaugh creek, constructed by the contractor L. N. Roney, accepted by the county court and the bill audited, the contract price being $1125. It will be a great convenience to the Brumhaugh creek neighborhood.

Miss Nellie Williams, of Eugene, stopped in town for a few hours on Tuesday, while enroute to her home. She had been up to Bohemia for a few days.

Through the earnest solicitation of his many friends Dr. Kime has decided to remain in Cottage Grove.—Leader and Western Oregon.

PROHI LEADER INJURED WHILE DEFENDING NEGRO

Springfield, Aug. 15.—Eugene W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for president, was struck down by a rock while defending a negro from the attacks of a mob last night, but was not seriously injured. Chafin threatened to shoot any man who touched the negro and reached toward his pistol pocket, but the threat had the desired result, although Chafin was unarmed.

After burning many houses in the negro quarter the mob became desperate and at 3 o'clock this morning caught Chas. Hunter, a negro, at Twelfth and Madison streets, in the heart of the district known as the "Bad Lands," and lynched him before the troops arrived on the scene. It was declared that Hunter had shot two white men in the effort to escape the mob. His body was riddled with bullets and as the body was hanging from a tree the crowd danced around it gleefully.

Troops Rushed In
Troops are being rushed to the city from all parts of the state, and negroes are leaving by every possible means. The mob spirit is still rampant, although the authorities claim to have the situation well in hand.

Despite the claim there is every chance of another clash. The negroes are well armed and are showing a spirit of determination, while the whites are in an angry mood and farmers and men from adjoining towns are pouring into the city.

At noon comparative quiet prevailed.

CURE BY CUTICURA SEEMED LIKE MAGIC

"Words cannot express the gratitude I feel for what Cuticura Remedies have done for my daughter, Adelaide. She is fifteen years of age, and had never had anything the matter with her skin until four months ago, when an eruption broke out on her chest. The first symptom was a redness, and then followed thickening and blisters, which would break and run matter. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it to be eczema of a very bad form. He treated her, but instead of being checked, the disease spread. It showed itself on her back, and then quickly spread upwards until the whole of her head was affected, and all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was excruciating, and what with that and the heat and tingling her life was almost unbearable. She became run down in health, and at times was very feverish, languid, and drowsy, and occasionally in such a low state that she could not bear to be left alone. In spite of the cold weather she would insist on having her bedroom window open, and would lean out on the window-sill. She did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The second doctor we tried afforded her just as little relief as the first, and I really do not know what we should have done if we had not read how Cuticura cured a similar case. I purchased Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, and before finished every trace of the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Her hair is coming on nicely, and I still apply the Cuticura Ointment as I find it increases the growth of hair. Mrs. E. W. Hyde, 1, Ongar Place, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907."

METHODIST CRUSADE FOR ELECTION OF SPEAKER OF HOUSE

Baltimore, Aug. 12.—The Methodist Episcopal church has begun an active crusade for the election of a speaker of the house of representatives "who will allow congress to vote on an interstate liquor shipment bill." The church, which has over 3,000,000 communicants, has created a temperance society with the authority to represent the denomination in all temperance matters. This society is managed by a board composed of fifteen members named by the bishop and elected by the late general conference.

ic duty to stop this waste and instead to substitute care and foresight as a nation in the use of the great resources of our prosperity. The whole future of our country depends on what we of this generation decide to do with our resources.

President Roosevelt has put into the hands of the American people three great ideas: First, the idea of the square deal which the fair-play policy, and involves the question of whether or not the great public service corporations like the railroads shall be the servants or the masters of the people; second, the conservation or fonsight idea, which involves the question whether or not we shall throw away the future of this nation by destroying the resources of its national welfare; third, the farm life idea or policy, to consider which he has just appointed a commission on country life. This policy involves the question of whether the men who produce our food in the country shall have as good a chance in life as the men who consume the foods in the towns. For these three ideas President Roosevelt will be remembered as blessed long after all of us have gone to our reward."

CALIFORNIA HOPE INJURED BY STORM

It is evident from a telegram received yesterday, by Conrad Krebs from W. E. Lovelade, that the hop crop in California has been quite badly damaged by a windstorm which hit the state in the south on Sunday last. The telegram said:

"Two hundred acres trellis and thousands of vines blown down Sunday."

Mr. Krebs does not know how serious the disaster is or whether it will affect the price of California hops or not. It is not probable, however, that the price will be generally affected by the storm, which appears to have been local in its character.—Salem Statesman.
