

Nothing Equals Pe-ru-na For Serious Kidney Trouble.

So Writes John N. Watkins,
St. Louis, Mo.

Colorado, Says, A Man
Over Seventy Years
Old.

MR. W. F. CLOW

Kidney Affection,
Asthma.

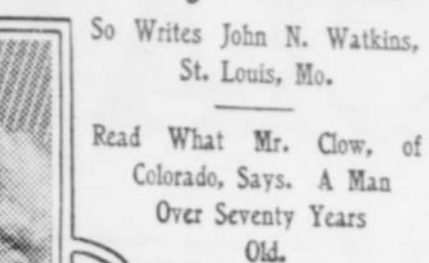

Mr. W. F. Clow, 428 E. St.
Vrain St., Colorado Springs,
Col., a retired real estate man, writes:

"I am a man of over seventy years and feel that I owe my present good health entirely to Peruna. I began using it about a year ago for asthma and kidney trouble, and took several bottles. I have not felt better for years.

"Different members of my family have used it also, and have only words of praise to speak for Peruna."

Attributes Health to Pe-ru-na.

William Bailey, 58 I St., N. E., Washington, D. C., Past Col. Encampment No. 68, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and Secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.
Within a short period he has been restored to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. He considers himself now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

MR. JOHN N. WATKINS.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Mr. John N. Watkins, 3133 Shenandoah Ave., St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"Among all the greatly advertised medicines for kidney and bladder trouble there is nothing which equals Peruna. I suffered for several years with this trouble, spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicine and all to no purpose, until I took Peruna.

"One bottle did me more good than all the others put together, as they only poisoned my system. Peruna cured me.
I used it for four months before a complete cure was accomplished, but am truly grateful to you. The least I can do in return is to acknowledge the merits of Peruna."

ATTEMPT TO KILL BIG OIL TRUST IS BEGUN

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The Standard Oil attorneys presented evidence before Judge Franklin Ferris today in support of their contention that the company has not been the recipient of preferential rates from the railroads in different sections of the country.
Today's hearing is a phase in the tempt of the government, in a suit in chancery to have the Standard Oil Company dissolved and cease to exist as a corporation. Henry E. Felton,

THORNTON JENKINS HAINS.

Author of "The Windjammers" and other novels and brother of Captain P. C. Hains, Jr., who shot and killed William E. Annis at Rayside, N. Y.

T. J. Hains is held as his brother's accomplice.

general traffic manager of the Standard Oil Company, was the first witness called to the stand, and will be the principal witness examined in Chicago.

The main contentions of the government are that the Standard Oil Company has been given rebates by the railroad companies; that concessions were made to it; that preferential rates were established for its advantage; that the railroad companies so manipulated the open rates that the big oil company had a decided advantage over its competitors.

SHERMAN TALKS ON LINCOLN AT ROCK ISLAND

Rock Island, Oct. 8.—James S. Sherman Republican candidate for vice president, was the orator of the day at a large political rally here today, and was enthusiastically received.
Mr. Sherman spoke as follows:
"It is a rare privilege to stand today before this vast audience made up of the sterling citizens of the Middle West; to be present at this exposition, the purpose of which is to exploit the products and progress of three great states of the nation; to speak to citizens of our republic upon some of the questions now engaging public attention. I shall not abuse my privilege by imposing upon your patience or claiming your attention for more than a brief period.
I am advised that it is permissible to speak as a partisan. I am told that this is the Republican day, and my theme shall be something of a comparison of the early leaders of Republican thought and action with the present dictator of so-called Democratic declarations and professed intentions.
The present canvass shows again the folly of the ass that put on the lion's skin. The managers of Mr. Bryan's press bureau are attempting to con-jure votes for him by the use of the sacred name of Lincoln. Aesop declared that when the ass lifted up his voice and brayed, every one knew him and his owner came up and gave him a sound cudgeling. The partisan who tries the same tricks invites like shame and punishment. The audacity of the device may capture some of the unwary. Insofar as he has a party behind him, Mr. Bryan is a candidate of the party who maligned and ridiculed the first and greatest president of the Republic and has given to the nation. Mr. Bryan relies for support on the forces which at every step opposed Lincoln, which obscured the measures of war and peace of that savior of the Union, and pronounced the proclamation of emancipation a monstrous crime. In his earlier campaigns he counted most of the states which elected Lincoln "the enemy's country." He has never accepted the principles and policies which glorified the administration of that martyred patriot. What proofs can he offer that he is a disciple of the president who struck down slavery, who signed the Morrill tariff, who stood steadfastly for protection and made possible the present grandeur of the united republic?
Lincoln was elected in 1860 by the electoral votes of all the free states except three from New Jersey, which were cast for Douglas. It was against him that the mischief and threat of the solid South came to ter-rorize our politics. Mr. Bryan has done his utmost to keep up that sectional organization, and it is his main asset now. He seeks to array for himself first and foremost all the factors which were hostile to Lincoln."

"Mr. Lincoln would accept President Roosevelt's assurance that when in doubt over serious problems he always asked what Lincoln would do

CHAIRMAN MACK ATTACKS SHELDON AS TRUST MAN

New York, Oct. 2.—National Chairman Mack today made an attack upon the corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National committee, charging that Mr. Sheldon is at this time connected with no less than 17 financial companies. Mr. Mack made the following statement:

The trust and corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National committee, for the past ten years, make interesting reading in view of the recent developments of the campaign.
Odell Turns Him Down
I wish to recall in this connection that, because of these very accusations of his, Governor Odell in 1902 refused to permit the party leaders to put Mr. Sheldon in nomination for lieutenant-governor. Governor Odell at that time declared that he would not accept the nomination for head of the state ticket if Sheldon were named as his running mate. But while the Republican party has refused to put up Mr. Sheldon's name for a public office, it has, for the identical reasons of this refusal, selected him for its campaign fund collector.

Member of Seventeen Trusts This cannot be denied. Most of the corporations with which Mr. Sheldon is identified are capitalized for millions. How much of their stock is of the liquid variety can be easily ascertained. Yet Mr. Roosevelt has defended him and his resignation was not demanded when Mr. Dupont was urged to step down and out. Mr.
Dupont was only identified with one trust, while Mr. Sheldon is at the present time connected with no less than 17 prominent financial concerns.

Some of Trust Connections
One of these, the Bethlehem Steel Company, does not employ union labor and has opposed the organization of its employees for the past 16 years.
Mr. Sheldon is a director of that company. He is also director and treasurer of the North American Company, capitalized for $30,000,000, a concern known as the "mystery of Wall street." It is but a few years back since he was prominently identified with the whiskey trust. A glance at his connection with various companies for the past ten years will explain tersely the reason of his present position. No further comment of mine is necessary.

The corporations named by Mr.
Mack include railway, industrial and financial concerns here and elsewhere.
Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican National committee, was shown Mr. Mack's attack on Mr. Sheldon, but declined to make any statement.
Mr. Sheldon said the statement did not contain anything to which he desired to make answer.

EASTLAND GETS MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP

Herbert Eastland, a University graduate of '95, has been granted the full scholarship offered by the University of Oregon medical college in Portland to the graduates of the University of Oregon. Eastland took his major work under Professor Sweetser in the biological department. The scholarship amounts to all the tuition and fees that are charged at the medical school. Two half scholarships are also awarded each year, but no decisions have yet been made.

COOS BAY OYSTERS

Professor Sweetser and the members of his department are conducting the physics department, and conducting statistics on the subject of planting oysters for commercial purposes.
No experimental beds will be placed in the bay until the facts are gathered this winter to show whether growth and propagation are possible.
It is said that many oyster shells are scattered along the Coos county beaches, which indicate that oysters were once a natural product of the coast. The reason that they are not still in existence is not known.

WEATHER REPORT

A. W. Jackson, the genial instructor in the physics department, reports the rainfall at the University weather station for September as .37 of an inch. The normal fall is 1.85, the shortage for the past month being therefore 1.48 inches. The shortage

ALBANY EDITOR SHOOTS BUT MISSES

Albany, Or., Oct. 2.—Fron A. Sanders, an employe of the Albany Iron Works, narrowly missed death late last night from a bullet fired by J.
H. O'Brien, who has been employed on a local newspaper.
The two men had an altercation earlier in the evening, and, after a short fist fight, O'Brien, who had been drinking, armed himself with a pistol. Meeting Sanders near the corner of First and Lyon streets O'Brien snatched "his young man" Sanders and when the latter answered yes he raised the pistol and fired. The bullet grazed the right side of Sanders' face, which was powder-burned. Sanders then retreated.

BEER TRADE IN OREGON STEADILY DECREASING

The Guard yesterday printed a press dispatch from Bellingham, Washington, stating that more beer is used in Oregon than before the "dry" period came on. In contradiction to this is the following by the commercial editor of the Portland Journal:

According to the official figures of the government which were just completed today, the beer output of Oregon is steadily decreasing. During the months of July, August and September of this season 2,971 less barrels of beer were brewed in Oregon than during the same period a year ago.
The government figures for the three months show that during 1908 the brew of beer in Oregon reached 62-253 barrels, compared with 65,334 barrels for the same months in 1907.
These are small beer making months so the decrease during the flush season is even greater.

ROOSEVELT IS NOT SATISFIED WITH CAMPAIGN

Washington, Oct. 1.—It is learned that President Roosevelt has sent a confidential friend to New York to look into the workings of the National Republican headquarters there.
Some dissatisfaction is said to have arisen over the conduct of the campaign and reports reached the president to the effect that the National committee is not working in harmony with the Republican congressional committee.

JACOBS IN THE TOOLS ONCE MORE

(From Friday's Daily Guard.) Joseph Jacobs, who has been in the justice and police courts several times for selling liquor in violation of the local option law, is in custody again for the same offense, having been arrested late yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Farrington.
He put up bonds for his appearance today in Judge Bryson's court. When time for his appearance arrived he appeared and entered a plea of not guilty. Time for trial was set for Wednesday next at 10 a. m. He furnished a cash bond of $400.

AMAZED AT GRESWELL'S BIG PRUNE INDUSTRY

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.)
The Commercial Club committee which visited Creswell yesterday spent the greater part of the day there and was amazed at the importance of the prune industry of Creswell.
Dr. L. D. Scarborough showed the visitors his two dryers, the new one being one of the most perfect factories in its line. He will handle this season half a million pounds of dried prunes, which means between $20,000 and $25,000. He is employing 65 men and 5 teams besides the pickers.
After the committee had visited the drying houses they were taken through the doctor's orchard, which Professor Cordley, of Corvallis, pronounced one of the finest in the entire state.
The results this year of this orchard will be one hundred dollars an acre and the trees they were taken seven years old. They are in excellent condition.

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help you ease. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer all female diseases.

Mrs. Norman R. Barndt, of Allentown, Pa., writes:
"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I have suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

BACK TO SMITHY FOR DAN KELLY

Expelled by his hobnobbing with the great, unchanged by the lurens he has won, just as unassum-ing, just as glad to meet a friend, Dan J. Kelly, Eastern Oregon's representative among the world-beating trio of athletes from this state, passed through Pendleton last evening, says the East Oregonian.

After having been congratulated, praised and feted by lovers of sport from President Roosevelt and the representatives to British royalty to the newsboys on Portland's streets, after royal entertainment by the leading athletic associations of the United States from Oyster Bay to Portland, Dan Kelly is going back to Baker City—back to the blacksmith shop.

For the present the fleet Baker City boy is out of athletics—possibly forever. He has been having great trouble with his leg, during the last year, and he will spend several months for a year upon the prediction of Eastern authorities that by so doing he will be able to equal, if not excel, his former records.

Dan was raised in a blacksmith shop, where during vacation he used to help his father out—now he is going back to do it again. He will spend at least a couple of months in the shop.

Kelly stepped off No. 2 yesterday and sided a friend at the depot. His travels was a rapid fire of questions as to the whereabouts of half a dozen old friends. When the Baker City boy found the fair was in session he was almost persuaded to stop, but decided to go on to Baker and return to Pendleton before the celebration is over. He will spend several days there, visiting on a ranch in the neighborhood.
