HOT FIGHTING PROGRESSES IN SHAH'S CAPITAL

Royalist Troops Are Shelling the Position of Nationalist Forces

The Cossacks opened a heavy artillery fire on the Nationalists, who were occupying a garden close to the house of Colonel Liakhoff, military commander of Teheran, where they were shelled by the Cossacks. CHINESE GOVERNMENT ASSISTS IN SHIELDING LEON LING FROM CAPTURE

Denver, July 14.—It is stated here by the Chinese consul that the Chinese government, following the report of the Chinese consul at New York upon the Sigel case, has set the seal of its official approval upon the protection of Leon Ling by the Chinese Masons, and that he will never be found with the assistance of any of his countrymen.

Denver, July 14.—A Chinese newspaper having the unofficial sanction of the Chinese government and containing the New York consul's report, has reached Denver. The report, after citing the facts in the case, stated that it had been discovered that Esaje Sigel came to Leon Ling's room and in a moment of desperation took her own life by poison. Ling's report states that he was absent at the time and found the body of the girl upon the bed when he returned. Frightened, he called Chung Sn from an adjoining room and showed him the body and asked him what he should do. Chung, the report says, advised him that should he tell the truth to the police regarding the finding of the body he would not be believed, and would probably be lynched. Frightened by this view of the case Ling made desperate efforts to dispose of the body and conceal his own whereabouts. The report is evidently regarded by the Chinese authorities as revealing the true facts in the case and the Chinese Masons are given permission and encouragement to conceal Ling from capture.

BOAT THIEVES ACTIVE ON THE MILLRACE

Reports of stolen boats at canoes on the millrace are quite common. The offense is often committed by parties who would resent being called a thief. This is quite so with those who "borrow" a boat or paddle or even a cushion and intend to put it back. One owner had his canoe stolen almost a year ago. It was taken off the race and stored away by the thief, who repainted it, thinking by this time that it would not be recognized. The owner found it, and last evening went after it. He brought it down the race to Patterson street, and then went after a wheelbarrow in order to carry it to his house, a few blocks away. Returning less than ten minutes later he found it gone and it has not shown up today. This sort of robbery will not be tolerated by the boat owners forever, and several arrests are likely to be made to serve as examples.

Later it was said that none were seriously injured, but during the afternoon several thousand persons gathered about the plant and the police were unable to disperse them. Officials of the company have asked for 200 special deputies and the sheriff is making the necessary arrangements. This afternoon the strike at the pressed steel car company's plant was general, about five thousand being out. Further trouble is feared.

IMPEACH ELLA GINGLES' STORY

WILLIAM SULZER. William Sulzer, who represents one of the east side districts of Manhattan, New York city in congress, is frequently named as the possible Democratic candidate for mayor of the city in the coming election.

will probably reach the jury by Friday evening.

Benjamin Bronson, carpenter at the Wellington hotel, who was the first to find Miss Gingles in the bathroom, testified that, in his opinion, he could have tied himself as the girl was tied. "Were her hands tied so she could move them?" Bronson was asked. "Yes."

Dr. W. O. Krohn, testifying for the prosecution, said he was a specialist in nervous and mental diseases. He testified that he examined the girl. "How did she act when you touched her?" he was asked.

"Why, when she was looking she would scream with pain. When her attention was distracted she did not show any signs of pain."

HARRIMAN IS ILL; STOCKS TAKE TUMBLE

New York, July 13.—Harriman was ill today according to Wall street report, and Wall street thereupon proceeded to beat down the price of stocks. The report that the financier was in poorer health caused considerable selling of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, and this influenced a bearish trend in the rest of the market. Generally speaking Harriman cost the stock market today about a point all the way through the list. In a few leaders the loss was even greater, but the average was just that amount.

Southern Pacific lost 1 1-4 points, even though a feeble attempt was made to bring the stampede to a close. Union Pacific was 7-8 off.
