LA GRAND EBANKER HELD ON GRAVE CHARGE
La Grande, Or., Oct. 16.—J. W. Scriber, cashier of the Farmers and Traders Bank, was arrested today on a charge of embezzlement of the bank's funds. It is reported that the amount of the defalcation will reach $24,000, though the national bank examiner, who has been examining the affairs of the concern since it closed its doors last week, will not make public the exact amount. Scriber will be taken to Pendleton for arraignment and possibly to Portland. It is alleged that he has made a confession and sensational developments are expected.

HASKELL LIBEL SUIT INVALID SAY ATTORNEYS
Action As Begun Does Not Conform to the Laws of Nebraska

Omaha, Oct. 20.—The $600,000 libel suit which Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, filed in this city last week against Wm. R. Hearst is pronounced invalid by prominent attorneys who have examined the petition.

It is pointed out that the laws of Nebraska allow no punitive damages in a libel suit, and $300,000 of the amount asked for in the present case is punitive. It is also pointed out that the petition is not accompanied by an affidavit either of Haskell or his attorney, as required by the laws of this state. Until so accompanied the suit has no standing under the laws of Nebraska.

BUTTER, 85; EGGS, 40; MAY JUMP AGAIN
Oregon Can't Supply Itself and Condition May Last Through Winter

Butter and eggs are among the high-priced necessities now, and the chances are Portland householders will have to pay even better prices before the first of the year, for the demand in both lines is steady and strong, while the supply of the best is short of requirements.

The best creamery butter is selling at the retail stores at 85 cents a roll, while country creamery that is little, if any, short of the city standard in quality, is held at 75 cents. Eastern and storage butter, of which considerable quantities are being sold in the city, sells at 60 to 70 cents for the most part.

Butter production in the state has fallen away materially within the last month or two, and the state cannot now supply its own needs. This will be the condition more or less through the winter, and the probability is higher than present butter prices will prevail in the near future.

In eggs the market is even stronger, for in this commodity home production now is but a small fraction of the current needs of the trade. Dealers hold fresh Oregon eggs at 40 cents a dozen, selling Eastern eggs at 30 cents. Fully three-quarters of the eggs now consumed in the city are Eastern products. Higher prices for eggs may reasonably be expected.—Telegram.

CHARGED WITH THEFT OF LADIES' WATCH
Norman Luck, Farm Laborer, Conceals Timepiece in His Shoe—Bound Over

Norman Luck, a farm laborer, evidently thinks his name bellies him. He is out of luck but in jail. For some time past he has been employed by C. J. Fassett on his farm near Irving. Mr. and Mrs. Fassett were visiting yesterday and left the man in the house alone. When he returned later in the afternoon Mrs. Fassett's gold watch was missing, as was Luck. They telephoned a description of the man to the Eugene police and later the night officers found him and paced him under arrest.

The watch was found in one of his shoes. A charge of larceny from a dwelling was booked against him and he was arraigned by Judge Bryson, of the justice court, this morning. His waded examination and was committed over to the circuit court which convenes early next month.

VARSIITY OFFENSE POOR IN SATURDAY'S GAME
The first line was gotten on the varsity team when they beat the alumni Saturday 4 to 0. A place kick in the last part of the second half by Captain Moulton's stub foot made the only score, but twice in the first half the old graduates swept within a few yards of a touchdown, only to be held by a stonewall of the varsity line.

Coach Forbes said the game was satisfactory. His team showed a very good defensive formation, but on offense could not make gains. Clark's great spiral punts of 60 yards saved the day for the students.

Taken as a whole the varsity squad, seventeen men being tried out during the contest, showed up better than in any first game for years. There were eight old Northwest players on the alumni team, and they outplayed the "varsity" fifteen or twenty pounds to the man.

Oregon has a good line this year, which when required to will stop the hardest rushes. Part of the game one tackle was weak, but by a change the point was strengthened so that such men as Frank Templeton, Kerren, McKinney and Zacharias could no more plunge for six or eight yards.

A weak place this year for the team may be the ends. For defensive work Michael and Hickson played a great game, the former in the varsity, the latter in the freshmen-Portland high game, but neither of these men have showed ability to carry the ball on offense, a thing for which Oregon ends have long been famous. Dodson, another candidate, seems more capable in offensive work, and in the short time he was in the game Saturday played well defensively.

Hayes, a fourth man who is being tried out, plays with all his might, but seems to need more speed and weight.

The backfield is in a curious condition. Of the number of candidates for the back, Clarke at full has his position cinched. Latourette, former quarter on the Portland high, played one half as halfback and Kiltz the other position. Latourette is a pigmy compared to Clarke, but possesses the faculty of running ends and putting up good interference. Hurl, another candidate, who was given a chance, had little opportunity to carry the ball. Kiltz, who played the entire game, is a very speedy, well-built man. But whatever the formation, the Oregon team could not work any kind of plays for gains Saturday except the forward pass twice, two or three yards by Clarke, and a few brief yards on end runs. Forbes. It may be stated, has worked almost altogether on defense, so that it was not expected that the scoring machine would be very successful.

Friends' Banquet
Members of the alumni and varsity teams, together with a number of invited guests, were tendered a banquet Saturday night by S. H. Friendly, a well-known Eugene merchant, who is a member of the University board of regents. The banquet room was decorated in the college colors, and presented a scene of rare beauty.

C. N. McArthur ('01), acted as toastmaster, and responses were made by Frederick Steiner ('06), Judge L. T. Harris ('93), Henry M. McKinney ('07), J. R. Latourette ('07), Richard S. Hurl ('09), Captain Fred Moulton, Trainer W. L. Hayward, Coach Robert W. Forbes, Regent S. H. Friendly, and President P. L. Campbell. Covers were laid for 60 guests.

5 to 2 on O. A. C.

Some of the alumni here Saturday said that wagers were being offered in Portland at odds of 3 to 2 on O. A. C. in the Oregon-O. A. C. contest November 21. Great confidence is felt in Coach Norcross by the would-be bettors, a thing which is justified when it is considered that his team beat the University of Puget Sound 24 to 0 Saturday.

The University of Washington also ran up a big score against Whitworth College at Seattle, indicating that their prospects are brightening. The score was 24 to 4.

Little or no comparison can be made with Oregon's team at the present time. The real worth of the "varsity" will depend upon just how hard the veterans played against the youngsters. Strange though it may seem, at no time, except for a few moments in the second half Saturday, did they seem greatly worn.

However, from the status of the game this year, a great defensive team may be worth more than a swift attacking machine. Moulton's place kick from the forty-yard line recalls his feats two years ago, when at any place beyond the middle line of the gridiron, Oregon's opponent's goal was invariably in danger. Moreover, Clarke's wonderful punting will aid a defensive team, for there is only one man in the Northwest known to be his equal, and that is Wolff, the O. A. C. fullback.

IS THIS A SQUARE DEAL?
The Red Cross Drug Company Will Give You Your Money Back if MI-O-NA Does Not Cure Dyspepsia.

The Red Cross Drug Company make this square deal offer because they are authorized to do so by the makers of MI-O-NA tablets, and they are willing to have this statement appear in The Guard because they know the offer is genuine.

And while it may be that there are about 8 cases to the 100 that are too far gone for MI-O-NA to cure, we are willing and ready to take all chances and if MI-O-NA does not cure any dyspeptic can have his money back.

Even with this liberal offer the Red Cross Drug Company will not have to refund but a very small percentage, because the 8 incurable dyspeptics will find so much relief in MI-O-NA tablets that they will once again look upon the sunny side of life, and will continue to use MI-O-NA.

Now, reader, you may say how can the makers of MI-O-NA make such an offer? How do they know that 92 per cent of the users will be cured, and that the other 8 per cent, or incurables, will be relieved?

Why, it's all very simple. We've made this same offer 1000 times before we made it here, and we have figured out the percentages, so that when we make this statement we know it to be absolutely true.

MI-O-NA tablets are truly great for any one that has stomach trouble. I cannot praise them too highly, for they have done good for me."

Mrs. W. D. Bennett, Backstop, Me.

The price is only 50 cents a box.

GREENLEAF ITEMS

Taylor's body was found hanging to a tree literally riddled by bullets, while Rankin, when found, was not quite dead, and it is not known whether he still lives.

Conveyances have been sent to bring the bodies here.

MRS. JAMES HAYES SEVERELY BURNED
Junction City, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jas. Hayes, of this place, was seriously burned yesterday by the explosion of gas in the cook stove. She had a fire in the stove early in the day, and when she started the fire again there were a few small coals on which she placed the wood, pouring on some coal oil and closing the stove. As the live coals did not ignite the oil she lighted a match and opened the stove door. An explosion then occurred, throwing the fire directly in her face. She threw her apron over her head and extinguished the flames, but her face and neck were badly burned.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN GREETED SPERRY WITH EXTREME CORDIALTY

Tokio, Oct. 20.—The most significant event of the visit of the American fleet occurred today, when Rear Admiral Sperry, his flag officers, and the captains and commanders of the sixteen battleships were presented to the emperor and empress. It was the most brilliant function the palace has ever known. The emperor assumed a most cordial manner and the empress shook hands with every officer.

Through Admiral Sperry President Roosevelt sent a most cordial message with expressions for the continuance of the emperor's good health and happiness and that of the inhabitants of his realm, and expressing gratification at the opportunities afforded of the visit of the fleet to Japanese waters, and his hopes for a continuance of the cordial relations which have always existed between the two countries.

The emperor expressed his appreciation of the visit of the American fleet and receipt of the friendly message of President Roosevelt, whose sentiments he most cordially reciprocated. He expressed the hope of the successful completion of the voyage of the fleet.

The procession along the route to the palace was lined with enthusiastic Japanese and foreigners, thousands of school children cheering continuously and waving flags as the carriages passed. The presentation was followed by an elaborate luncheon at which 45 persons were present. At the end of the meal the emperor retired and meeting Admiral Sperry at the door, bade him a most cordial farewell and presented him with a magnificent silver vase.

WELCOME MOST CORDIAL
Tokio, Oct. 19.—The reception accorded the American Atlantic fleet by the government and people of Japan is conceded by the American naval officers to be the heartiest and most perfectly carried out of the many receptions enjoyed by the fleet since it sailed from Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Sperry said to the Associated Press today that he was utterly unable to say how it had been accomplished, but that the welcome given the fleet and its officers and men here had been so carefully planned and carried out to the most minute detail that a lasting impression had been stamped upon the mind of every American who witnessed it.

WYOMING WIND BLOWS CABOOSE FROM TRACK

Cheyenne, Oct. 20.—As the result of an unprecedented accident to the Union Pacific train at Lone Tree creek, Wyoming, last night six laborers are known to be dead and several others may die, and 25 or 30 were injured, many seriously.

A terrific gale picked up the caboose of a work train and carried it over the edge of a hill and dropped it, with its forty occupants, some distance below. The car was wrecked and the terror-stricken men piled up in confusion.

The work of rescue is progressing, and only disconnected details have been received at headquarters here.

BRYAN ACCUSES REPUBLICANS OF CORRUPT METHODS
Alton, Ill., Oct. 19.—Standing on the exact spot where Lincoln and Douglas concluded their debate in 1858, William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for president, in a 20-minute speech here today, to an immense crowd, openly charged that the Republican party was endeavoring to purchase the election, and dare not tell in advance how much money they are asking to have on hand on election day. Mr. Bryan told his auditors that the tide was running toward the Democratic party, and referring to the straw votes taken in different parts of the country to substantiate this statement, said:

"What does Mr. Taft's position mean in regard to the campaign contributions? It means that if you knew before the election what contributions they are getting, you might not vote the Republican ticket and what does that mean? Why, it means that if you vote the Republican ticket and find after the election what they would not allow you to know before, you will be sorry you voted the Republican ticket. I am going to draw the only conclusion that can be drawn here, and that is that they are doing today, and knowingly doing today, what they are not willing for you to know they are doing."
