ANOTHER EXCURSION FROM THE EAST TO CRESWELL NICK GENT'S FARM HOUSE ON SPENCER CREEK BURNS

This time Did Not Stop in Eugene—Several Pieces of Property Sold

C. N. Fredericks, the wide-awake real estate dealer of Creswell, who is in the city this afternoon, state that the A. C. Bohnerstedt Company, which owns several thousand acres of land near Creswell which is being set to fruit trees by the company, sold several good tracts of land this week to a party of excursionists which arrived there Monday from the East. This time the special car containing the land buyers did not stop in Eugene, as did the first excursion conducted by this company, but went through to Creswell. Over $65,000 worth of property was sold to members of the first excursion by the company, and Mr. Fredericks states that he thinks as much was sold to members of the last one.

Misses Edna, Venetia and Velma White and brother, Lawrence, started yesterday for Seattle to visit relatives and to take in the exposition.
