

VARSIITY OUTPLAYS CORVALLIS ELEVEN AT EVERY POINT

(Staff Correspondent.)

Multnomah Field, Portland, Nov. 21.—The University of Oregon football team defeated the O. A. C. team here today 8 to 0. Captain Moulten kicked two field goals in the first half, and in the second Oregon took the defensive and successfully kept O. A. C. out of striking distance. Oregon played the better ball in every department of the game.

THE FIRST HALF

Two beautiful place kicks by Moulten, Oregon's captain, decided the first half of the big Oregon-Corvallis game this afternoon in favor of the lemon-yellow. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever assembled on the new Multnomah field.

Oregon had the best of the fight most of the time. Clark, Oregon's fullback, exceeded Wolf in punting. The Oregon team played a fierce game throughout the half, gaining yardage several times and always booting the ball to safety. Four times Wolfe tried to place kick but in every attempt the kick fell short of Oregon's goal, which was never in real danger. Score, 8 to 0.

The parades by the two schools preceding the game were splendid, and never has Multnomah seen such enthusiasm. The O. A. C. cadets gave a fine drill, as they came on the field.

THE SECOND HALF

The second half was a punting contest in which Oregon excelled. The Eugene team also being more successful in running down punts. No scoring was done, and the story of the first half tells the essential story of the game.

Corvallis was outplayed at every stage of the game and made yardage but three times during the battle. Latourrette was the star of the day in quarterback for Oregon, and his work was phenomenal. Clark punted in his usual manner, averaging 45 yards. Dodson relieved Michael at left end and played a brilliant game. Mains, Pinkham and Moulten also played great ball.

The whole team fought like tigers and their defense was a wonderful exhibition. Wolf and Gagnon were the individual stars for the Aggies.

The opening line-up today was as follows: Oregon: O. A. C. Michael, L. E. R., Dobbin, Pinkham, L. T. R., Jamison, McIntyre, L. G. R., Wallace, Meann, C. G. R., Kelly, Gilles, R. G. L., Evenden, Bonden, R. T. R., Pendergrass, Kilz, R. E. L., Cady, Latourrette, Q. B., Gagnon, Hurd, L. H. R., Wolfe, Main, R. H. L., Cooper, Clarke, F. B., Keck.

As the reports came in bringing the news that Oregon had scored two field goals in the first half the crowd of spectators in front of The Guard office yelled with all the fervor of University students. Besides the youths, University professors and business men were mingled in the crowd and justly joined in the Oregon yell. Captain Fred Moulten and the University team were enthusiastically cheered. Scores upon scores of telephone inquiries were also answered.

LARGER CROWDS AT FAIR THAN ANTICIPATED

Cottage Grove, Nov. 20.—I he first day of the Cottage Grove fair passed off with a larger attendance than was anticipated when the day opened. After the morning exercises the crowd increased in numbers along in the afternoon until at times there was a jam in the pavilion and poultry house.

In the pavilion is placed the women's exhibit, and to say what it consists of would take up too much space. There are pieced quilts, embroidery work of all descriptions, hair work, such as wreaths, chains, etc., oil, pastel and photographed pictures, hand-painted china, Battenburg laces, bead work, pyrography specimens, crocheted, knitted, and spun work, sofa pillows and all the work that a woman takes a delight in manufacturing.

One special feature in this department was a postal card upon which was written a message of 23 lines and done by a man 99 years of age. The text is clear, the lines being uniform and the letters perfectly formed. Several drawings and paintings are exhibited, being the work of children ranging in age from 6 to 12 years. This feature is especially worthy of mention.

In the culinary line are to be found such products of the housewife's skill as pickles, pies, home made candy, doughnuts and other delicacies.

The mining exhibit was not as large as was expected, still there is a fine showing from the Champion mine, which consists of free milling gold ore.

The showing of vegetables is exceptionally fine, consisting of all kinds of vegetables grown in this latitude. There are mammoth pumpkins, gigantic squashes, huge potatoes and beets and carrots as long as the moral law, onions that rival in size Lane county's biggest apples, cabbage heads as large as pumpkins, and other things in proportion. Perhaps the largest individual display is that of Hardy Crow, of Lomax, and consists of a general line of vegetables and apples. Fred Walker, of Cottage Grove, has on display some yellow dent corn which compares favorably with the grown corn of Wisconsin. There is also a good showing of flint corn and some popcorn grown on land that was broken up 53 years ago. All of this has reached a high state of perfection.

The exhibits of the pupils in all grades of the Cottage Grove schools is very creditable. There are numerous specimens and papers on various subjects, as well as specimens of penmanship that are far above the average. One feature of this showing is that of the first graders, who have submitted samples of their ability in the paper cutting line, imitating flowers and fruit.

The Cottage Grove Manufacturing Company has a fine booth in which they have a fine showing of mission furniture, such as tables, chairs, pedestals, stands, doors and mantels.

The Oregon Mineral Water Company also has a fine showing of its celebrated brand of London mineral water, as well as its own convalescence. The action is the result of the recent outbreak of cholera added to the fact that many cases are reported dead or moribund, indicating that they were concealed. No cases have been reported to the health department for several days.

The notice of Sperry is bitterly resented here, and Governor-General Smith has communicated the entire matter to Washington, and it is expected that President Roosevelt will pass finally upon the matter.

Veatch & Dawson, the popular Grove hardware dealers, also have a booth arranged in which they show a line of the finest bedroom and parlor furniture, carpets, rugs, etc.

In the livestock section there are not as many exhibits as the management would have liked to see, but still the stock shown is of a high class and worthy of mention. In the pig-line are seen Poland Chinas and Duroc Jerseys, shown by J. A. Morgan, Curtis Veatch, W. M. Wheeler and Hamilton Veatch respectively; registered Southdown sheep shown by R. B. Morse; Angora goats representing the herds of Edgar King and Curtis Veatch; Fawn Curran has on show a fine five-months-old Shorthorn bull and Mrs. Sarah Cochran is showing one of the finest Jersey bulls in Lane county. This animal is two years old. A Durham bull is also shown by J. I. Jones. This bull is five years old and is from the herd of the Ladds at Portland.

In the section set apart for the showing of fine horses are to be found several of the best bred equines on the Pacific coast. Prominent among those on exhibition is a grade Morgan stallion owned by Will Bainsbridge, a Percheron and Shire colt six months old by J. B. Anderson, who also shows a grade Clyde mare two years old that is a beauty. J. I. Jones shows several fine horses, consisting of a grade Shire colt five months old that is as large as an ordinary yearling, a grade Shire two-year-old that stands 17 hands high and weighs in the neighborhood of 1700 pounds, the imported Shire stallion "Bouncing Boy" that weighs an even ton and is owned by what is known as the Shire Company, of which Mr. Jones is manager. W. B. Cooper has on exhibition a Wilkes-Hackney stallion—a roaneter, as well as his driving mare, "Alice Roosevelt," a full sister to the stallion above and who is called "Teddy R." The mare is said to be the finest driver in this part of the state, and Mr. Cooper has refused to sell her for several times.

The exhibit of horses is under the immediate supervision of J. B. Wheeler, a horseman of years of experience and a gentleman who at all times places his services at the option of others in showing the stock at improvements in the place. Judging of the exhibits will take place today and then The Guard will

General Debility

Day in and day out there is that feeling of weakness that makes a burden of itself. Food does not strengthen. Sleep does not refresh. It is hard, to do, hard to bear, what should be easy—vitality is on the ebb, and the whole system suffers. For this condition take endeavor to give its readers the full list as decided by those who are to pass upon the merits of what has been shown at the fair.

Cottage Grove Notes
Hanna and Cliffe have purchased the cigar store formerly conducted by M. A. Clark and have made several improvements in the place.

S. E. Wallace has a force of men engaged in tearing down the walls of the Veatch block recently damaged by fire and when this is completed will begin the erection of a new building. The new block will set back from the street five feet further than the old one, to line with the other buildings in the block.

There is more or less talk on the streets hereabout county, with this city as the county seat.

The new Berkshire block is nearly completed. Carpenters are at work fitting up the interior and the building will soon be occupied by a dry goods store.

Cottage Grove has a new theatre, the one which opened its doors to the public last night.

RATE LOWERED FOR CALIFORNIA

Washington, Nov. 18.—The interstate commerce commission today ordered that the lumber rates now applicable to Pacific Northwest coast ports be made applicable to California on shipments to Chicago.

This reduction of the California to Chicago rate is 60 cents to 55 cents, all other rates in proportion.

All the lumbermen from the Pacific coast and the Eastern and Southern states who are here for the ways and means committee hearing this afternoon met to confer as to the presentation of their case. Probably C. W. Nibley will appear as a witness for Oregon and George M. Corwall, of Portland, Or., will submit a brief containing a mass of material showing the condition of the lumber industry and reasons for the retention of the present duty.

Some Eastern lumbermen desire to have all the delegations here not only resist the removal of the present duty, but ask the ways and means committee to recommend raising the duty from the prevailing $2 per thousand to $4.

Several Western men, among them Cornwall and Nibley, oppose making any raise.

A strong demand for removal of the lumber duties seems to be developing among representatives of the Newspaper Publishers' Association, who will probably at least attempt to get free entry from Canada of all forest products entering into the manufacture of print paper.

EAGLES WILL BUILD HOME IN SPRING

Eugene Aerie, No. 275, Fraternal Order of Eagles, is intending erecting a home of its own on the lot on Williams street near Fifth next spring. Such is the talk among the members of the aerie at present and it is the general belief among them that they will be able to put up a building to cost $20,000 or more.

There is talk of a three-story block but it may be a building with a Williams street front. It is said, however, that a majority of the members favor three stories and some of them even four.

The aerie is experiencing a splendid growth. During the past three months 81 new members have been initiated into the lodge and the membership is now nearly 300. It is expected to reach the 400 mark by the first of the year.

The aerie is in excellent financial shape and has paid out several hundred dollars in sick and accident benefits during the past year.

ANNA GOULD READY TO APPLY FOR NEW DIVORCE

Paris, Nov. 18.—Anna Gould's marital troubles are not over yet and if the statements made in court today are true, she even now is planning to sue for divorce from the Prince de Sagan, to marry whom she travelled about the world in one of the most remarkable courtships on record.

It was Maitre Bonnet, counsel for Count Boni de Castellane, former husband of Anna, who made the sensational announcement. Boni, who was present, smiled with delight.

IMPORTANT SUIT IN FEDERAL COURT

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—Suit was filed in the United States circuit court today by Henry Ripley, to whom a large number of claims have been assigned against the Spring Valley Water Company, to recover the value of property lost in the great fire of April 19, 1906. Other suits for claims aggregating $17,000,000 may be filed. It is alleged that the company did not properly operate the water mains and located them insecurely on poor foundations, and that the mains were defective.

Judge M. L. Pipes, of Portland, is in the city for a day or so.

SATURDAY BIG DAY AT COTTAGE GROVE FAIR

Cottage Grove, Nov. 21.—(Staff correspondence.)—The last day of the Cottage Grove District Fair opened bright and clear and the crowd of yesterday was in evidence. As soon as the gates were opened in the morning people were there waiting for tickets.

The exhibits were judged yesterday and the decision of the judges gave general satisfaction.

The poultry exhibit was the one that proved the center of attraction. This section was under the immediate supervision of Mr. R. C. Arne, a gentleman who is in the poultry business and who makes a specialty of raising prize-winning White Leghorns. B. F. Keeney, county assessor of Lane county, acted as judge. Mr. Keeney is a chicken fancier and knows the genus chicken as well as any man in this section of the country.

The exhibition of poultry was not as large as was that of last year when a poultry exhibition was held in this city, but the quality was as good that shown at the prior show. There were fowls of nearly all kinds, from the mammoth black Langhans and Barred Plymouth Rocks to the little toy Bantams, and they all looked good.

SALE OF EXTENSIVE MILLER AND LUX PROPERTIES REPORTED

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—The extensive holdings of Miller and Lux in Oregon and California are reported to have been disposed of for $20,000,000, of which $1,000,000 is reported to have been paid down. The properties have been purchased by several German Americans headed by Liggett and Meyers, former wholesale tobacco dealers of St. Louis. Adolphus Busch, the brewer, is said to be interested to the extent of one million.

The lands include 450,000 acres in California, of which 30,000 are oil lands, and 250,000 acres in Oregon. There are 120,000 head of cattle and 20,000 on the ranches, and the deal includes a virtual monopoly of the butcher business of San Francisco, which, it is rumored, will pass to some Eastern firm.

The lands are to be colonized as rapidly as possible, it is asserted.

REPORT IS DENIED

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—At the office of Miller & Lux it is stated that the report of the sale of its properties is unfounded.

WANT TO KNOW HOW HAS GOT HIS REVOLVER

San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The coroner's inquest over the suicide of Morris Haas commenced today, and particular inquiry is being directed as to whether or not the weapon with which Haas committed suicide was passed to him after his arrest, or was concealed in his shoe at the time of his arrest.

H. O. Bremer, a gun expert, testified that in his opinion the moisture of the body would have rusted the weapon had it been concealed in his shoe.

The police officers who witnessed the shooting in the jail between Haas and his wife testified that it would have been impossible for her to have slipped the weapon to him during their interview.

COUNTY SHOULD OFFER BIG BOUNTY ON COUGARS AND GRAY WOLVES

These Animals Kill Many Times the Deer That All the Hunters Do

Vida, Or., Nov. 20. Editor Guard:—A few days ago Al Montgomery missed a number of goats. Milo Thompson and his dog "Chase" were sent for, and together with Fred Montgomery went to where they saw that something had been running the goats and let the dog go. He had gone only about a hundred yards when he jumped a cougar, which was laying by the goat he had killed. The cougar was soon put up a tree, and a couple of shots ended his career. He was very fat and measured 8 feet 7 inches in length. They proceeded to skin it and before they had finished it the dog had a wildcat tread nearby, which was also killed. The dog is one of "Dr. Brown's famous 'varmint dogs'" and has a record of having treed two bear, five cougars and killing twenty-one bobcats. Few people realize what the killing of cougar means to the deer as a cougar must have at least a deer a week to keep alive, or more if he can get them, and that means 50 or 60 deer a year. A great many people suppose that wildcats do not catch deer, but they are mistaken, as they have been caught in the act of killing deer by a number of old hunters on the McKean. But the greatest damage they do is catching the young fawns. "The present bounty of $2.50 ought to be left on wildcats, and at least $20 on cougars and $20 or $25 on gray wolves. I think as good a game law as we could have is a big bounty on 'varminis,' which kills many times the deer that all the hunters do. M. C. F.

ALBANY COLLEGE WINS FOOTBALL GAME FROM EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL

PRINT PAPER FAMINE NOW NEAR AT HAND

Milwaukee, Nov. 21.—A Milwaukee dispatch says: Evening Wisconsin Union from Appleton, Wis., says: "Unless attention be given to the situation several great mills throughout the United States between now and the first of next year, will shut within six weeks for a general paper famine, according to the judgment of the largest paper mill factories in Wisconsin. It is reported, however, before being reported, have been wood pulp mills in the country that are dependent upon the West in adding daily to the paper-making industry."

Several weeks ago manufacturers would soon make wood pulp worth its weight in gold. Today they are declaring that even for its weight gold would not be obtainable.

Yesterday was set apart as Woodmen's day, but there were not many of the order in evidence. In the evening the band went to the park and gave a concert in the pavilion, closing the day's festivities with some really excellent music.

Quite a number came down from Eugene in the afternoon and took in the fair. Most of them returned to their homes on the evening train.

Today will be the banner day of the fair, as far as attendance is concerned. Being Saturday and no school being in session, all the pupils will take advantage of the holiday and visit the fair grounds.

B. M. Miller, of Blue River, is in the city for a few days.

FILING OF SUIT CREATES SENSATION IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—A suit was filed today in the United States circuit court by Mrs. Melissa Z. Funk, of Attica, Ind., to collect $20,000 worth of notes from the $200,000 estate of Theodore P. Bunnell, late founder of Grand Junction, Colo., and a capitalist of Santa Monica, Cal. The suit reveals one of the most remarkable stories ever recorded in the annals of Western courts. By means of letters and promissory notes, alleged to have been signed by Bunnell, it is shown that Bunnell, then a young man in Indiana, fifty years ago made a result and attempted mistreatment of Mrs. Funk, who was then Melissa, of a loss of three years falling in which he was stricken with remorse, which forced him to leave the country and throughout the remainder of his life, compelled him to do penance for his act.

During the ensuing years he wrote many letters to Miss Zink, begging forgiveness, and sent numerous promissory notes, payable from his estate, as a palliation for the injury done her. The notes are in unusual form, showing his stricken conscience.

Bunnell was a resident of Santa Monica for many years, and died a year ago, aged 75, at Cotano's Springs, where his body lay undisturbed for some days. He left no heirs, his wife having died two years previous to his own demise, and the body was finally sent here and interred in the Woodlawn cemetery.

The executor refused to allow the claim of Mrs. Funk. The first note is dated April 26, 1860.

ONE VOTE AGAINST PRESIDENT GOMPERS

Denver, Nov. 21.—Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor today with one dissenting vote.

Daniel J. Keefe, of the Longshoremen's union, announced his withdrawal as a candidate for re-election to the executive committee owing to the recommendations of the committee to the president's report. He said he had voted the Republican ticket for 35 years and would continue to do so until his conscience dictated otherwise, but that his relations with Gompers were as amicable as ever and they would continue to work together to advance the economical movement.

James Duncan, of the Granite Cutters' union, was re-elected first vice president, and John Mitchell second vice president, all the other vice presidencies being re-elected.

Toronto was chosen as the next meeting place of the American Federation of Labor.
