

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS OCCUR FRIDAY

(From Friday's Daily Guard.)
 Peter Nye, a prominent resident of East Eugene died suddenly of heart trouble at the Eugene Commission Co's store, opposite the crossing of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railroads tracks with those of the South Pacific Co., this morning about 10:30 o'clock. He had gone to the store to make a purchase and was sitting on a stool when suddenly he fell on his face to the floor and was dead in a few minutes. A physician was sent for but life was extinct before he arrived. Mr. Nye had been in his usual good health up to the time of his death.
 Decedent was born in Chatfield township, Crawford county, Ohio, June 4, 1844. He was married in 1868 and his wife came to Oregon 17 years ago, settling in Eugene where they have resided since. They have three children living, Ed Nye, Mrs. Nettie Hunter and Mrs. Hattie Nye. Mr. Nye has one son, Grant Nye, who leaves three brothers and seven sisters in the West. Mr. Nye was the owner of the Nye rock quarries in the eastern part of the city, which he operated for about 15 years and from which most of the building stone used in Eugene in that time has come. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

 No definite arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, but it will be held not later than Sunday afternoon. The remains will be interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
Death of Mrs. Goodman.
 Mrs. Mary Goodman, a pioneer of Oregon and widow of the late J. H. Goodman, a capitalist, who died only a few years ago, died suddenly at her home, 870 High street, this forenoon at 11:45 o'clock from paralysis of the heart. She had not been feeling well for several days past but was up and around the house some time before death came. She was lying on the couch when she passed away peacefully and quietly. She was 82 years of age, lacking a few days. A sketch of her life will appear later and funeral announcements will be made tomorrow.

At the family home a mile and a half northwest of Eugene, Jan. 1, 1909, Mrs. Mary A. Allgire, aged 87 years, 1 month and 9 days. The cause of the death was pleura pneumonia.
 Mrs. Allgire came here with the family from Indianapolis, Indiana, about six years ago. She was a constant member of the Congregational church from her early life and clung to the faith and hope in death which she lived.
 She leaves three sons and three daughters: James R. and Joseph B. of Indianapolis, Ind., and John W. of Everett, Washington; Mrs. Eliza Stevens of Sterling, Massachusetts; Mrs. Martha C. Key and Miss Olive E. Allgire of Eugene.
 The funeral will be held at 10 a. m. Monday at the family residence, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Burket, at Divide, Dec. 30, 1908, Mrs. Eliza J. Gould, of the infirmities of old age. The remains were shipped to Salem Thursday for interment, being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Burket.

Listen to the Story of the "MARK DOWN MAN"

The "Mark Down" man is hard at work these days, and prices dwindle away to the vanishing point under his merciless nimble pencil. Especially drastic is his treatment of short lines and odd lots. Their prices have been reduced to almost nothing..

200 MEN'S SUITS
 Balance of line that formerly were $10, $12.50 and $13.50
To close out at $7.50

These suits sold out readily at regular prices—the fact that only two or three of a kind are left is proof of their desirability.. Plenty of serviceable dark gray and navy blues in fancy worsted weaves.

300 MEN'S SUITS
 Balance of lines that formerly were $15.00, $16.50 and 18.00
To close out at $9.85

These are really splendid Suits and it seems a pity to sell them at a sacrifice price, but the lines are broken and the mark-down man is inexorable in his treatment of broken lines. Included in this line are all-wool Oregon Buckskin and Through and Through Worsteds.

MEN'S WOOL VESTS $1.00
 These vests are worth double and triple the selling price. They are made of black and blue serges, wool cassimeres and silk, mixed worsteds. The reason of the underpricing is this: All short ends and remnants of cloth that had accumulated in the factory were made into vests—the price asked just covers mill and cost of making. These come in all sizes, 36 to 46.
