

CONDENSED MILK PLANT PRACTICALLY A CERTAINTY

A milk condensing plant for Eugene is now practically assured and it is expected that it will be in operation inside of six months. Such is the information given to the Guard today by W. G. Allen, who has been largely instrumental in securing the plant by inducing some friends of his to send their representative here to look over the situation.

As exclusively stated by The Guard a few days ago, C. E. Rogers, representing capitalists who operate several milk condenseries in different parts of the country, was here and made several trips into the country adjacent to Eugene to ascertain whether or not enough milk could be secured for the proposed plant. Mr. Rogers made no statement as to his investigations, but his report was undoubtedly favorable, as Mr. Allen has received information directly from the promoters of the enterprise to the effect that they had practically decided to go ahead with the work of building the factory buildings.

The location of the plant has not yet been decided upon, but several lots are in view, and it will not be long until one of them is purchased and active building operations begun.

The plant will be a large one, and according to present plans, if sufficient milk can be assured, it can take care of 20,000 pounds each day. While a plant of this kind does not employ many men, it distributes many thousands of dollars among the farmers and dairymen each month, and wherever one is located it is a great prosperity producer. The plant will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000.

The identity of the promoters of the enterprise is not yet divulged, but suffice it to say they have plenty of capital. They are personal friends of Mr. Allen, who will look after their interests here for the present.

PROBABLY FIGHT NEAR BEER ORDINANCE

BREWERS MAY TEST LEGALITY OF NEW CITY LAW IN COURTS—WERE DOING BIG BUSINESS IN EUGENE

The city council last night passed a law prohibiting the sale of non-intoxicating malt liquors in Eugene, which affects the sale of "near beer," which has been sold at several cigar stores and soft drink places during the summer. Each dealer who has handled this beverage has done a big business with it from the start, as it tastes very much like the real beer and has just enough alcohol in it to cause an exhilarating effect if one drinks several glasses at one time.

One dealer early this morning, after it was learned that the ordinance had passed, telephoned to the Roseburg brewery cancelling his order for several kegs of the near beer, but the brewery had already been made. He said he would come to Eugene on the first train and secure a lawyer to see if the legality of the ordinance could not be tested in the courts. Other brewers who furnish the Eugene market will probably co-operate with this Roseburg brewer in trying to knock the ordinance out.

BRYAN ASKS TAFT TO SPEAK FOR HIMSELF

Baltimore, Sept. 14.—A few plain, simple sentences from Mr. Taft will be worth more than the eulogy that the president pronounces. The president's endorsement is of no value unless the president will agree to stay in Washington and see that Mr. Taft makes good.

In these words Bryan summed up his opinion of the letter of President Roosevelt commendatory of Taft.

"The president's letter, however, may be objected to as irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence. If Taft was dead it would be interesting to know from Mr. Roosevelt what he knows of Taft's opinions and work, but as Taft is alive and able to speak for himself, it is hardly necessary for Mr. Roosevelt to tell us what Taft will do. Taft is running upon a platform which was so unsatisfactory that he had to amend it in several particulars and yet, even as amended, it gives the public no definite idea of what Taft stands for. It is not sufficient for the president to say that Taft is a friend of labor. Taft's friendship is to be determined, not by the president's endorsement, but by the measures Mr. Taft advocates.

Mr. Taft believes that labor organizations should come under the operation of the anti-trust law; Taft is opposed to jury trial in cases of indirect contempt, thus denying to the laboring man the safeguard which is guaranteed to every other man tried in the criminal court.

Bryan declared Taft's position on the trust question is not changed by the president's endorsement and said the president has not succeeded in putting any trust magnates in the penitentiary, and said only a few trusts have been disturbed, and that there are more trusts in the country today than when Roosevelt was inaugurated.

Bryan said Taft had failed to express himself clearly on the tariff question. The platform does not use the word "reduction," but "revision," and Taft construes this to mean that some will be raised and some will be lowered, but gives no indication whether the average will be higher or lower than now. Bryan said:

"And so in regard to all questions at issue, Taft must make his position known. He cannot rely upon the president's recommendation."

These remarks by Mr. Bryan were called out by a letter written by President Roosevelt to Conrad Kohrs, a prominent citizen of Montana, in reply to one from the latter calling attention to a statement of Bryan's that he (Mr. Bryan) was the president's heir and natural successor. The president lauds Taft, saying, among other things:

"I have striven as president to champion in every proper way the interests of the wage-worker. I would for no consideration advise the wage-worker to do what I thought was against his interest. I ask his support for Mr. Taft exactly as I ask such support from every far-sighted and right-thinking American citizen, because I believe with all my heart that nowhere within the borders of our great country can there be found another man who will as vigilantly and efficiently as Mr. Taft support the rights of the workingman as he will the rights of every man who in good faith strives to do his duty as an American citizen. He will protect the just rights of both rich and poor, and he will war relentlessly against lawlessness and injustice whether exercised on behalf of property or labor."

On the bench Judge Taft showed the two qualities which make a great judge—wisdom and moral courage. They are also the two qualities that make a great president.

NEWS NOTES FROM LANE COUNTY COAST

(Special Correspondence.)

Florence, Sept. 15.—Percy Collier cut his knee quite badly while axing on his father's surveying crew in the mountains near Heeeta Head. Nine stitches were taken to close the wound. He will remain at E. R. McCracken's, on the North Fork, until it is safe to make the trip to Eugene.

Salmon fishing is very poor so far and many of the fishermen are worried as to the prospects of their usual income.

The sawmill at Florence is expected to close in about three weeks because of a lack of logs.

The schooner Oakland, loaded with lumber since Saturday and bound for San Francisco, has been waiting for the fog to rise on the bar in order to get out.

LITTLEFIELD DEFENDS SPEAKER OF HOUSE

New York, Sept. 14.—The action of the Methodist denomination in opposing Speaker Cannon on the ground that he strangled the Littlefield bill, which was designed to prevent the shipment of intoxicating liquors into prohibition districts, has called forth a letter from Congressman Littlefield to Mr. Cannon in which he says:

"As to the Littlefield bill, which I was not able to get reported from the committee at the last session, no one has any authority from me to hold you responsible for that result. I suppose I ought in fairness to say this bill raised some grave and close constitutional questions. While I feel that the bill would be sustained and I think it ought to pass, the question is by no means free from doubt and I would not for a moment think of intimating that those who take the opposite view are insincere or dishonest. In fact, some of the ablest lawyers that I know are of that view. While I do not remember to have ever discussed this phase of the question with you, that I understand to be your view."

"It is not to be assumed, I take it, that when a member is elected speaker of the house he is deprived of the right to express and maintain them that other members enjoy, without subjecting himself to the question of being a dictator of the house or reproached with a lack of virility. The election of a speaker should not, in my judgment, emasculate either the speaker or the house. That intelligent, conscientious and earnest men should disagree upon important questions is, I take it, inevitable."

FAMOUS MINSTREL FATALLY STRICKEN AT EMMETT, IDAHO

Emmett, Idaho, Sept. 15.—H. Henry, the well-known veteran minstrel man, who has mining interests at Pearl and Horseshoe Bend, making his home at the latter place, was stricken Tuesday with apoplexy, and little hope is entertained of his recovery. Dr. Platt, of Marsh, was summoned and is doing everything possible for Mr. Henry, but states that his patient is in an extremely critical condition.

Dr. Platt reports that Mr. Henry's right side is entirely paralyzed and he is entirely helpless. He is not responding to treatment and steadily growing weaker, his age being a strong influence against his recovery.

Has National Reputation

Mr. Henry was one of the best known men in the minstrel business in the United States. For many years he toured the country at the head of a large and successful minstrel aggregation.

Some eight or ten years ago Mr. Henry became interested in a mining property at Pearl and in the following years invested heavily, developing his property.

MINNESOTA INDIAN LANDS ARE OPENED

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 15.—More than 45,000 acres of land, formerly included in the Cass Lake, the Chipewas of Mississippi, the Leech Lake, the Fond du Lac, the Red Lake and the Winabigashish reservations, were thrown open to settlement to-day in accordance with orders from the general land office. A large part of the tract consists of good agricultural lands. All of the lands are subject to entry under the homestead laws, and settlers will be required to pay $1.25 an acre in five annual installments. An important provision is one subjecting all of the lands to a pro-rata charge for drainage work that may be erected by the state of Minnesota under the terms of the Volstead law passed at the last session of Congress.

W. R. HEARST STILL REITERATING CHARGES

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—W. R. Hearst last night gave to the Associated Press a statement in reference to the published denial made by W. J. Bryan of the statement made by Mr. Hearst in his speech at the formal notification of John Temple Graves for the nomination for the vice presidency by the independence party. The statement follows:

"Of course Mr. Bryan cannot deny being at my house, for Mr. Chamber, in his suit, mentioned that he saw him there. Of course he cannot deny that he met me at the dinner, because Dr. Gardner and Mr. Murphy, of Mark Cross, were present at the dinner at Dr. Cox's house at which I found Mr. Bryan.

"I have not pretended that he said that he met me at the dinner, because Dr. Gardner and Mr. Murphy, of Mark Cross, were present at the dinner at Dr. Cox's house at which I found Mr. Bryan.

"After the dinner Mr. Bryan drew me aside in the hall, while Dr. Cox politely entertained the other gentlemen.

"Mr. Bryan said: 'I think I can say positively that I will be the next Democratic nominee, and I believe I will be elected. My position in history is secure. I intend to serve only one term. If you support the Democratic ticket you will naturally be nominated next time, and if you support the nominee in this campaign I will, of course, support you next campaign.'

"If this statement is susceptible of any other construction than the one I put on it, then I should apologize to Mr. Bryan. If it is not susceptible of any other construction than the one I put on it, then Mr. Bryan should apologize to me."

BRYAN FORCES FIGHT AND ISSUES SECOND CHALLENGE TO TAFT

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Wm. J. Bryan arrived today from Baltimore, and was given an enthusiastic reception. Addressing the public from a platform in front of the Philadelphia Record office, he arraigned the election methods of Philadelphia, and said the Democratic platform was offensive to the bosses generally and very offensive particularly to the bosses of Philadelphia. Referring to the results in Maine he said:

"Maine has returned the lowest Republican majority in 27 years, and to be conservative I have to concede on this showing a few states to the Republicans."

He said Taft promised prosperity and that President Roosevelt endorsed the idea, but he asked: "How is Taft going to give prosperity when his godfather, Roosevelt, already has made on his hands?"

At luncheon Bryan was the guest of the New Jersey committee in charge of his visit to that state this afternoon and evening.

BRYAN AGAIN ISSUES CHALLENGE TO TAFT

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—"Taft is dodging. He cannot escape from the issues. He will not be permitted to run away from them. He has accepted the nomination of his party, and he will not be permitted to lose confidence and interpret the platform so that the public may know where he stands and what he intends to do."

In these words Bryan in an interview today on his way from Baltimore issues another challenge to Taft.

Bryan said he had been a tariff reformer for 28 years, that he had advocated the election of United States senators by the people for 12 years, and that he had favored an income tax for 14 years, but Taft was only now coming around to his position on these questions. Bryan further says he advocated the independence of the Philippines in 1904, and that Taft has this year admitted that the people must ultimately have independence.

"I have called attention to the fact that Taft made a mistake of $114,000,000 in his estimate of the cost of imperialism."

"Taft spends some time on the money question. The money question has been taken out of politics because the unexpected discovery of gold has given the increase which was demanded by the Republican, as well as the Democratic party. Taft cannot escape the issues. Will he define his position on the tariff, on labor, on the railroad question? He will not be permitted to run away from them."

BRYAN INVADERS LITTLE JERSEY STATE

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 15.—William J. Bryan came into New Jersey today to deliver a speech or two and include dentially to consult with the Democratic leaders over the outlook in this State. State Chairman Robert S. Hudspeth will endeavor to secure Mr. Bryan's promise for a return visit some time next month. He believes that a few speeches by the Presidential candidate will certainly result in a Democratic victory in New Jersey next November.

It is a fact well known that a considerable element of the Democratic party in New Jersey would have preferred Judge Gray of Delaware as the nominee for the Presidency. But since the Denver convention the rank and file of the party in this state has fallen into line with a readiness that has both surprised and pleased the Bryan campaign managers. With more or less dissension existing among the Republicans the Democrats regard the outlook with great satisfaction.

Governor Fort was elected last year by a plurality of 8,000, while Hughes in his great fall from the 80,000 plurality of President Roosevelt in 1904 not merely a decreased Republican vote, but a largely increased Democratic vote.

In every presidential election since and including 1876 until 1896 New Jersey went Democratic. Two years ago the Democrats won four out of ten Congressional seats and missed winning two more by a few hundred votes in a total in the two districts of about 75,000.

CONNECTICUT DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 15.—An unusual situation faces the Democrats of Connecticut, who have assembled here for their State convention to name candidates for governor and other state officers and for congressional candidates at-large. While it appears to be the general feeling among the leaders that the party this fall will enjoy prospects for success greater than usual, it seems probable that it will be necessary to draft a gubernatorial candidate to head the ticket. No fewer than half a dozen prominent Democrats have declined to enter a contest for the nomination. The convention meets tonight for organization and will be presided over by Byron Ignatius A. Sullivan of Hartford, a temporary chairman. Tomorrow the nominations will be made and a platform adopted.

TAFT TO MEET NEGROES.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 15.—The Colored National Baptist Association, the largest organized body of Christians in the world, opened its annual convention in Lexington today. The delegates number about 1,000 and among them are many of the especially able men of the race. Following the adjournment of the convention next week a large delegation representing the association will call upon Judge Taft at Cincinnati.

JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES GOES ON HEARST TICKET

Atlanta, Sept. 11.—Two thousand persons listened to the formal notification speech of John Temple

JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES.

Graves as the nominee of the independence party for vice president at the Casino theatre tonight. Presidential nominee Hugen, W. R. Hearst and a score of other prominent men participated on the platform. Graves was given an ovation and cheers for Hearst and Hugen filled the house.

Hearst's address was devoted to his leaving the Democratic party. He said if Bryan was sincere he (Bryan) would not have approached him four months ago asking him to support this campaign in turn for Bryan's support four years hence. He said he regarded Bryan as a trickster, a trimmer and a traitor.

REPUBLICANS CARRY MAINE BY SMALL MAJORITY

Portland, Me., Sept. 14.—The Republicans carried Maine today by over 8000 plurality against 26,816 in the last presidential year and 8064 in 1906. At midnight the returns for governor from 468 out of 519 cities, towns and plantations give Bert M. Fernald, Republican, 72,117; Odallah Gardner, Democrat, 64,993. The remaining places in 1904 gave Cobb, Republican, 1630 and Davis 730.

The Democratic vote has increased more than 13,000 over 1904, while the Republican vote fell off about 2500. The Republican plurality is the smallest recorded in a presidential year in 25 years. The two parties split evenly in twenty cities, each capturing ten. The voting was particularly heavy in the rural districts owing largely to the popularity of Gardner among the farmers.

METHODISTS DENOUNCE UNCLE JOE CANNON

Canton, Ill., Sept. 14.—The Central Illinois Methodist Episcopal conference today by unanimous vote adopted resolutions condemning the action of Speaker Cannon in "refusing to allow a vote on the Littlefield bill," and suggesting that "such representatives as lack the elements of statesmanship should be retired to private life." The resolution concludes:

"We urge upon the people the use of all lawful means in securing the defeat of J. G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives."

TIM WOODRUFF SAYS HUGHES WILL CAUSE BIG SLUMP

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Discussing the governorship with a large group of up-state delegates to the Republican convention, Republican State Chairman Woodruff declared that if Hughes is re-nominated by the convention it will mean the fall of the greatest slump the Republican party of the state ever experienced.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 14.—President

ELIHU ROOT. Secretary of State, who is chairman of the Republican state convention of New York at Saratoga.

Roosevelt's position on the question of the renomination of Governor Hughes is set forth in the following official statement from the executive offices today:

"The president has been in communication with Secretary Root and Congressman Cox in reference to the governorship situation and has authorized the state while he has no intention of dictating, yet to all his friends who have spoken to him on the matter he has said in the strongest possible terms that he favored the renomination of Governor Hughes."

HUGHES' NOMINATION SEEMS CERTAIN

Saratoga, Sept. 14.—That Governor Hughes will be re-nominated in tomorrow's balloting became all but a certainty today. The anti-Hughes faction states that the "responsibility will be placed just where it belonged."

The convention will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and the feature of the day is the speech of Secretary of State Elihu Root as temporary and permanent chairman.

One of the most active and determined of the anti-Hughes leaders, after a canvass of the individual delegates, gave the Associated Press a tabulation showing the strength of Hughes to be 323, whereas the most conceded him in the calculations of yesterday was two hundred.

Fight on Platform

Indications this afternoon are that the fight on the platform will be as bitter as the one for the governorship. Probably there will be little difficulty in getting through a general endorsement of the administration of Governor Hughes, but the trouble will be mainly over the anti-race track gambling bills and the governor's recommendation for a direct primary election law.

Root's Address

In his address Chairman Root said the convention should nominate a successor to Governor Hughes in such a way that the Empire State shall surely cast her electoral vote for a Republican candidate to succeed Roosevelt. The speaker compared the records of President Roosevelt and Governor Hughes, and said that more than ordinary vigor and sternness in enforcement of the law had characterized the conduct of the executives, and declared that in enforcing the anti-gambling laws Hughes had only performed his duty, and the question the voters would answer in November is "how shall we secure a continuance of the good government under which we have attained our besting."

He spoke of the work of the two parties and declared that the Republican party shows performance, while the Democratic party tenders nothing but promises, and that in the second Cleveland administration, when the latter party had control, the promises were not kept.

Secretary Root concluded his speech as follows:

"What is furnished by the record of the Democratic party at large to show that it is competent to maintain the prosperity we have, and extend the promises of reform it tenders? No proof whatever of that is offered. All the evidence we have is the other way. The majority of us have not forgotten the second administration of Grover Cleveland, which ended only on the fourth of March, 1897. The Democracy then had its opportunity to show the world what it possessed, the executive office, a majority of the senate and a majority of the house. Its opportunity to exercise that control for the public benefit was wasted. Discord and confusion reigned throughout its entire four years. Incapacity to reach logical conclusions or to take any effective action was demonstrated. No promises were kept, no reforms were accomplished."

BOY SCRATCHED DAY AND NIGHT

Eczema Began When a Tiny Baby and Lasted 7 Years—Tore Crusts from Face Till it was All Raw—Screamed with Pain and Could not Sleep—Though Specialists Failed

CUTICURA EFFECTED A WONDERFUL CURE

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor and had medicine but his face kept on getting worse until he was a year old. He was nearly insane day and night. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. He sometimes screamed that he would die. When I put on the salve the pain was relieved the first time I used it. When he was two years old the eczema got on his arms and legs so that I had to keep the eczema covered and I made gloves for his hands so the nails could not poison him worse. We could not get a night's sleep in months and my husband and I were all broken up. Then my mother asked why I did not give up the doctors and try Cuticura. So I got a set and he felt better. He used to wake up and ask for Cuticura to be put on when he itched so badly that he could not sleep, and he would say, 'Oh Mama, that makes my sores feel so good!' I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up and now he is as well as any other child. He is now seven years old and the cure has lasted two months, so I think they will never return. I can't tell you how glad I am that Cuticura did such wonderful work in our case and I shall recommend it everywhere. Mrs. John G. Klump, 80 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 13 and 22, 1907."

GREAT CANAL WILL BRING WATER FOR OCEAN SHIPS

Seattle, Sept. 15.—Sixty thousand notices of assessment for building the Lake Washington canal have been mailed. In these notices there are 225,000 descriptions of property, most all there is in King county. The canal extends three miles, from the Sound through Salmon Bay and Lake Union to Lake Washington, and will cost $3,500,000, of which the government pays $2,000,000 to provide a fresh water harbor for small shipping.

Frank George is in Portland for a few days. He will stop at Salmon on his way home.
