Notice for Publication
United States Land Office, Roseburg, Ore., Aug. 17, '08. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An Act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1892, Thomas B. Seavy, of Eugene, county of Lane, State of Oregon, did on January 27, 1908, file in this office his sworn statement No. 5547, for the purchase of the W. 1/2 of N. W. 1/4 (fractional) of Section No. 18 in Township No. 17 south, Range No. 2 West, W. M., and will offer for sale that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before W. W. Calkins, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Eugene, Oregon, on Thursday, the 20th day of August, 1908.

He names as witnesses: Henry Thelme, of Mohawk, Oregon; Link Yarnell, of Mohawk, Oregon; James Seavey, of Eugene, Oregon; John Seavey, of Eugene, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before the said 20th day of August, 1908.

HOPS WILL BE TEN DAYS LATE

Reports from the hopfields in this and other sections of the valley indicate that the hops are from ten days to two weeks behind the season up to date and the indications are that the harvest will be considerably later than the average this year and that the hops will ripen unevenly in most districts.

Ordinarily the hops should be in blossom the latter part of July and the hops should ripen within three weeks after coming out of the burr. This year, it is stated by those who have been touring the county and viewing conditions generally, that it does not exceed 30 per cent of the fields have yet come out of the blossom and that these yards which have "hopped out" are in the early stages of advancement. This condition, it is said, is due to the prolonged dry spell in most cases and to lack of cultivation in others. However, there will be plenty of hops and to spare when the harvest is over.

ADMIRAL EVANS RETIRES FROM SERVICE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 18.—The name of as gallant and efficient an officer as ever wore the American naval uniform was removed from the active list today when Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, known the world over as "Fighting Bob," was retired for age. Admiral Evans took the great Atlantic battleship fleet around Cape Horn last winter, and his official career virtually ended with the arrival of the fleet at San Francisco. Since that time he has been on leave of absence and has been resorting at various health spas in an effort to conquer a bad attack of rheumatism, an ailment from which he has suffered a number of years.

With the single exception of Admiral Dewey, "Fighting Bob" Evans was undoubtedly the best known and most popular officer the American navy has known since the heroes of the civil war period passed from active life. Admiral Evans in recent years has been known as the reliable man of the navy, for there was always assurance that he would discharge his duty with courage and patriotism. Since that time he has been on leave of absence and has been resorting at various health spas in an effort to conquer a bad attack of rheumatism, an ailment from which he has suffered a number of years.

Admiral Evans began fighting in the civil war, when he was still in his teens, and completed his record of actual hostilities by the great work he did with the battleship Iowa at Santiago. In the interval and since that time he rendered his country every kind of service.

TRAVIS SURE BRYAN WILL BE ELECTED

(Seattle Daily Times, Aug. 17.)
"If the national election were held now, Bryan would undoubtedly be the choice for president, but in the weeks intervening between now and November 3 it is difficult to say just what Republican organization and Republican resources may accomplish."

L. M. Travis, of Eugene, Or., chairman of the Lane County Democratic central committee, delegate to Denver and member of the Bryan notification committee, who is in Seattle, this morning made the statement given.

"I have traveled extensively throughout the states west of the Mississippi river for three months," continued Mr. Travis, "and everywhere the Bryan sentiment is strong. I have made it a point to talk with organized labor, especially railroad men, and I believe fully 60 per cent of them are in favor of the Democratic ticket."

"I am looked upon as the foe of organized labor, and it is going to take some extra hard campaigning on the part of the Republicans to break down this sentiment."

Mr. Travis is a guest at the Washington Annex. He will leave for Portland tonight in order to attend the Democratic rally there tomorrow night, when Judge Alton B. Parker is to speak.

KELSEY'S PROPOSITION WAS VOTED DOWN

Petitions of remonstrance against the granting of the Mount Scott district to the new water company formed by B. S. Kelsey are in circulation among the residents of the Mount Scott territory. These petitions will be presented to the county court, asking the court to postpone the hearing of the petition from Monday until such time as the Mount Scott people can investigate the new company thoroughly.

With but one dissenting vote the citizens of Friesland last night voted to reject the plan of incorporating. Estimates were presented showing that if incorporated the town of Friesland could secure an adequate water system for about $8000. The vote on the question indicated the disfavor with which it was met.—Telegram.

SECRETARY BENSON NOT SERIOUSLY ILL AS REPORTED

San Francisco, Aug. 17.
S. A. Koser, Salem, Or., reports that I am seriously ill or in a hospital are wholly without foundation. F. W. BENSON.

The above is the reply to a telegram sent to Secretary of State F. W. Benson yesterday afternoon by Chief Clerk Sam A. Koser, when the latter learned that certain afternoon papers were out with a big point put determined to make a story out of Mr. Benson's slight illness.—Salem Statesman.

DEMAND FOR HAY WILL BOOST PRICES

Portland, Or., Aug. 20.—That there is ground for the belief now more or less prevalent among the farmers of this state that good hay prices throughout the year may reasonably be expected, is the contention of one of the leading hay and feed dealers of the city.

"On an average about 15 cars of hay are now being brought to the city daily," he said today. "This is not a very large volume among the farmers of this state that good hay prices throughout the year may reasonably be expected, is the contention of one of the leading hay and feed dealers of the city.

"The California Fruit Grower reports that the local market in San Francisco has been flooded with Bartlett pears. Cannerymen have been paying from $15 to $20 per ton for No. 1 stock. Dryers and peddlers have taken No. 2 stock at $10 per ton or 25 cents per box.

The California Fruit Grower says packers have been scurrying around the country buying prunes, and have paid as high as 4 1/2 cents (for the four sizes) to growers in the Santa Clara valley. This would be equivalent to 6 1/2 cents for 30x40s, but on account of the scarcity of large sizes a premium of 1/2 cent is asked on 40x50s and 1 cent on 30x40s. This would make the price of 30x40s 7 1/2 cents and the price of 40x50s 6 1/2 cents for Santa Clara prunes. Oregon French or Petites should bring within half a cent of the price of Santa Claras.

The largest sale of fruit yet this year was made last Friday evening when E. L. French Company, of this place, purchased 400,000 pounds of French and Italian prunes of the following Myrtle Creek growers: Clew Weaver, 50,000; Ed Weaver, 200,000; J. J. Chadwick, 40,000; J. B. Hart, 30,000, and M. B. Smith, 20,000 pounds. The above figures are approximated. The actual yield may reach more than 500,000 pounds. The price paid was 5 cents for Italians and 5 1/2 cents for French 30-35s, with 3/4 cent drop for each lower grade of five points.—Myrtle Creek (Ore.) Mail.

Another Slash in Prices

The end of this Big Sale is not far off

Our loss is your gain. We must vacate this building by September 10th. We have marked our immense stock at manufacturers' cost, but as we have only a little over one week to sell the remainder in we have decided not to stop for anything, we are going to cut the prices down even lower than before. Just think of it below manufacturers' cost. Now is when it will pay you to buy a year's supply of everything as blankets, quilts, shoes, clothing, dress goods, waists, hosiery, etc.

Closing Out Sale Waists

Just think of buying the best lingerie and silk waists at just what manufacturers charge and even less. Don't pay $5, we will sell you one for $2.95, and don't pay $2.50, we will sell you one like it for only now 95c.

Closing Out Sale Pants

You can buy dress trousers at working trousers' prices and you can buy working trousers at the price of overalls. Hundreds of patterns and styles to pick from. Every one must be sold by September the 29th.

THE BON MARCHE 540 Willamette Street points are held very stiff in consequence and the present indications are not for advanced values.

Butter supplies continue much under the current demand and while values are still showing no change from last week, the market is inclined to advance.

Heavier Receipts of Apples.
Fruit dealers today reported heavy receipts of apples, Oregon comprising the bulk of the arrivals. Apple stocks generally are large, and a considerable proportion of them being low grade, they are none too active. Prices have a wider range, common apples selling for 75c to $1 a box, and the better sorts to $1.50. Among the latter are California Gravens.

Poultry Prices Firmly Held.
There were no signs of weakening in the poultry market today, though the volume of business done was comparatively small. Receipts were moderate and the demand was sufficient to take all that came, with the best demand being for fancy hens. There is now some inquiry for ducks and turkeys, but not many of either are offered.

Best Tomatoes Are Higher.
First class quality tomatoes are showing an advance in price, owing to the very small amount of stock offered. Some from California is bringing as high as $1.25, as does some of the best local stock. Generally the market ranges around $1. Advice from the country state that the vines are covered with green tomatoes of very good size but the stock is ripening very slowly. All express the opinion that this is an off year for tomatoes.

Brief Notes of the Trade.
Dullness continues in the hog market with no business of importance passing in any section of the world at the moment.
Peach supplies along Front street are very liberal with some sales of Hale's Early around 50c. Early Crawford from eastern Oregon are selling from 60c to 75c, according to quality, but thus far the quality has not been of the best. Some Elbertas from the south are selling as high as 85c a box.
Coleslaw from Denver is arriving in quite good shape and is finding a demand around 90c a dozen. Some from Olympia selling from 75c to that figure.
Cantaloupe market is down with much larger supplies offering from local points. Quotations go no higher than $2 a crate and range down to $1.50 for good stock.
Portland Livestock Market.
With the near-by available supply showing a decrease, sheep display more strength in the local market than for some time past, but developments today were not such as to warrant any change in quotations. None were received and livestock dealers say the supply in the valley is about gone. From this time on this market will have to draw on Eastern Oregon, Idaho and the Rocky Mountain states very largely for its supply of mutton.
The hog market is unchanged, with prime porkers in good demand at top quotations, and stockers, which comprise a good part of the supply, somewhat less active at lower figures. There is a decided scarcity of good hogs in the territory adjacent to Portland, and for months to come a good deal of pork will have to be brought in from the Middle West.
Cattle are steady at the prices that have ruled for several days. In lambs and calves current receipts are about equal to the requirements of the trade.
Quotations ruling in the livestock market are:
Hogs—Best, $6.50@7; medium, $5.75@6; feeders, $5.50@5.75.
Cattle—Best steers, $3.75@4; medium, $3.25@3.50; common, $3@3.25; cows, $2.50@3; medium, $2.25@2.50; calves, $4@5.
Sheep—Best wethers, $2.50; mixed, $3; ewes, $2.50@2.75; lambs, best trimmed, $4; untrimmed, $3.50@3.75.
General Market Notes.
Recent wool sales at London showed a decided gain in prices over previous sales.
It is not probable that the potato crop of the Pacific Coast this year will exceed 60 per cent of the amount raised last year.
The price paid for blue stem wheat at Walla Walla, Wash., August 7, was 85 cents, which was higher than at any time previous for 11 years.
The onion market is starting at a very low price at Walla Walla, Wash., where growers are getting only 50 cents per sack, compared with $1.50 at the opening of the season last year.
The California Fruit Grower reports that the local market in San Francisco has been flooded with Bartlett pears. Cannerymen have been paying from $15 to $20 per ton for No. 1 stock. Dryers and peddlers have taken No. 2 stock at $10 per ton or 25 cents per box.
The California Fruit Grower says packers have been scurrying around the country buying prunes, and have paid as high as 4 1/2 cents (for the four sizes) to growers in the Santa Clara valley. This would be equivalent to 6 1/2 cents for 30x40s, but on account of the scarcity of large sizes a premium of 1/2 cent is asked on 40x50s and 1 cent on 30x40s. This would make the price of 30x40s 7 1/2 cents and the price of 40x50s 6 1/2 cents for Santa Clara prunes. Oregon French or Petites should bring within half a cent of the price of Santa Claras.

WEEK'S NEWS AT LONDON SPRINGS
(Guard's Special Service).
London Springs, Aug. 19.—H. O. Thompson and family and Marion Veatch and family, of Cottage Grove, picked on the banks of the Coast Fork Sunday.
The weather has been quite warm for this place, this week. The thermometer registered 94 Monday, the highest temperature this season.
Dr. M. C. Harris and wife, of Eugene, are registered at the hotel.
Mr. Tennis and son, Lee, who have been away at Bandon, joined his family here Monday and is now filling the place of landlord at the hotel.
C. M. Collier and sons were surveying in the Black Butte vicinity last week. Mrs. Collier and little daughter spent the time drinking mineral water and rusticiating at London.
The Mineral Association is having a 6000 gallon tank erected near the bath house. It will be used for the cold mineral water and the one now in use will be for hot water.
Nels Mikkleson brought his nephew, Hans Holm, up from Eugene a few days ago, and left him here in hope that he will be restored to health.
Mr. Armstrong, of Oakland, and Miss D. O'Neil of Portland, paid the place a flying visit Wednesday.
Fire broke out a few miles above here Sunday and but for the timely aid of neighbors who were called over the phone, Mr. Geer would have lost his house and barn. The barn had just been filled with hay and the fire was stopped only a few feet away.
Mr. Nogue's father and mother arrived here from Marion county last week. The old gentleman is in very poor health and will make his home with his son, who is one of the merchants of London.
Mrs. Bandon and children left Saturday to visit with relatives near Monroe.
Thomas Bailey returned to Eugene Monday, after a 10-days' rest at the springs.

RETURNS TO EUGENE FROM LAKE COUNTY
C. C. White, who returned with his family to Eugene a couple of weeks ago from Lakeview, is satisfied that the Willamette valley is a better place of residence for many reasons. He says that there is no land to be taken up there worth having, but that a man of means could no doubt make good investments or do well in business. Climatic conditions are much better here, and he suffered with malaria while there.

HIDDEN DANGERS.
Nature Gives Timely Warnings that No Eugene Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.
DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys send out a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular in passage.
DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Don't let your Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Eugene proof: Mrs. W. D. Wood, of 385 West Eighth street, Eugene, Oregon, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results and have also treated one of my children who was afflicted with weakness of the kidneys for a number of years. From the great benefit already derived I do not hesitate to recommend that Doan's Backache, lameness and made and restless drizzly feeling made life a burden to me and I was unable to get rest night or day. Doan's Kidney Pills did great service in relieving this condition."
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Doster, of Portland, were in the city Tuesday of last week.
