

BULGARIA THROWS OFF TURKISH YOKE, WAR IN PROSPECT

Paris, Oct. 5.—The Temps today publishes a dispatch from Vienna saying that the Bulgarian army is marching toward the frontier and that the Turkish army is moving forward to the encounter. Austria-Hungary is mobilizing two army corps.

Paris, Oct. 5.—No official confirmation has been received in Paris at 6 o'clock this evening of the reported mobilization of troops by Turkey and Bulgaria. It is believed here that Bulgaria will remain on the defensive.

the Berlin treaty. This is the outcome of the proclamation of Bulgarian independence. Russia has reason to believe the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary is imminent.

Count Berchtold, Austro-Hungarian ambassador to Russia, who has been away on a leave of absence, returned to the city today and demanded an immediate audience with Czar Nicholas. It was arranged that he should appear before the czar tomorrow, and the emperor is cruising in the Gulf of Finland, a naval yacht was placed at the disposal of Count Berchtold.

Sofia, Oct. 5.—Bulgaria, a tributary principality under the suzerainty of the sultan of Turkey, today proclaimed her independence of Turkey. The action was taken at Tirnovo by Prince Ferdinand, who was elected prince of Bulgaria in 1887. The Bulgarian cabinet was present with the prince, having met him yesterday at the frontier and journeyed with him to Tirnovo, the ancient capital of the kingdom of Bulgaria.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—The Associated Press is authorized to state that Germany associates herself with the mediation proposals submitted by Great Britain to the Turkish and Bulgarian governments. It is recognized officially that Bulgaria's proclamation gravely complicates the situation and until the attitude of the sultan is known the German government is unable to foresee its course of action, except that in no case will Germany bring pressure to bear at Constantinople to influence the decision of the Porte.

Constantinople, Oct. 5.—Turkey is convinced that Austria, backed by Germany, encouraged Bulgaria to declare her independence in order to strike a blow at the Kaimil ministry and compromise the new constitution. It is not known what action Turkey will take, but the impression prevails that a European conference will be held to consider the whole question.

Paris, Oct. 5.—France has decided to enact the role of mediator with the object of preventing war between Bulgaria and Turkey. Foreign Minister Pichon had already begun a series of conferences with the diplomatic representatives of the powers with the idea of reaching an understanding, the purpose of which was the maintenance of peace when the official news of Prince Ferdinand's proclamation arrived.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 5.—It is announced with authority today that Russia will propose a congress of the powers for the general revision of the situation is considered most grave.

THOUSAND DELEGATES MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—The nineteenth trans-Mississippi Congress, with a thousand or more delegates from the western half of the United States attending, began a five days' session here today. Temporary chairman J. B. Case, of Abilene, Kan., called the delegates to order and dwelt at length on the vast work there is to be done in the West in the way of conservation of natural resources and expansion of present industries.

Thomas F. Walsh, chairman of the executive committee, made a few remarks on the objects and scope of the congress.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Gillette, Mayor Taylor, Senator Perkins, Congressman Kahn and C. G. Moore, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

INSTANT RELIEF OF ITCHING HUMOR

Limbs Below the Knees Were Raw—Feet Too Swollen to Get Shoes On—Sleep Completely Broken by Intense Itching and Burning—Well in Two Days and Says That

CUTICURA IS AMONG HIS HOUSEHOLD GODS

"God bless the man who first compounded Cuticura. Some two months ago I had a humor break out on my limbs below my knees. They came to look like raw beefsteak, all red, and no one knows how they itched and burned. They were so swollen that I had to split my drawers open to get them on and could not get my shoes on for a week or more. I used five or six different remedies and got no help, only when applying them the burning was worse and the itching less. One morning I remembered that I had a bit of Cuticura and tried it. From the moment it touched me the itching was gone and I have not felt a bit of it since. The swelling went down and in two days I had my shoes on and was about as usual. I only wish I had used the Cuticura Remedy in the first of my troubles. They would have saved me two or three weeks of intense suffering. During that time I did not sleep an hour at a time, but was up applying such remedies as I had. Henceforth the Cuticura Remedy will be among my household gods, rest assured. George B. Farley, 50 South State St., Concord, N. H., May 14, 1907."

FOR BABY RASHES

Eczemas and Irritations, Cuticura is Worth its Weight in Gold.

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless for the skin and scalp. Infantile and birth humors, scalded head, eczemas, rashes, itching, chafings, and every form of itching, scaly, pimply skin and scalp humors, with loss of hair, are speedily, permanently and economically cured.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Form of Itching, Chafing, and Scaly, Eczema, and Birth Humors. Cuticura Soap (50¢) to Wash the Skin, and Cuticura Ointment (50¢) to Rub on the Itching Places. Price, 25¢ per unit of Cuticura Soap, 50¢ per unit of Cuticura Ointment. Sold through all druggists, or direct from the manufacturer, W. L. Chas. Co., Boston, Mass.

Resolutions were made by delegates from various states.

The opening session was purely one of organization and after the appointment of the requisite committees the congress adjourned so that the delegates and their friends might participate in an excursion on San Francisco harbor.

President Case's Address

President Case hoped that settlement of the unoccupied lands would be encouraged by the government in sensible ways. He continued:

The idea prevailing in early days of the republic that the public domain should be used as a revenue producer, abandoned in favor of the better method of using the same for settlement, should not be revived. The West should be settled up. The quicker the public domain passes into private ownership the better it will be for us. Dry farming homesteads should be enlarged to 320 or 640 acres. A large homestead should be given for dry farming and a smaller one to the irrigated districts. Loyal and earnest co-operation is needed between the national reclamation service and the state governments that are trying to reclaim lands under the Carey act, and no conflicts should occur or jealousies exist. Title for government land under favorable irrigation projects should be granted more quickly than they are at present and if necessary our national laws should be so changed as to bring this about. Title should be made as a result of cultivation and use rather than of length of time necessary for the setting up of the title by the government lands before the title is granted."

Transportation, said President Case, is the one great problem that overshadows all others. He added:

"We are particularly desirous that navigation of the Missouri and Lower Arkansas rivers be improved until there shall be a worthy advance to the transportation of our Western products. However, only a comparatively small portion of the Trans-Mississippi country can be reached by navigable streams. We must depend upon the iron rail as a highway to market for the greater portion of our products."

Telegrams of Regret

President Roosevelt sent a telegram regretting his inability to attend the congress and expressing his appreciation of the work of the organization. A message from W. J. Bryan regretted the fact that he was unable to attend and expressed sympathy with the purposes of the congress. Judge Taft also sent greetings and the hope that the congress would be productive of much good.

Casesweet, the well known remedy for babies and children, will quiet the little ones in a short time. The ingredients are printed on the bottle. Contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.
