SCRIBER SPIRITED AWAY FROM MOB Portland, Oct. 29.—Spirited away from LaGrande because of the anonymous threats of lynching which Deputy United States Marshal Hammersley says he heard, J. W. Scriber, under arrest for misappropriating the funds of the Farmers' and Traders' National Bank of LaGrande, was brought to Portland tonight many hours ahead of the scheduled time of Deputy Hammersley.

Scriber freely confesses the misappropriation of the funds of the bank. He talked freely of the charge against him tonight, and assumed all responsibility. He declared, however, that "they cannot find I appropriated any of the money to my own use, or that I speculated with any of it or squandered one cent of it. It all went in an effort to save the bank."

The ex-cashier did not, however, explain in what manner he disposed of the bank's funds or what he meant by his allusion to his effort to save the bank. Scriber's shortage is now estimated at $125,000.

FRUIT CROP WORTH OVER $1,000,000 The value of the fruit crop in the counties of Wasco, Hood river, Sherman, Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler and Crook for 1908 is $1,136,500, according to a report just filed with W. H. Newell, president of the state board of horticulture, by R. H. Weber, of Portland, commissioner of the Fourth Oregon district. For apples Hood River county leads with 300,000 bushels. The fruit crop abstracted from this city during the season amounted to $225,000. The following is Commissioner Weber's report regarding the value of the fruit crop in the Fourth Oregon district during the last year:

Table with 2 columns: County Name and Value. Hood River $800,000, The Dalles $225,000, Mosier $65,000, Sherman County $14,500, Morrow County $10,000, Wheeler County $8,000, Crook county $6,000, Total $1,136,500

WORK ON ALBANY CAR LINE BEGINS A. Welch this morning began active preparations for the construction of the first street electric line. They have been ordered distributed along the street and grade stakes are being made now by Mr. Danna. The city engineer has also been secured to prepare the grades so that work can proceed.

From all appearances it seems that Mr. Welch has decided to give up his franchise granted him to operate on Second street, and also the franchise recently granted him which he refused to accept on the ground that thirty years ago the time the franchise was granted for, was too short a term. With his decision not to accept

Feed Your Nerves Hood's Sarsaparilla

Upon rich, pure, nourishing blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and you will be free from those spells of despair, those sleepless nights and anxious days, those gloomy, deathlike feelings those sudden starts at mere nothings, those dyspeptic symptoms and blinding headaches. Hood's Sarsaparilla has done this for many others—it will cure you.

In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs, 100 doses $1. under the provisions of the one granted him about a year ago, it would seem that Welch had decided to give up his $5000 forfeit bond to the city and work under the old Hirschberg franchise, which he has acquired at a rumored price of $8000. The Hirschberg franchise is an obnoxious one to the city, and it is probable that Mr. Welch will be enjoined from proceeding with his work or some attempt made to prevent him from operating under this old franchise.—Herald.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. P. Barnard, at 80 West Eighth street, Eugene, at 7:30 o'clock October 30, 1908, Henry J. Verrill, aged 79 years, from Lagrippe, a short service was held at Gordon's Undertaking parlors this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the remains will be shipped tonight for Minneapolis for burial.

At the Eugene hospital, October 29, 1908, at 11:30 p. m., Mrs. Mabel Trotter, wife of Walter Trotter, of Marcola, aged 33 years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Workman. The cause of death was peracute septisemia. The remains were shipped on this afternoon's train to Mabel, where they will be interred tomorrow.

RIDDER FAMILY ARE LIBERAL GIVERS New York, Oct. 28.—Announcement was made by the Democratic National committee today that campaign contributions aggregating over $40,000 were received at the New York headquarters on October 27. The list made public this afternoon shows that the sum of $37,000 was contributed by Herman Ridder, treasurer of the National committee, and his three sons. The list is as follows:

New York—Herman Ridder, $10,000; Victor F. Ridder, $5000; Joseph E. Ridder, $5000; Leonard H. Ridder, $5000; Michael Fogarty, $1000; Morgan J. O'Brien, $500; Robert G. Monroe, $1000.

Pennsylvania—J. E. O'Donnell, $100. Missouri—Edward F. Goftra, $2,000. Nebraska—W. A. Woodward, $200. Delaware—Willard Salfsbury, $200.

KLOEBER KILL BY FALL OVER A TREE Green River Hot Springs, Wash., Oct. 28.—That Fred Kloeber, as well as Julius Krumle, came to a violent end by accident in the deep mountain forests near here was established yesterday when Kloeber's body was found beside a fallen tree, over which he had stumbled and broken his neck. The supposition is that when Krumle died suddenly last Sunday presumably from heart failure, Kloeber hastened for aid, and in running along this tree in the darkness stumbled. He had struck his jaw, and had not moved, his gun being still in his grasp. He had gone less than two miles after leaving Krumle. The body was located by dogs. Death was probably instantaneous.

Kloeber was an ex-newspaper man, 35 years old. He was associated with his brother, Dr. J. S. Kloeber, at Green River Hot Springs.

RIDGLEY ABSOLVED MORSE FROM WRONG New York, Oct. 30.—Charles W. Morse, the financier who is being tried for violation of the National banking laws, denied the statement alleged to have been made by him to A. H. Curtis, his co-defendant, that he had "busted" the National Bank of North America. Morse started to explain that the bank was never "busted" when he was stopped by objection of the prosecution. The prosecution also succeeded in excluding a conversation between Morse and Comptroller of the Currency Ridgley. Ex-Congressman Littlefield, counsel for Morse, stated to the court that by this conversation he desired to prove that Ridgley not only absolved Morse from all responsibility regarding the condition of the bank, but even discussed going into the banking business with Morse.

W. C. T. U. DENOUNCES SPEAKER JOE CANNON Denver, Oct. 28.—The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention today adopted with practical unanimity a resolution commending the efforts of the churches to defeat the re-election of Joseph G. Cannon as a member of congress.

The resolution was introduced by Mrs. Mary E. Kuhl, secretary of the Illinois W. C. T. U., as follows: "Resolved, That we, the women of the W. C. T. U. in convention assembled, do hereby express a most hearty commendation of the action taken by the Methodist Episcopal church and the several churches in their brave effort to defeat the re-election of Speaker Cannon, because of his persistent opposition to the reforms pro-

EARL DODD DIED DURING SECOND NIGHT OUT

(From Thursday's Daily Guard.) Coroner W. T. Gordon arrived home last night from Hazel Dell where he went with a vehicle to meet the body of Earl Dodd, the youth who perished in the snow at the summit of the Cascade mountains near Waldo Lake a few days ago. The body was left at the home of the boy's parents at Natron and the funeral was held this afternoon with interment in the Natron cemetery.

The coroner was accompanied to Eugene by John Gold, who was one of Dodd's fellow laborers on A. R. Black's reservoir at the lake and who helped to conduct the search for the young man. To a reporter this forenoon Mr. Gold told the story of young Dodd's disappearance and of the finding of the body. Dodd left camp Wednesday noon, having sighted a deer nearby and wished to follow it. The snow was about three feet deep at the time and the men at the camp cautioned him to be careful and advised him that he had better not go, one of them, John Krognos, speaking quite sharply, and told him it was a foolhardy trick for him to go out when the snow was so deep and heavy. But Earl laughed at their fears and expressed confidence that he would be back all right and set out with his rifle. As the boy was known to be a good woodsman and an experienced hunter, no great fear for his safety was felt until nightfall when he did not show up at camp. The men waited until Thursday morning and then set out to search for him. They found his tracks but did not run across him that day. They returned to camp Thursday evening and again set out Friday morning, still failing to find him that day. Going out again Saturday morning they found the body stiff and cold in death, with the rifle lying across it. He was not in a sheltered place and evidently dropped from sheer exhaustion and was frozen to death.

Died Second Night Out. It was evident, Mr. Gold said, that he died the second night out, judging from the fall of snow. His tracks leading from camp were covered more or less by snow, and his tracks were near where the body was found. It is believed that the young man became bewildered after reaching a point about three quarters of a mile from camp. At this point his tracks showed that he was going in the opposite direction from camp, although for five or six miles he had been on a straight course toward camp. His tracks showed that in the last half mile before he finally stopped, he sat down about every hundred feet, indicating that he was completely exhausted.

Mr. Gold stated that they had a hard time getting the body out of the canyon, where it was found, to the camp, but they placed it on a pack horse and took it in that manner to Hazel Dell, where the coroner took charge of it. After hearing the story of the boys' companions the coroner deemed that an inquest was unnecessary.

CLOTHES AND GUN THIEF CAUGHT AT COTTAGE GROVE John Larrierson, alias H. E. Taylor, was brought to Eugene last evening from Cottage Grove by Constable Atkins, of that city, and placed in the county jail, having been bound over by the justice of the peace there on the charge of larceny from a dwelling. He is the same fellow who stole a suit of clothes from Charles Smith, a local butcher, and a gun from Dangler, the Springfield blacksmith, a few days ago, as reported by The Guard. He had the clothes on when he was brought to Eugene. Larrierson broke into William Abbott's house at Saginaw and took therefrom a gun, a cartridge belt and other articles. He took them to Cottage Grove and traded them at a second hand store for a revolver and some cash. He will appear on trial in the terms of circuit court which begins Monday.

TIMMONS RAPIDLY GAINING STRENGTH Salem, Oct. 29.—Several days will be required before C. V. Timmons, wife slayer, will be removed from the Salem hospital to the county jail. While in hospital he has gained strength, and is nearly healed. Timmons is said by his physicians to be very ill and weak from loss of blood and his removal is a question of time.

Timmons is bound down to his bed by shackles and the county officials are taking no chances on deception. He talks but little of the murder and practically the only mention of the crime he has made which has important construction was the confession on the night following the tragedy.

WALLACE, Oct. 31.—Charged with trafficking in women for alleged moral purposes, Emil Vanatam, owner of much property in Wallace, was bound over to the federal court at Moscow in the sum of $300, and Jennie Girard, his alleged wife, in the sum of $1000. Their trial is set for November 16.

McLEAN DESCRIBES TREATMENT AT HANDS OF POLICE OFFICERS

Thirty hours without food or water, and other persecutions in the treatment that B. D. McLean reports at the hands of Vancouver police officers. He was arrested on suspicion of being the murderer of Jeweler Butterworth of St. Johns, and held for five days at the police station, which he describes as five times worse than a hog pen, and as full of vermin and filth. From Wednesday noon at the time of his arrest, until Thursday evening, McLean had nothing to drink or eat, and for the five days while in the hands of the officers he had to buy his own food at a restaurant.

Not only was McLean mistreated, but he says that a continual cross fire of questions was aimed at him by various officers. He states that he thinks nearly fifty tried to twist something but the truth out of him. The sweatbox as described by him, is a simple proceeding for the officer, but very tantalizing to the prisoner. One question is asked him, and before he gives an answer out of his mouth, another is fired at him. The method is continued either until the prisoner makes a mistake or stops answering through his inability to answer the swiftly repeated questions.

McLean returned last Saturday. He says that many of the stories printed of him in both Portland and local newspapers are untrue. For instance the report published that he was married at sea, and that he eloped to do so, is totally false. He and his wife were married in a hotel at Astoria, with the full permission and understanding of the bride's parents. A sister of the bride was with them. His numerous friends in and out of Eugene received the news of his release with the greatest joy. The investigation of the officers showed that they had made one of their numerous mistakes in arresting an innocent man. However, such treatment as McLean describes is not due to the most guilty criminal, not to consider the man who is held up to the barest suspicion.

DRS. ATWOOD ARE BOUND OVER AT PORTLAND DRS. C. H. T. AND C. H. ATWOOD, father and son, charged with performing unlawful operations in a hospital conducted by them at Tremont station, were taken before Justice of the peace Olson yesterday afternoon for arraignment on a charge of "indecent and immoral acts which openly outrage public decency and are in violation of public morals." Both waived arraignment and were bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $1000 each, which they furnished, says today's Oregonian.

While held nominally under the "public nuisance" law, it is hoped by the District Attorney's office, are in serious public charge within the next few days. The charge now pending is merely nominal. The authorities are firm in believing that the Atwoods caused the death of Pearl Lamb, who died as the result of criminal malpractice. Evidence is also at hand to connect these men with the serious illness of a young woman who has been hovering between life and death for some considerable time.

An inquest into the death of Miss Lamb was to have been held yesterday by the coroner, but was postponed to allow more time for the gathering of evidence. It will likely be held this morning. Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald said yesterday that in the event the coroner's jury connect the Atwoods with the death of Miss Pearl Lamb, the charges against them will be changed to manslaughter.

Finch of the firm of Piggott & Finch, representing Drs. C. H. T. and C. H. Atwood, insist that their clients are conducting a thoroughly moral and indeed a beneficial institution. A number of the most prominent women of Portland have been their patients, he says. "The Drs. Atwood conduct a maternity home, and try to avoid receiving such cases as that of the Lamb girl from Eugene. She secured admittance by false representation, and the doctors do not want such cases. The statement that the Drs. Atwood are no licensed physicians is absolutely untrue, for they are graduates of medical schools and have licenses to practice as well as any other physicians in Portland. Among the patients they have treated at their hospital are the wives of bankers and various other prominent professional and business men. They would not object to the publication of the list of their patients if the patients themselves would not object. Their books and records are open to everyone."

Prof. Shafer, of the U. of O., a member of the commission appointed to revise Oregon geographical names, was in Albany yesterday to attend the first meeting, but the other members of the committee, Prof. Horner and Will G. Steele, were not there. Prof. Horner telephoned that he could not come, and by invitation Prof. Shafer attended. The work of the commission is an interesting one, and changes suggested will be watched with interest.—Albany Democrat.

OREGON SECOND BEATS MULTNOMAH SECOND 52-0

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.) The University of Oregon second team beat the Multnomah Club aggregation this afternoon 52 to 0. The score the first half was 23 to 0 in favor of Oregon. The Oregon team played all around and half over the club men, who were much lighter, and were not in good condition for the tremendous pace set by the collegians. Multnomah did not make yardage once.

Jeffries, the Multnomah quarter, was the only man taken from the game because of injuries. The first half resulted in a score of 23 for Oregon and nothing for Multnomah. The feature of the half was Oregon's aggressive work. Oregon scored four minutes after the game started. After a series of line plunges and forward passes, Sullivan carried the ball over the goal line and Lackey kicked the goal. Score: Oregon, 6; Multnomah, 0. In six minutes more Oregon carried the ball for 70 yards for another touchdown, this time Moffitt carrying the ball over the goal line. No Goal. Oregon, 11; Multnomah, 0. Oregon started off again and covered 60 yards for a third touchdown. Captain Hawley carrying the pigskin over the line. Goal was kicked. Oregon, 17; Multnomah, 0. After another series of line plunges, end runs and a forward pass, and with but ten seconds to spare, Hawkins made the fourth touchdown and Lackey kicked goal. Oregon, 23; Multnomah, 0.

In two minutes Oregon scored a touchdown by carrying the ball two thirds the length of the field on a succession of plays. Goal was kicked. The next was made on a fake back when Captain Hawley ran 60 yards for a touchdown. Goal was kicked. Soon after Kestley got away on a quarterback run for thirty yards and scored eighteen points in five minutes. Goal kicked.

Two attempts at forward passes failed and it was some time before Oregon pushed the ball over. The addition to the score with the goal made 47 points. With three minutes to play Oregon scored the length of the field and Lackey kicked the last touchdown. No goal was kicked. Final score, 52 to 0. Officials—Referee, Coleman; umpire, King; field judge, Zacharias; head linesman, Coover.

OREGON WON OVER IDAHO AT MOSCOW TODAY (Guard Special Service. Moscow, Idaho, Oct. 31.— First half—Idaho, 6; Oregon, 4. Second half—Oregon, 23; Idaho, 15. Final—Oregon, 27; Idaho, 19.

Other Scores Today West Point—Final—Army, 0; Princeton, 0. Ithaca—Final—Cornell, 10; Penn. State, 4. Cambridge—Final—Harvard, 6; Brown, 2. Annapolis—Final—Carlisle, 15; Navy, 6.

S. P. OFFICIALS AGREEABLE TO DEPOT PARKING Manager Hartog, of the Commercial Club, returned last night from a conference in Portland with General Manager J. P. O'Brien and General Passenger Agent Wm. McMurray, of the S. P. lines, in regard to a park at the Eugene depot.

The results of the interview are highly satisfactory, Mr. Hartog says, and will be placed by him before the board of governors at their meeting on Monday evening.

Mr. O'Brien stated that the appropriation has already been exceeded, but he was willing to help Eugene's good work along and will do his share in this matter, subject to some minor stipulations.

FARMERS' FAIR AT SPRINGFIELD GREAT SUCCESS

(From Saturday's Daily Guard.) The Farmers' Institute and Industrial Fair, held today and yesterday at Springfield under the auspices of the Springfield Grange and the enterprising citizens of that town, exceeded the expectations of the promoters in its success. While chiefly educational in its scope and influence a good idea could be gotten of the vegetable and fruit growing wealth in the Willamette Valley, and the skill of the women of Lane county with the needle and in other handicrafts.

The intention was given up last Thursday of having an exhibition but so many of the farmers brought fruit and other products, and their wives handiwork, that a very creditable exhibit filled over two rooms. While the quantity was large, that feature was not so marked as the quality. Never were there posier apples, finer grained pumpkins, or more skillful needle, crochet and knitted work, quilts and manufactures, representing the industry of the section and of Springfield.

No money prizes are offered those who brought exhibits, but the contestants are given ribbons for first, second and third places in the various lines and classes. This task of judgment will be finished by tonight. The judges were: Painting—Mrs. Peery, Mrs. Kestly and Mrs. Van Valzah. Needlework—Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Page and Mrs. Bryan. Manufactures—Mrs. Phetteplace, Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Rychar. Fruit—Dr. Lewis, Geo. Dorris and Dr. Emery. Vegetables and Grains—H. M. Stewart, J. J. Browning and Paul Betteheim.

Old Papers. Among the exhibits were two copies of old papers, one telling of the death of George Washington. It belongs to Mrs. H. F. Ball, and is called the Ulster County Gazette. The date of publication is January 4, 1800. One is also in the collection of oddities relating to the death of Abraham Lincoln. A. S. Walker also has the first copy of the Springfield News which came off the press in March 21, 1891. There was also a sugar bowl, owned by Grandma Signor, which was labelled 130 years old. Over two hundred entries were brought in by 11 o'clock today, with more to come. Besides these there were special exhibits by the Lane County Fruit Association, C. J. Dodd, J. Beebe, Henry Wiley, and others. J. Beebe, who is county fruit inspector, has samples of fruit and limbs taken from trees with various diseases, as samples.

Good Speakers. But whatever the educational value of the exhibits, the speakers are worthy of any meeting in the country. Among these are President Campbell, Professor Schafer, Professor Howe, of the University, Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, of the state public school system; J. W. Bailey, food and dairy commissioner, and Prof. C. I. Lewis, of the Oregon Agricultural College.

The Institute began yesterday morning. In the afternoon the first of the program was held. President Campbell told the meeting of the value of education. He pointed out the great influx of trained Eastern men, whom the Oregon youth must compete with in the development of the Northwest. He therefore drew above all things strong educational institutions equal to Eastern colleges.

Hon. J. W. Bailey gave a lecture on "Practical Dairying and Farming." He explained the advantages and showed how diversified farming pays so much more.

In the evening the Springfield band gave a concert. After a splendid recitation by Miss Richmond, six little girls sang a song, which will cause comment among those who heard it for weeks to come. Then Professor Schafer addressed the meeting on "Oregon History."

This morning there was no regular program. This afternoon between 1 and two o'clock there was a baby show with nearly forty contestants. At 2 o'clock Prof. C. I. Lewis, of the Agricultural College, addressed the meeting. He was followed by Hon. J. H. Ackerman and Hon. J. W. Bailey with good addresses.

Last night the crowd in the Odd Fellows' hall, where the Institute is being held, was crowded. A conservative manager claimed that over a thousand were present. On this account a small charge will be made for the last address this evening. Prof. Howe, of the University, will deliver an illustrated address on "Millet, the Painter of French Country Life."

The Managers. Managing the Springfield grange, of which J. A. Youngren is master, and H. E. Phetteplace, secretary; John Kestley, general director; A. S. Walker, secretary for receiving exhibits; J. J. Browning and W. B. McKinney, the needle and fine handwork department; J. J. Bryan, as stenographer, and Mrs. E. O. Clark with the candies and sweetmeats for the youngsters—some of which were full grown.

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA 25 YEARS

Limb Peeled and Foot Was Like Raw Flesh—Had to Use Crutches, and Doctors Thought Amputation Necessary—Montreal Woman Writes of Cure Seven Years Ago.

BELIEVES LIFE SAVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try Cuticura Remedies first. He said, 'Try them if you like, but I don't think they will do any good.' At this time my leg was like a piece of raw flesh, and I had to walk on crutches. I bought a box of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bottle of Cuticura Pills. After the first two treatments the swelling went down, and in two months my leg was cured and the doctors believe his own eyes were deceived. He would use it for his own patients. I used two cans of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Ointment, and three boxes of Resolvent, and I have now been cured over seven years, and I believe the Cuticura Remedies I bought for my leg have saved my life every day.
