

THE PINKHAM VEGETABLE COMPOUND CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I suffered from terrible headaches, pain in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health and made me feel like a new person, and it shall always have my praise."

—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 902 Lincoln Avenue, Camden, N. J.

Geolimer, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."

—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, irregularities, displacements, abdominal tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, flat, bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the County Court of the County of Lane, State of Oregon.

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of James J. Cheshire, an insane person.

It appears by this court from the petition this day presented and filed by Fannie L. Cheshire, the guardian of the person and estate of James J. Cheshire, an insane person, praying for an order of sale of certain real estate belonging to said insane person, and that it is necessary that such real estate should be sold.

It is hereby ordered that the next of kin of said ward and all persons interested in the said estate, appear before this court on Wednesday, September the 22nd, 1909, at 2 o'clock p. m., in the court house in Eugene, County of Lane, State of Oregon, to show cause why an order should be granted for the sale of said real estate, and to show cause why an order should be granted for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of said ward, and to show cause why an order should be granted for the appointment of a guardian of the person of said ward.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published at least once a week for three successive weeks before the said day of hearing, in the Eugene Weekly Guard, a newspaper published and printed in said County of Lane, State of Oregon.

Dated this 24th day of July, 1909.

G. R. CHRISMAN,
Judge of the County Court of the County of Lane, State of Oregon.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Lane.

Beaulieu A. Haggard, Plaintiff, vs. Oregon & California Railroad Company, a corporation, George C. Beebe and Wilkey Rickman, Defendants.

To said Oregon and California Railroad Company, George C. Beebe and Wilkey Rickman.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you within six weeks after and from the date of the service of this summons upon you, if personally served, and if not personally served upon you, then within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein. This suit having been brought for the purpose of declaring by decree of court, the plaintiff sole owner and entitled to all the benefits of the following described land, to-wit: 8 1/2 SE 1/4 Sec. 27, Tp. 18, S. R. 4 W. of the Willamette Meridian, in the State of Oregon, and that no other person or persons have any interest or rights under said contract and agreement.

Should this summons not be served upon you personally, then it will be served upon your publication in the Eugene Weekly Guard for a period of six weeks, commencing on the 23rd day of July, 1909, and the first day of publication by order of L. T. Harris, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Lane, said order being made on the 23rd day of July, 1909.

L. T. GREENMAN,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Lane.

Aslak Brandt, Plaintiff, vs. E. D. Leavitt, Defendant.

To E. D. Leavitt, Defendant:—

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you within six weeks from the first day of the publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint filed in said court and cause to-wit: that the plaintiff be declared to be the owner of the southeast quarter of Section thirty-six, in Township Fifteen South, Range Six West of the Willamette Meridian, in Lane County, Oregon, and that his title be forever established in him, and that you be ordered to have no right, title or interest in the said premises, or any part thereof.

This summons is served by publication thereof once each week for six weeks in the Eugene Weekly Guard, by virtue of an order of the Hon. L. T. Harris, Judge of said court, dated the 27th day of July, 1909, and the order is directed that this summons be published the first time on this 23rd day of July, 1909, and the last time on the 5th day of September, 1909.

PINCHOT IS POPULAR WITH IRRIGATIONISTS

Spokane, Aug. 10.—Gifford Pinchot evidently found out where he stands with the National Irrigation Congress today, when the 1200 delegates in the big armory gave him an ovation lasting fully five minutes, and ending in three cheers. Pinchot went immediately into his subject.

T. J. Allen, who preceded Pinchot, demanded that if the West is to preserve the forests, there must be state laws and men to enforce them.

Pinchot declared that a water-power trust is in formation, and that its attorneys appear before the congress and thus try to break down the last remaining opposition to the ownership of all the power in the country. He said that the power trust would soon control all the other trusts of the country. He paid tribute to Roosevelt's policies, and to some of applause greeted his declaration that the Taft administration would carry out those policies.

JOKE ABOUT DEATH TURNS TO TRAGEDY

'I'm Going to Hell,' Says Bellingham Man As He Enters Well

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 9.—"Good-bye, boys, I am going to hell," remarked William Bauman with a cheerful grin as he started for the bottom of a 150-foot well, dangling on the end of a cable, this morning. A few moments later he was overcome by gas, lost his grip on the cable and fell 30 feet to the bottom of the well, crushing his skull and dying instantly.

The influx of the deadly "black damp" into the well, which was being dug at the plant of the Crescent Lumber Company, near this city, was sudden and unexpected, and Bauman, in making this jocular remark, was quite unconscious that he was predicting his death. His body was recovered by his fellow workmen after several hours' fishing with a grappling iron.

James Wallace, who was working the same shift with Bauman, nearly lost his life in trying to rescue Bauman, but was pulled out before he was entirely overcome by gas.

FARMERS' WIVES BUYING DIAMONDS

American Dealers Cannot Keep Up With the Demand for Gems

New York, Aug. 8.—The prosperity of the Western farmer has depleted the stocks of diamonds in Maiden Lane, and the importing houses there have hurried their buyers across the ocean to purchase new supplies. Dealers say that the lethargy which began in the jewelry trade two years ago has been followed of late by so great an increase in business that the trade was taken by surprise, and that even the largest dealers were finding it difficult to fill orders for the higher grades of perfect stones.

Although $5,000,000 worth of gems were imported into this country last month, a quantity five times greater than for the same month last year, the dealers have been unable to fill orders. They say that the orders from the Middle West and the Northwest are the most urgent, and as those regions are reporting record-breaking crops, the importers are of the opinion that the jewels, or at least many of them, are going to the farmers' wives.

WATER IS DEEP ON SIUSLAW BAR

The Wilhelmia made a trip to the Siuslaw country last week, returning via Gardiner, from where she brought her usual cargo of cement. The water on the bar at Siuslaw is deeper at this season of the year than at any other time. It is 12 to 15 feet there now, and lumber schooners carrying 500,000 feet of lumber have no difficulty crossing in and out—Coos Bay Harbor.

County Surveyor C. M. Collier and party of four helpers left this morning on the stage for Blue River to begin the work with the Linn county surveyor on the Lane-Linn county boundary line at the summit of the mountains. This survey is being made to determine the exact location of the line.

EUGENE VIEWS TO BE SHOWN IN THE EAST

The Commercial Club has received the following slides which it ordered for use by various parties lecturing in the East, including Professor Hugo Koehler, of the University of Oregon, and to the Seattle fair for the illustrated lecture in the Oregon building. Eugene never had a set of slides for advertising purposes, and as the people may be anxious to see them, arrangements have been made with Mr. Walker, of the Aloha theatre, that he will show them gratis at every performance today and tomorrow.

The slides thus far received consist of the following subjects: Fourth of July parade, led by Alton Hamilton and Dr. Whitson; Methodist church; Geary school; Gladys Rowland, the apple girl; apple orchard with Messrs. Searbrough, Schaefer, Duryea and Green; mill race at Patterson street; young cherry orchard in Fairmount; corn field in Springfield; Eugene strawberries; S. H. Harlow in his cherry orchard; W. M. Green and Dr. Searbrough in plum orchard; Skinner's Butte; Central school; packing strawberries; addition to high school; Harlow and son loading cherries; barrelling cherries at the Allen cannery; one of the Fourth of July floats; Patterson school; library; scene in Bohemia; egg plums; corner Elevator and Patterson streets; Royal Anne cherries; turning farm land into city lots, Hill Crest; entrance to Hill Crest; laying out depot park; scene in depot park; white temple; taking legs into Booth-Kelly sawmill; residence of Judge Chrisman; the Patterson house; a sorority house; residence of Frank E. Dunn; the Griggs residence; the Gilstrap bungalow; the Aubrey farm house; boatings on the mill race; magnolia blossoms; Eugene roses; Beatrice Yorán and friend with a box of roses.

The following are being made and will be added: University campus. University buildings, rose garden at depot park in August, river road and Southern Pacific depot. They will be shown at the Aloha theatre only today and tomorrow, as the slides have to be sent to their destination.

POMONA GRANGE MEETS AT LORANE

Attendance From Four Granges—Resolutions on Normal Schools Are Passed

Lane Pomona grange met with Siuslaw grange No. 54 on the fifth Saturday in July. There was a large attendance, considering the busy season of the year. Four of the granges in the county were represented, as follows: Pleasant Hill No. 284, Spencer Creek No. 365, Irving No. 377, and Springfield No. 378. A very pleasant and profitable meeting was held. A class of 20 was instructed in the fifth degree. The ladies of the Siuslaw grange served an excellent dinner, and at the close of the evening session ice cream and cake were served. A vote of thanks was extended to the Siuslaw grange for their hospitality and to the ladies especially, for the splendid way in which the visitors were entertained.

The invitation of Springfield grange No. 378 was accepted as the next regular meeting place, which will be the last Saturday in October.

A Resolution

The following resolution was adopted by Lane Pomona grange at their regular meeting held with Pleasant Hill grange No. 284:

Whereas, We believe that a good normal school education is necessary to provide good and efficient teachers for the common schools; therefore be it

Resolved, by Lane Pomona grange at Pleasant Hill assembled, that we favor the establishment of one normal school in the State of Oregon.

At 280 High street, Eugene, at 12:30 a. m. Aug. 9, 1909, John Hollister Warfield, aged 66 years. The funeral will be held at the above address Tuesday at 9 a. m., with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

At 392 Lawrence street, Eugene, Oregon, August 7, 1909, Bowen C. Ward, aged 57 years. Funeral Tuesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at Gordon's undertaking parlors.

At Salem, Wednesday, Aug. 4, 1909, P. H. Warner, aged 89 years. The remains were brought to Eugene today for interment. The funeral procession proceeded directly from the station to the Masonic cemetery. Mr. Warner was the father of M. O. Warner and the late Mrs. W. E. Brown of Eugene.

At the home of his parents of cholera infantum, Clifton Arthur, only son of Clifton L. Inman, of Waltherville, Or., aged two years and four months. "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

At Gridley, Cal., August 9, 1909, Mrs. W. H. Miller, formerly of Eugene. The remains will arrive here tomorrow morning, accompanied by her son, Edwin C. Miller. The funeral will be held at Gordon's undertaking parlors at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

PRESIDENT TAFT OUTLINES PROPOSED TRIP TO COAST DURING NEXT SEPTEMBER

Washington, Aug. 6.—The president has made public a tentative outline of his trip this fall through the West and South, which will embrace a journey approximating 13,000 miles. It will be as diverse as could be imagined, and no "seeing all America" tour could be devised to embrace as many points of interest in so brief a space of time as President Taft will give his jaunt.

The tour will start from Boston September 15, the fifty-second birthday of the president, the first stop being at Chicago September 16, thence West, stopping at various cities and arriving in Salt Lake on the afternoon of September 24, leaving two days later for Pocatello, Idaho and Butte, Mont., where the party will arrive Monday morning. After spending half a day in Butte there will be a brief excursion to Helena. Spokane will be reached early Thursday morning, and an entire day will be spent in that city. The forenoon of the 29th will be spent at North Yakima, and the party will arrive in Seattle at 8:15 that evening. They will spend two days at the exposition, leaving Seattle late in the evening of the second day, and arriving at Portland October 2d at 7 a. m. Two days will be spent in Portland, the party leaving there Sunday at 6 p. m. for a trip over the famous Shasta route and Siskiyou mountains. They will stop in Sacramento, reaching Oakland, Cal., early in the morning of October 5.

The party will spend four or five hours about Oakland before taking the ferry to San Francisco, where they will spend the afternoon and evening, and leave on the morning of the 6th for Yosemite valley, where they will spend three days.

The trip then carries the presidential party south to Los Angeles, and on to El Paso, where they are to arrive October 16 to meet President Diaz on the International bridge.

The party will return to Washington on November 10.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS AT SPOKANE TO MAKE CHANGES

Spokane, Aug. 9.—That the time between conventions of the National irrigation congress are practically wasted because of the lack of a business-like plan of procedure, is the declaration of R. Insinger, chairman of the board of control, in his opening address at the first session of the congress today. Insinger spoke of the vast amount of business which annually comes before the officers of the organization and which is divided, without orderly procedure, between the executive heads and board of control.

He asserted that while the congress every year has placed itself more and more in a position for doing good, still its possibilities are crippled badly because there are no practical methods used in the standing organization. This statement from Insinger is the forerunner of a change in the constitution which it is believed will be proposed during the congress, and which will give the congress the latitude desired. One of the principal speakers this morning was Governor Hay, of Washington, who welcomed the delegates in behalf of the state.

The Spokane chorus of 250 voices sang the irrigation ode, which is an annual ceremony.

OATS OVER HUNDRED BUSHELS PER ACRE

Cottage Grove, Aug. 6.—Harvesting has begun in this vicinity, and notwithstanding the log and unusually dry weather, the farmers report the yield very good. On the Stewart & Porter Brothers' farm, located on Row river, four miles east of here, the oats will go over 80 bushels to the acre, and at Dorena a field of oats will go over 100 bushels to the acre, many of the heads being from eight to sixteen inches in length. The hay crop is in excess of the farmers' expectations.

LANE-LINN COUNTY SURVEY POSTPONED

Albany, Or., Aug. 6.—The crew to survey the Lane-Linn county boundary line did not leave for the scene of operations today as was expected. County Surveyor A. L. Geddes received a message this morning from County Surveyor C. M. Collier, of Lane county, stating that he would be unable to leave Eugene until next Monday, so the Linn crew will remain here until that date.

An awning and tent factory is talked of by a number of local people.

GALVESTON BEACH AND SEA WALL THAT AVED CITY.

The great sea wall at Galveston paid for itself in the saving of life and property in the hurricane that swept over the gulf recently. But for the presence of the wall the catastrophe of nine years ago might have been repeated. Piers and shipping suffered heavily and unprotected parts of the island were flooded, but there was little damage within the city proper.

ALBANY HAS BAD $65,000 CONFLAGRATION

The First National Bank building was gutted early this morning in one of the worst fires in the history of the city, entailing a loss of about $65,000, says yesterday's Albany Democrat.

Just after 1 o'clock an employe at Spire's stables discovered fire issuing from the tailor shop in the rear of the L. E. Blain Clothing Co., and gave the alarm, with a quick response from our volunteer firemen, who soon had streams on from the hydrants. The engines were slow but did good work when started. The flames spread fiercely, and it was impossible to confine them to the lower part. They worked their way through into the second floor and into the garret under the roof, where it was impossible to reach them, and they soon covered the upper part of the building, completely gutting it, but leaving the floor of the second story before finally getting under control with eight or nine streams from the rear, side and front. Not until after six o'clock was the last spark out. By this time the building was completely drenched with water and everything in it soaked.

The L. E. Blain Clothing Co., the heaviest loser, carrying a stock of $24,000 completely ruined, except a few things gotten out from the front, with an insurance of $20,000. The wall of the building is unimpaired, but the damage must be close to $15,000, with an insurance of $12,000.

All the valuables of the First National Bank were in the vault, including all the papers. The vault was hardly heated, so well were the flames kept from that part of the building.

The second story, occupied by law offices, is a complete ruin. Hewitt & Sox got most of their things out, and $500 will cover their loss, and the same in the case of the office of P. R. Kelly, with a loss of about $200. L. E. Swan's office, being in the rear, suffered severely, a new typewriter going. In the library were some of the books of Judge Wolverton's library. The loss is about $1,000. G. W. Wright got out part of his Oregon reports. His loss is about $1,000. J. C. Christy had a large library costing $4,000, and he got out only a dictionary and a code. He was the only one in the second story insured, carrying $1,000, recently taken out. Judge Duncan's Oregon reports were in Mr. Christy's office and were burned. W. S. Riley saved nothing, and losses about $500 worth of property. W. D. Mixture had an office with L. L. Swan and lost a few things.

EDITOR HENDRICKS APPOINTED SUPERVISOR OF FEDERAL CENSUS

Washington, Aug. 9.—The announcement has been made that Representative Willis C. Hawley has formally recommended the appointment of Robert J. Hendricks, of Salem, manager of the Statesman Publishing Company, as census supervisor of the First Congressional district of Oregon. This district comprises the counties of Washington, Tillamook, Yamhill, Clackamas, Lincoln, Polk, Benton, Marion, Linn, Lane, Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake, and the selection of the Marion county man is calculated to give general satisfaction, as Salem is the largest city within the district, and so situated as to make the best possible point from which the supervision of the thirteenth decennial census could be directed.

His appointment will not only be received with favor by the Salem board of trade and other Marion county men who have interested themselves in securing the position for a resident of Marion county, but will receive the commendation of the public press of the state, as the selection of Mr. Hendricks, a leading publisher, is a recognition to which it is justly entitled.

SIUSLAW PORT BONDS TAKEN LOCALLY AT PAR

The port of Siuslaw is having no difficulty in disposing of its bonds. With the organization of that port a bonding act for $100,000 also carried, and although the test case now pending before the supreme court had not been decided, the commissioners placed one-half the bonds locally and with Eugene capitalists. The actual transfer of the bonds for cash will not be consummated until the supreme court decides the Coos Bay test case of the law under which both the Siuslaw and Coos Bay ports are organized.

J. C. Gray, who recently returned from a trip to the Siuslaw, says there is renewed vigor there since the formation of the port and the possibilities of a railroad from Eugene.—North Bend Harbor.

I noticed that the Corvallis Gazette gave the Oregon exhibit a black eye. This is the first knock we have heard and had it come from any other source we would have considered it to be serious, but coming from the source it did we give it small consideration. A county that has nothing to exhibit should not be the first to kick. If Benton county would put something on exhibition and do less kicking she would get better results.

We have hundreds of Oregon people into the Oregon building every day, and tell us it is the best exhibition on the grounds, and in my opinion the people are better judges of the exhibit than the editor of the Corvallis Gazette.

Household goods arrived in Eugene this morning for Charles A. Mann from Denver.

YOUNG MAN AND WOMAN HAVE 16 CHILDREN

A month ago The Guard reported the sixteenth child born to John B. Brown and wife, who live near Eugene. The Oregonian correspondent sends that paper the following story of the family:

Among the products of Lane county which have not been exploited by the press, is the family of John Benjamin Brown and wife, who live on Patterson's island, a short distance from Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have sixteen children, all of whom with their parents attended the Independence Day celebration in Eugene this year. That no one may doubt the truthfulness of this statement a photograph is herewith submitted which was taken the other day during the family reunion.

John Benjamin Brown, the father, is 47 years old, and Margaret A. Brown, the mother, is 42. The children and their ages are as follows: John M., 25; Albert H., 23; Clara A., 22; Jacob A., 20; Paul H., 18; Elmer, 16; Robert E., 14; Mabel L. and Margaret E., (twins), 12; William, 10; Orelia, 8; Marion, 7; Cecil, 6; Wallace, 4; Mildred, 1; Eugene, 2 months. The middle names are not given in full because the father did not recall them at the time of the interview.

But other details he did recall, as to their weights, heights, birthdays and different experiences. The family weighs on an average of a ton, or to be accurate, 2,045 pounds was the weight at the time the photograph was taken. This will vary, increasing in winter and decreasing in summer time, when all are at hard labor. The combined heights at the present time is 84 feet and 2 inches, and the family ages will total 294 years and three months.

Mr. Brown states that in 27 years of married life his doctor bills have not exceeded a total of $50; that he attributes to the fact that they live the simple life, raising most of the things they eat. He said that during one year of the hard times one side of bacon was all the meat that the family used. The children are all at work in the Willamette valley, three of them being employed away from home at the time this picture was taken.

CONDITION OF LANE COUNTY FRUIT CROP

A review of the Lane county fruit situation is given by the Eugene correspondent of the Oregonian as follows:

While the general outlook for a peach, pear and apple crop in Lane county is not as good as last year, as far as quantity is concerned, yet the quality is first-class.

The peach crop will not differ in output much from last year, the estimated output being 2,000 boxes. The quality of the peaches will be first-class.

There will be about 50 tons of pears, as compared with 100 tons last year, but the quality will be No. 1. Prospects have never been better for quality in years.

The apple crop will be seven or eight carloads, as compared with 14 carloads shipped out last year. The quality of the apples promises to be good.

What is lacking in quantity will be made up in quality, with a good deal of the fruit in this section. This will be especially true of pears, which will be the cleanest crop in years.

TO PLAY MARBLES FOR KEEPS GAMBLING

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 9.—Boys who indulge the traditional pastime of playing marbles "for keeps" must hereafter eliminate it from their amusements or be subject to arrest by truant officers.

Prosecuting Attorney John H. Perry yesterday looked up the law for Seattle on the subject and found that not only is there a provision against the practice, but those who violate it may be imprisoned for a term not to exceed five years.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. Its not disposition, its the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, bottle things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Hairine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50 cents per bottle. Dillon Drug Co.

E. E. Hunt, wife and two children, Emmet, Idaho, arrived in Eugene last night to look over the city with a view to buying property and sending their children to school here. Mr. Hunt is proprietor of a big department store at Emmet, employing 12 people, and covering a space 50x150 feet. He is much pleased with this city, and said this morning that his city has a splendid reputation in his home town for its schools.

Served as coffee, the new coffee known in Eugene everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee will trick every coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it, either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., as have been so cleverly blended together to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute" too. Sold by all grocers.
