Unless It's a GOOD Store It Will NOT Pay To Advertise It.

Unless you know a person—unless that person comes into your life in some way—you are not greatly concerned about whether he is good or bad, desirable or objectionable. It's so with a store. The people who never visit it care nothing about it one way or the other. It doesn't exist—for them. But when they are persuaded to patronize it—when they come to turn the spotlight of their attention on it—when it comes to have a part in their lives, as some stores must have in all lives—then it's different; then it does matter whether it strives to win confidence; it does matter whether or not its price concessions are genuine, dependable.

If it meets all tests that a good store must stand when it is advertised—when it thus invites the critical attention of the people—then advertising will "make" the store. If it fails in most of the vital things—if it proves, under the light of publicity not to be much of a store, THEN ADVERTISING WILL NOT PAY—for it will emphasize the shortcomings as well as merits.

For these same reasons it is generally assumed that the store which does not advertise is seeking to avoid close inspection and comparison, and that the store which does is courting them.

MRS. S. M. DAY WINS DEMOREST MEDAL

That the W. C. T. U. silver medal contests are becoming popular was evidenced last night by the large attendance at Dempster's Hall in Fairmount, where a contest was held. There were six contestants and each one received the heartiest kind of applause and it was well earned, for they did exceptionally well.

Mrs. S. M. Day, president of the East Eugene Union, was awarded the medal by three judges, consisting of Messrs. Clark, Stevens and Dyson.

The large hall was filled to standing room and good order was maintained throughout a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. McKown makes a good presiding officer, and not a little of the success of the evening was due to her management. Several solos were rendered; a male quartette furnished two or three numbers and Rev. Mrs. J. W. Sprecher recited an amusing piece that captivated the audience. It was all good.

ELMIRA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Elmira farmers are very busy this good spell of weather getting in their crops.

G. B. Brown has built quite an addition to his place.

The revival services at the Christian church are well attended, and much interest is manifested, there being about twenty-five additions.

Rev. D. E. Olson, of Eugene, is conducting the revival.

The sawmill has started up again and there are several new families who have moved to town to work in the mill.

Mrs. Sallie Evans is running the Elmira Lumber Company's boarding house.

Bert Inman has sold his farm and expects to move to Elmira soon.

L. V. Stingley has gone to Acme to run a butcher shop this summer.

Frank Taylor has bought a half interest in Uncle Bill Driscoll's blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Coligaard has his house and store equipped with a new gas plant.

Quite a few attended the last day of school exercises and picnic on Friday. There is to be a raising big railroad meeting on next Friday night.

Elmira has reorganized its band, there being about 18 members.

Mrs. Nellie Molare, of Roseburg, is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Howard.

Kodol for dyspepsia and indigestion, taken occasionally, will soon relieve you of all the simple stomach ailments which you now have but which may be more serious later. Sold by all druggists.

BILLY WALKER ADMITTED TO $10,000 BAIL

Wm. R. Walker, who after the death of Ed Lang, whom he shot in the leg last Friday afternoon, was charged with murder in the second degree, appeared before Judge Bryson of the justice court at 11 o'clock this forenoon. His attorneys, A. C. Woodcock and C. A. Hardy, waived the reading of the complaint against him and also waived examination, and he was admitted to $10,000 bail. This is an unusual proceeding in a murder case, but it is allowable according to the statutes. The law provides that where the evidence does not indicate strongly that there was an intention of homicide the defendant may be admitted to bail.

Bondsman were secured and the defendant is now at liberty. Eli Bangs, W. M. Renshaw, R. L. Lewis and Henry W. Stewart are the names of his bondsmen.

TOWN OF CRESWELL WILL SOON BE INCORPORATED

Steps have been taken to incorporate the town of Creswell and it is probable that the matter will come up for a vote of the people at the next election in the near future.

At a recent mass meeting it was decided to appoint a committee to interview the citizens and to obtain a sufficient number of signatures to bring the matter before the people. There are about 500 people in the village at present.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Williamette, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 290, Williamette, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor," than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill. "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve until wholly cured. Its cures of eczema, fever sores, boils, burns and piles astound the world. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

DEATH OF MR. AND MRS. F. W. A. CRAIN

The very sudden death of Mrs. Melissa Crain on the 18th inst., at her home in Pasadena, Cal., marks the passing of another noble citizen who for many years was identified with Eugene's activities. She survived her husband but six months, and of him a brief sketch in this connection will be of interest.

F. W. A. Crain was born at Geneva, New York, November 5, 1827. In October, 1853, he was married to Maria Melissa Lowell, in Maraboo, Wis. During his early years he was a minister of the M. E. church, but becoming a cripple he devoted most of his time to his trade, that of a jeweler and watchmaker.

Coming to Eugene in the early 70s, he established the leading jewelry store in the city, it being located in the old Masonic hall, which stood on the northwest corner of Eighth and Willamette streets, now occupied by the Hovey block. Later he changed his location to the Marx building. A few years ago he moved to Junction City, where he continued in business up to two years ago, when on account of impaired health he went to Pasadena, Cal., where he greatly enjoyed his remaining days. His death occurred in that city on September 7, 1908.

Mr. Crain was always a close student, and took an active part in whatever his condition permitted. Often filling various pulpits during his residence in Eugene. He was always held in very high esteem. During the greater part of his business career in Eugene he was associated with his brother, Horace N. Crain, now of Prairie City.

Mrs. Mary Melissa Crain was born in Cleveland, Ohio, September 23, 1827. At the age of sixteen she was married to Mr. Crain, and for more than fifty-five years was his constant companion and helpmate, until death called him. But the separation was indeed brief, for after a little over six months she, too, was called to be with him. Both died happy in the Christian faith, in which they had found so much joy and consolation throughout life.

They leave an adopted daughter, Anna D. Crain, who for many years taught in the Eugene schools, and who now is the assistant principal of one of the large schools of Pasadena. L. G. HULIN, Los Angeles, Cal., March 27, 1909.

Up Before the Bar

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For chills, constipation, biliousness or sick headache they work wonders. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

The trial of John Barker, of Cottage Grove, charged with violating the local option law, was begun in the Eugene justice court this afternoon before Judge Bryson. A large number of witnesses were examined and the trial was in progress at a late hour. J. S. Medley is attorney for Barker and Deputy District Attorney Skipworth for the state.

Swept Over Niagara

(Portland Daily Journal.)

The "peculiar" paper did not suggest that the banks of Eugene should invest the deposits of other people in a railroad from that city to Siuslaw. But if the owners of that $3,000,000, more or less, on deposit in Eugene banks, choose to withdraw a portion of it to pay for a railroad stock subscribed by the "peculiar" paper, no reason why the Harriman editor up in the tower should object—that is, no other reason except that he is a Harriman editor.
