

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP EXAMS IN OCTOBER

Each Candidate Must Pay a Fee of $5 to Defray Expenses

The next qualifying examination for Rhodes scholarships for Oregon will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, October 19 and 20, 1939. The place for holding the examinations has not yet been definitely determined...

SOUTHERN PACIFIC BUYS LAND FOR LINE ALONG COAST

Marshfield, Or., July 13.—The Southern Pacific is closing all options taken for the right of way between Coos Bay and Eureka three years ago and is paying cash for the land.

RAILROAD TIES ARE WANTED AT PANAMA

Portland, July 12.—Oregon sawmill men have a chance to bid on furnishing the government with two cargoes of ties, to be delivered at La Boca, the Pacific end of the Panama canal.

LEBANON BOY MEETS VIOLENT DEATH

Lebanon, July 14.—Joe Boyarovsky, the 8-year-old son of a well-to-do farmer northeast of Lebanon, near Crabtree, was killed yesterday while riding in a hay wagon with his father.

Marriage licenses were issued last evening to the following: Ole Petersen and Miss Ruthie Penrow, both of Eugene; Ernest S. Gill and Miss Lenora J. Hubbard, both of Cottage Grove.

Dr. W. Kuykendall returned home last night from Triangle Lake. He reports leaving his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Al Kuykendall, whose leg was broken in the recent automobile accident, as getting along well and she will remain there some time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wann and daughters, Irma and Gladys, of Berkeley, Cal., are spending a few days in Eugene, the guests of Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Wright. They are enjoying the cordial greetings and entertainments of their many friends.

Geo. W. Taylor, the Eugene welder, who was said to have reached a depth of 439 feet at the new well being driven by him for the city of Halsey, and has not struck a new flow of water. He is today shipping down 150 feet more of pipe to go that much deeper if necessary.

Carson Mathews has just finished a big barge to transport his horses and teams back and forth across the river at his big rock crushing plant on the river bank at the foot of East Eighth street. This plant is operated by a 75-horsepower electric motor, and is kept busy at all times supplying the demand for crushed rock and screened gravel.

Demand for hop contracts was never better in the Pacific northwest than today. Sixteen cents is now said to be freely offered for the best

W. C. T. U. CORRESPONDENCE

Make the May All White

By Leona Mabel Dufford, Evanston, Ill. (Tune—The Wearing of the Green.) O my comrades, have you heard the glorious word that's going round?

There'll soon be no saloon on all Columbia's ground. There's a wave of prohibition rolling up from every strand. And all the states it inundates straightway become "dry."

freedom, because His laws, written in our members as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the gospel of the golden rule, and that each man's habits and life should be an example safe and beneficent for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in His own image, and therefore we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage, in courts of conciliation and arbitration, in justice as opposed to greed of gain, in "peace on earth, good will to men."

We therefore formulate, and for ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common danger and a common hope, to make common cause with us, in working its beautiful and helpful precepts into the practice of everyday life:

I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, (has a beverage) all stimulants, and all means to discourage the use of and traffic in the same.

To confirm and enforce the rationale of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform, so far as possible, by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work, that they and we may wifultly transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally, to employ all our labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

of the new crop but growers are slow to take advantage of offerings. This is true of all sections of Oregon and Washington.
