WORK BEGINS ON EUGENE'S NEW POSTOFFICE

Welch Bros. Up From Salem—Excavating Will Probably Begin Tomorrow

W. M. and C. R. Welch, of the firm of Welch Bros., who have the contract for the erection of Eugene's new federal building, arrived up from Salem last night preparatory to beginning actual construction work on the building immediately. They set the stakes for the excavation this morning and announced to a reporter that they expect that the work of excavation will begin tomorrow.

CHARLES N. FOWLER.

Congressman Charles N. Fowler of the Fifth New Jersey district is chairman of the house committee on banking and currency.

It was stated by them today that they will rush the building to completion as fast as the weather will permit. They expressed a wish that the present good building weather will continue for some time yet, although they realize that Oregon's winter climate is variable and that there will be many delays on account of rain before the winter ends.

The building will be a handsme two-story pressed brick structure, trimmed with granite and other stone.

'MOBILE RUNS WILD IN OAKLAND AND HURTS FOUR

Oakland, Dec. 26.—The collision of an automobile and train in the heart of the business district today was preceded by the running down of two pedestrians by the same machine. One person was perhaps fatally injured and three others are more or less badly hurt.

The injured are: Sam Knila, chauffeur, perhaps fatally; John Petty and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Riley.

The machine was dashing down Broadway at a furious speed carrying to the hospital Albert Cross, who had just been injured by a trolly car. Petty was also an occupant of the automobile. Just before the machine struck the train it ran down and struck Rileys, who was crossing the street. At Seventh and Broadway the machine collided with a local train, injuring the chauffeur and Petty. The four victims were taken to the hospital in the police patrol as was also Gross.

TESTIMONY FOR THE DEFENSE IN TRIAL OF HAINS

Flushing, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The marital troubles of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., and his story of estrangement with his wife, Claudia Hains, came out in the trial of Thornton J. Hains today, when Samuel C. Reid, a government building inspector at North Chicago, related conversations he had last June with Captain Hains, making known the causes that led to the separation of the captain and his wife. The testimony of what Captain Hains said was permitted by Justice Crane as having a bearing on the mental condition of the army officer at that time.

Mr. Reid stated that Captain Hains told him that his wife had confessed that she loved Annis. Captain Hains evinced signs of great mental distress in the narration of his troubles, the witness said.

Mr. Reid is said by counsel for the defense to be a brother of Princess Rospigliosi, of Rome, and comes from Kentucky. He is a grandson of S. C. Reid, who commanded the privateer General Armstrong in the battle at Fayal, Azores, during the war of 1812.

Mr. Reid said:

Alarmed at Gossip

"Captain Hains told me he went to Fort Hamilton and found his wife, who wanted to know why he had returned home. 'Why, Claudia, your reputation is at stake. I have come from the utter ends of the earth to save you. I have heard gossip of you and Annis.' His wife told him that the gossip was ridiculous.

Mr. Reid said that the captain stated that he invited Annis to dinner to show that he did not believe the gossip. Witness said that Captain Hains said his father told him there were things to be investigated, and that he (Captain Hains) again spoke to his wife and she replied:

"I do love Billy Annis."

Mr. Reid testified further:

"The captain said that his wife then told him all; that she loved Billy Annis and not him.

"I could not understand it," said Captain Hains. 'The night before she gave me her caresses and told me that it was not so.'"

RUEF SENTENCED TO FOURTEEN YEARS

Ruef by the Oliver Grand jury, which heard 16 supervisors confess the acceptance of bribes in several matters involving public service corporations.

One of the many incidents that tended to make the trial of Ruef remarkable was the shooting of Assistant District Attorney F. J. Heney by Morris Haas, an ex-convict, whose past record was exposed by the prosecutor after the would-be slayer had been accepted as a member of the jury. Haas subsequently committed suicide in the county jail.

MOUND ITEMS.

(Special Correspondence.)

George Prescott and Mr. McIntosh started on the 25th for Eugene on business connected with the buying of timber lands.

Charles Layne is home again recuperating from a fall he had in the mountains on a cruising trip recently. We are very thankful, Charlie, that it did not prove more serious.

Glen Saunders and Chester Pierce are down in the mountains hunting wildcats.

Harry Layne and George Prescott each killed a large wildcat recently.

Roy Bierce went to Independence a few days since, ostensibly to spend Christmas.

Jay Johnson started out Sunday morning with his gun, ostensibly for a hunt. But it is our candid opinion that if he can wend his way over the Wolf creek trail, he is hunting a partner for the New Year's dance at Crow.

The writer would like to know the postoffice address of one T. J. Elmorefice address of one T. J. Elmore, G. A. R. veteran, who responded to roll call at the last encampment in Eugene.

Mrs. Henry Pierce of Montana is now sojourning with neighbors in the vicinity of her old home at Alma.

Mrs. A. D. Bierce received for a Christmas gift a fine portrait of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hill Bierce of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

George Prescott of this place and Ed Pettit of Alma, two are informed), traded dogs recently. George gets his old dog, May, back. We wonder if George expects to renew his old time luck getting varmints.

PIONEER WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

Mrs. Walter Keating's Tragic End At Marshfield

Marshfield, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Walter Keating was burned to death at her home today. She ran into the street with her clothes blazing and died within a minute after her friends reached her. How the accident happened is a mystery. She was a pioneer of Coos Bay.

KINCAID CASE WILL BE DROPPED

Prosecution of the suit to recover fees said to have been collected by Secretary of State H. R. Kincaid while he was in office will be dropped by District Attorney John M. McNary and Leonard H. McMahan, who was associated with the district attorney, as a result of the decision rendered by the supreme court yesterday in the case of former Secretary F. I. Dunbar.

As the cases cover practically the same points at issue it is practically impossible to continue the Kincaid case and at the earliest opportunity it is probable the district attorney will move to dismiss the suit, which is sow pending in the Marion county circuit court.—Salem Statesman.

LINCOLN HOME AND HOSPITAL WILL BE BUILT

New York, Dec. 28.—Half a million dollars will be offered in memory of Abraham Lincoln by the people of this country between Christmas and the 100th anniversary of his birth, according to the leaders of a national memorial movement which has been started in this city. To permanently endow the Lincoln Hospital & Home, where thousands of colored and white patients have been treated, educated and housed here for the last 69 years, is the object for which American citizens in every section of the land are to be invited to devote their individual tributes to the martyred president. Seventy-five thousand dollars has been promptly subscribed in this city to start this fund and its completion in time for the centenary celebration, is declared to be assured when the people of other cities and states learn of the project.

To Receive Funds.

In crumpled dollar bills and stamp, as well as substantial checks, the working committee of this new Lincoln memorial movement is preparing to receive the response of the people from end to end of the country to their Christmas call for a living monument to Lincoln. Thousands of whites and colored persons, who have alike received the free treatment, care and relief of the institution since long before the civil war, are today enlisting in the movement to perpetuate it in Lincoln's name. From the infirm old people who are weaving baskets for the fund to the home wards to the corps of a hundred graduate trained nurses who are spreading its relief work in every part of the country, a volunteer army of beneficiaries will work to secure the future of this unique hospital in the name of the great emancipator.

Strong Indorsement.

Medical and surgical leaders in this city are today offering to testify to the profession throughout the country that the educational influence of the institution, which is to be a perpetual memorial to Lincoln, is becoming a factor in the problem of health. A score of scientifically educated colored nurses are graduated from its training school each year and sent to every section of the land to cope intelligently with the spread of disease in the highest professional circles as well as among their own tension of this work would prove a people. The continuation and exconsiderable benefit to the hygenic welfare of the whole people, it is declared. The local good accomplished by this one of the largest private hospitals and clinics in this metropolis has for years especially recommended it to the profession as well as the charitable authorities here.

♠ ♠ ♠

Manager Frank Bowerman, of the Boston Nationals, would like to trade Bill Dahlen for Mike Mowry. Frank will make a good trader some day if he puts through all these deals.

♠ ♠ ♠

Hugh McBreen, of the Boston Nationals, has gone to Hot Springs to prepare a new ball park in which the Red Sox will do their training next spring.

♠ ♠ ♠

It is said that Hugo Keily will get the next try at Stanley Ketchell. If Hugo doesn't try any better than he did with Billy Papke he may be sent along with Bill.

♠ ♠ ♠

Napoleon Lajoie has received a Christmas present of two bats that have been soaked in oil for two years. Some players are not able to get things that have been in soak only two months.

And now they say that "Rube" Marquard, the $11,000 Giant, has only one good eye. American Association players say they used to bunt on the side of Rube's bum light and run to the right field fence before he could locate the ball.

♠ ♠ ♠

Jimmy Collins is to buy the Buffalo team, then purchase the Detroit franchise and place Buffalo in the American league, Detroit going to the Michigan League. But what's the difference, so long as Buffalo has Rube Kissinger?
