

SAM HOUSTON HONORED IN LONE STAR STATE

Austin, Texas, Sept. 11.—The memory of Gen. Sam Houston soon is to be perpetuated by a monument over his grave at Huntsville. The Texas legislature last year appropriated $100,000 to erect the monument and instructed the execution of its will to the governor.

Sam Houston was the father of the state of Texas. From the time that he was elected general in 1833, until he accomplished the annexation of the state, in 1845, he was the guiding spirit of its destinies, and piloted it through great storm and stress to the safe harbor of union with the United States.

Houston's career before he came to Texas had been exciting and picturesque. In the war of 1812 his bravery attracted the attention of General Andrew Jackson, who always admired Houston's remarkable powers.

In Tennessee Houston was district attorney, congressman and governor in the 20s, when he left that state he went to the Cherokee tribe of Indians, by whose chief he had been adopted in his youth.

Santa Anna, with a Mexican force, entered Texas, and in a few days the Alamo fort surrendered, and the Texans in it, numbering nearly 200, and including Davy Crockett, Col. Bowie and other famous fighters, were slaughtered in cold blood.

Houston began his agitation for union with the United States as early as 1838, when he left the presidency and persisted in it after his election to the chief magistracy again in 1841, employing great diplomatic art to overcome opposition.

THE RENEWAL A STRAIN

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the few rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been kissed by strawberries, have already lost something of the appearance of health.
