

NOTABLE GATHERING OF NATION'S FARMERS

Madison, Wis., Sept. 23.—Headquarters were established at the Park hotel today for the twenty-eighth annual session of the Farmers' National congress, which will be called to order in the auditorium of Agricultural Hall at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The formalities of opening will occupy the initial session of the gathering. The Rt. Rev. John Hazen White, bishop of Northern Indiana, will offer prayer, and the welcoming addresses will be delivered by Governor Davidson and Mayor Schubert, speaking respectively for the State of Wisconsin and the city of Madison. Vice President Joshua Surange, of Indiana, will make the response in behalf of the congress.

Several hundred delegates, many of them appointed by the governors of the various states and territories, and the remainder representing a score of associations whose interests are connected with the movement, have arrived in the city to attend the congress. Several hundred others are on their way to the city and when the gathering convenes tomorrow morning it will undoubtedly be the most influential and representative body of farmers and others interested in agricultural pursuits that has ever met in this or any other country.

PORTLAND MARKET REPORT

Salem, Sept. 24.—The prune harvest in the Willamette Valley became general this week though many growers began picking and drying their fruit last week. The opening of the harvest season for prunes is about ten days earlier this year than usual, due, it is supposed, to the lateness of the Spring.

Reports from growers who have already dried some fruit are that the quality will be first-class and the size large, though the quantity, as expected, will be small, owing to the fact that the fruit did not "set" well in the Spring. The present fair weather is very favorable for prunes drying and it seems probable that the entire crop will be saved without injury. In this section of the state the prune market is inactive at present, neither growers nor packers showing any desire to do business.

Conditions in the Eastern prune market are reported in the New York Commercial of September 17 as follows:

The strong tone in prunes, large sizes, continues the feature. There is noted also a more active demand locally and while buyers are taking stock in a small way, the wants of the buyers generally are on a steady increasing scale. A good deal of business in jobbing lots has been done at full outside figures on full count strictly grade Santa Claras. The packers on the coast are not inclined to sell 30s and 40s even at the high premium quoted over the 50s and 60s. Wires yesterday in most cases quoted at 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 for four-size bag basis, 50-50 inclusive. Outside prunes were held on a 3 1/2 to 4 four-size bag basis, f. o. b. coast, all October shipment. Old prunes on the spot are held on a 3 1/2 four-size coast bag basis. There is an urging of sales. Spot Oregon prunes are quite freely offered as quoted. There is no earlier tone noted on the Coast.

Big Fight in Cream Market.
While for a time it was believed that the organization of local creamery men into an association, having for its object the betterment of cream quality, would be able to accomplish its object, the situation is growing worse every day. The fight for cream is fiercer than ever, and this has forced the makers of butter to take any sort of quality offered if they did not want to lose the shipper.

At present some makers are paying as high a price per pound for cream as they are receiving for butter—today 14 cents a pound. Some creameries are not getting this value for their butter, but in order to keep their shippers they are forced to pay the highest market price for the cream. While some interests are still quoting cream at 1 1/2¢ a pound less than the highest price for butter, others are paying within a cent of the top, while still others are paying the top price itself.

Butter Higher Again.
Two local creameries advanced their quotations on butter 1 1/2¢ a pound, going to the rest of the makers who advanced yesterday, one better. Three makers altogether are now quoting 14¢ a pound for the best product. One of these which advanced its quotations to the high figure several days ago, is now quoting 12 1/2¢. A further advance and it is likely that the price will therefore be moved to 13¢ a pound. A year ago today the price of butter stood at 12¢ a pound or 10¢ higher than the highest quotation ruling today. This high price ruled last week and it is likely that it will be maintained for some time. It went back to 11¢ and as the thirteenth day of the same month touched the high market price of the season—17 1/2¢—for the second time.

Local Eggs at Record.
Values in the local egg market are somewhat mixed. The small arrivals of local ranches enable the trade to get values to almost any figure, but several handlers say they are unable to secure above 12¢ for their stock, while others talk of 12 1/2¢. The present strained situation is due entirely to the heavy purchases of eastern eggs by commission men. These eggs were purchased at very low prices and whenever the price of local eggs can be sent higher, it adds that much to the value of eastern stock. Even though local egg paid their ship hands more money than they are actually receiving for the eggs—because they secured very cheap supplies at this time—they would still be making more money because of

THE HIGH PROFITS ON THE EASTERN GOODS

Poultry Prices on a Fence.
Values in the poultry market are being moved higher almost every day, but buyers do not take kindly to this treatment and are holding off their purchases as much as possible. While receipts of poultry are somewhat heavier, the trade is able to secure the price quoted by the sellers without the least trouble, but one or two receivers are said to be quoting a still higher figure, but not receiving it.

Receipts of turkeys are increasing somewhat—in fact, the arrivals today were greater than for any week recently. Demand is quite fair at the price, but the market would not stand heavy arrivals and maintain high values. It is stated that Mr. McGoldrick of Anconover, who has the government's Philippine order for turkeys, has "farmed" out his order among the various buyers, and they are at present scouring the country for supplies.

The Hop Market.
Hop dealers are busy with the inactivity of the market to the desire of the Eastern trade to see new-crop Oregon samples before they place their orders. Samples are going forward freely and their fine quality should soon produce definite results. Anticipation is being kept up by the hold back Eastern orders at this time is the low offer that certain Coast dealers are making to the Eastern trade, some of them at 9 cents delivered.

The purchase of 455 bales of O. Weider & Co., on the West side, at 8 1/2 and 7 cents is reported. The hops were bought in the bin and baled. Kluber, Wolf & Netter yesterday received the following cable from their London office:

"Harvest now about finished. Estimate of crop 520,000 cwt. Market continues very quiet. Nuremberg market is expected to decline, inferior quality."

Want Oregon Apples.
The Dulles, Or., Sept. 23.—There is a great demand for Oregon apples New York and in the East generally," said C. A. Buckley, a stock and fruit grower, who has returned to his home in Sherman County, after a month's visit in the East.

Mr. Buckley says that while New York was once a great apple state, it is not the case now, and the people there demand Oregon apples.

"Some people say high prices for Oregon apples cannot always be expected," said Mr. Buckley, "but after visiting the East I know this to be nonsense. The country is gradually becoming dependent on the West for many products, apples in particular and prices are going to advance, not fall."

Brief Notes of Front Street.
A car of sweet potatoes and a car of grapes were among the arrivals by mail this morning.

While cabbage supplies are somewhat better the market is firm at $2.25.

Peach supplies are somewhat better cleaned up and for good stock the price is being maintained around 60 and 75c.

Potatoes are still checking the market and prices are unattractive. Fresh prunes are in large supply. Prices rule between 40¢ @ 50¢ a crate of four baskets.

Strawberries from local points came in this morning and found a demand around 20c.

All is quiet in the hop market, with dealers awaiting samples before starting a buying movement.

Chittim bark is steady to strong, with prices maintained and demand unchanged from last week. Those who want to sell at quoted figures are finding no difficulty in doing so.

Portland Livestock Market.
There is no material change in livestock conditions in the local market yesterday. Receipts were not heavy. There was a firm demand for choice offerings of all descriptions, but inferior stock showed the usual dragging tendency. There is still an accumulation of such stock, which it is exceedingly difficult to dispose of at any rate.

IVISON NEWS

(Special Correspondence.)
Iverson, Sept. 22.—T. A. Fountain of Elmira, is hauling posts from here. G. W. Dickinson and family, of Elmira, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

I. S. Day returned last week from Eugene, where he had been taking medical treatment. He is much improved in health.

Bear are infesting orchards in this neighborhood, so look out for a genuine bear story from Iverson soon.

The peach and prune crops at Iverson this season are very light, but the quality is good, for which they were called into existence. Judge A. Worden and family are moving to a ranch near Halsey, where they will engage in farming. Mr. Worden has lived here 23 years.

W. L. Chastain and family, who reside near Halsey, were up last week visiting relatives at this place. Mr. Chastain is a recent arrival in Oregon, and he likes the country very much.

Our school is now in session, with Miss Gertrude Owen as teacher. Mrs. Guard Huston, of Madison, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Owen, for a few days.

SENATOR ISAAC STEPHENSON. Wisconsin statesman endorsed at the Republican primaries for re-election to the United States senate.

Miss Effie Day and Mrs. G. C. Vaughn, who spent some time here to pick up the Wisconsin yard, near Goskas, report a fine time and good wages.

Mrs. Ole Kaver and little daughter, Norma, of Angiaw, are visiting Mrs. Kaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Owen, for a few days.

W. S. Barrow, a crew of men at work on Nott putting in logs for the Elmira Mill Company.

J. C. Pettit, of Noti, was peddling beef in this neighborhood yesterday.

W. S. Barrow, our road supervisor, will begin the construction of a cow bridge across the Noti creek near his place in a few days.

We understand that Mr. Worden has rented his ranch near Hroo to Mr. Carlson, of Elmira, who will move in as soon as Mr. Worden vacates.

J. H. Harrison and family, of Brownsville, are rustling for a few days in this vicinity. They are very much pleased with the country.

COMMERCIAL MESSAGES

(Special Correspondence.)
Greenleaf, Oregon, Sept. 22.—Fred Papiot followed a cougar from the ridge opposite his house, almost to the road on Nelson mountain, and finally killed it.

A bear was seen with two cubs near the crossing on Nelson creek, but the hunters were unable to locate it.

S. A. Rowe and family, who used to live on Lake Creek, have been in on a visit with friends and relatives.

A. M. Almesal will sell part of his place, but assures us that he will keep enough to still make a home on, even if he does sell. That sounds good.

The dance at Alex Powers was enjoyed by all, especially the chicken that was served on the side.

Wm. Ward has been living on Lake Creek so much lately that he seems to have forgotten the way home. Wonder if he is trying to induce a certain young lady to guide him home as well as through life?

Chas. Pope and Frank Williams are down on the coast buying cattle, to be driven across the Nelson creek.

M. F. Wheeler was called to the Lake to do some Notary work tomorrow morning.

Sam Brown has sold part of his place to his son, Ira, and Ira is moving in from Goldan.

Miss Carrie Pope is now a member of the hotel force at Skyville.

Alton Hampton returned last night from Salem, where he attended the state fair. He reports large crowds, good races and splendid livestock exhibits. "College Girl" the guideline pacer, who made a mile in 2:09 without a driver, gave the prettiest exhibition of the fair. Mr. Hampton thinks.

WILL NOT CHANGE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

Cincinnati, Sept. 21.—It is reiterated here today that the calling of the executive and advisory committees of the Republican National committee into greater activity is meant simply that the committee would arise to the greater amount of work to be done, for which they were called into existence. Judge Taft again emphasized that he had no criticism to make of Chairman Hitchcock but regards the work done by the national chairman as efficient and effective.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—The stories to the effect that there has been a change, or is to be a change in the management of the Republican National campaign appear to be without the slightest foundation. The Associated Press has caused inquiries to be made at every place that could be expected to supply reliable information on the subject, and it is declared the campaign is being conducted along lines originally planned and that the program will be continued without alteration.

Apparently the stories that there would be a change in the management of the campaign and that Hitchcock would be subordinated in authority, although remaining nominally at the head of the committee, originated from a statement that Senator Crane would visit Western headquarters in this city, and to the fact that he had been in communication with Taft at Cincinnati. The truth is that Crane came to Chicago at the request of Chairman Hitchcock to discuss the financial end of the campaign. Money is coming slowly from the West and Middle West. There has been considerable criticism that the campaign has not shown sufficient action, and Hitchcock and his advisers have worked to plan it so that no ammunition would be wasted, and to make the campaign in states where local quarrels have overshadowed the national campaign, and is so happens that it is in states regarded as doubtful that these conflicts were being carried on, Hitchcock refuses to be ruffled by criticism of his conduct of the campaign.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers

Delinquent taxpayers will take notice that delinquent taxes were not advertised as a foreclose, under a law passed by the last legislature of this state taxes that are delinquent after the expiration of six months from the first date of such delinquency may be paid by any one demanding to pay same and a certificate of delinquency will be issued to such party.

Section 27 of said law, in part, reads:

"Any day after the expiration of six months after taxes charged against real property are delinquent the tax collector shall advertise the right, and it shall be his duty, upon demand and payment of the taxes, penalty and interest, to make out and issue a certificate or certificates of delinquency against such property." and section 35, in part reads:

"Certificates of delinquency shall bear interest from the date of issuance until redeemed at the rate of 15 per cent per annum."

Delinquent taxpayers are therefore advised that if they have not paid at least one-half of their taxes on or before the first Monday in April that the same are delinquent and have become delinquent since said first Monday in April, and those who have paid one-half of their taxes as above the remaining one-half will become delinquent after the first Monday in October, and six months from such date a certificate of delinquency bearing fifteen per cent interest per annum may be issued against your property.

To save further costs, penalties and interest you are earnestly requested to settle the same at once.

H. L. BROWN,
Sheriff and Tax Collector.
