CONSTRUCTION TOWARD SALEM IN SIXTY DAYS

That the transfer of the Welch railroad, electric light and power interests to the Northwest Corporation means greater things for Salem is strongly evidenced by the general activity going on under the direction of the new company, says the Salem Statesman.

Mr. Welch was elected manager of the new concern and he is now actively engaged in closing up the matters of the old company, bringing everything to a common centre from which to expand the new company's lines and plants. The Northwest Corporation, it will be remembered, floated a bond issue of some $5,000,000 recently to build the Portland, Eugene and Eastern electric railway. This company holds a franchise in Salem covering about eight miles of streets. Work has been delayed by legal matters involved in the mammoth transfer to the Northwest Corporation. The local part of the construction work has been held up for some time for various good reasons, but inside of 60 days the building of the entire line from Salem to Eugene, a distance of some seventy-five miles, will be under way. This was announced yesterday through Frank W. Waters, local representative of the Welch interests. The company preferred to hold off local work until the entire construction was arranged for, but the paving of Ferry street necessitates immediate action on the part of the city and company. The city has urged the company to lay its track at once and the company is doing everything possible to comply with the demands of the city. The excavation of the street has been made, specially selected ties have been hauled and are ready to be laid. The rails, which have been ordered for several weeks, are not yet here. Since the old carbarn track of the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company, located on part of Ferry street, has not been removed there is no great rush about the arrival of the rails, as nothing toward building the new track can be done until the local car company gets its track and poles off the right of way. The street committee will very likely see to it that nothing is allowed to interfere with the progress of the building of the new line.

The paving company's manager has been assured that the company will get its track down just as soon as the old track and poles of the city company are removed. When once the work has been commenced the line will be rushed through to completion. It is estimated that the new road will cost something over $1,000,000 to build, exclusive of sidetracks, switches and spurs. The main line will be constructed of the very best material, with heavy rails and the lowest possible grade.

* * * * * * *

The close conection exisiting between the lines built by Mr. Welch and the Hill properties leads one to surmise that there is but one controlling hand behind both Welch and Hill. Else why does Mr. Welch always build in Hill territory, or at some point where Hill can reach him through connections with his standard lines? Where the Springfield end of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern line will terminate is also a mystery. It is said that the Blue River country is the territory sought, but wise heads conceive of an extension further than this mining region. The Blue River route leads to Central Oregon.

That the Portland, Eugene and Eastern railroad is a section of the great Hill railroad system seems to be a foregone conclusion. Everything points to this fact. The Chehalis connection with the Northern Pacific, reaching through Portland, up to west side to Salem, and on to Eugene and to Central Oregon, is not only reasonable, but would give Hill what he has long contemplated—entrance into the Willamette valley.

The construction work of the local section of the great electric system reaching over 250 miles in length will be watched with interest, and more so, since the Empire Builder seems to be at the back of the entire enterprise.

JAMES WILSON WILL LEAVE THE CABINET

Veteran Secretary of Agriculture Has Been in the President's Family Since 1897

Washington, Sept. 29—James Wilson, who has been secretary of agriculture since March 4, 1897, a longer period of service than any Cobinet officer in history, is expected to step out about January 1 next. Whom the President will name in his place is not known, even if Mr. Taft has made a selection.

JAMES WILSON.

Reports have been frequent hitherto that Mr. Wilson was about to go. He and Secretary of the Navy Meyer were the only holdovers from the Roosevelt administration. Mr. Wilson's greatest claim to retention was the popularity of his department with the farmers. The bare suggestion of retirement was sufficient to bring a protest from the West, but it is now understood that his portfolio will pass to other hands.

GOVERNOR LOSES PALATIAL HOME BY FIRE TODAY

Boston, Oct. 5.—The Boston residence of Governor Draper in the Back Bay section was destroyed by fire today. A conservative estimate of the loss is $150,000. The building was unoccupied, and it is spposed the fire started from the careless use of matches by workmen in the house yesterday, preparing it for occupancy.

FOREIGN TONNAGE TAX IN EFFECT

Washington, Oct. 5.—Collection of the tonnage tax recently enacted by Congress began today.

The new tariff law provides that a tonnage duty of two cents per ton, not to exceed in the aggregate ten cents per ton in any one year, be imposed at each entry on all vessels from any foreign port or place in North America, the West India Islands, the Bahma Islands, the Bermuda Islands, or the coast of South America, bordering on the Carribbean Sea or Newfoundland, and a duty of six cents per ton, not to exceed thirty cents per ton per annum be imposed at each entry on all vessels from any other foreign port, not, however, to include vessels in distress or not engaged in trade.

Its a Top Notch.

Great deeds compel regards. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs and colds, and la grippe vanish. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchiel tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. George More, Black Jack, N. C., writes: "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by W. A. Kuykendall.

Miss Pansy Maurer left today for New Haven, Conn., to take a course in manual training, to make that her life work. She was attended to the train by a large number of her young friends, who are loth to see her leave.

PRESIDENT TAFT VISITS CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 5.—Irving Stringham, acting president of the University of California during President Wheeler's absence, and who was to have welcomed President Taft at Berkeley on behalf of the University, died this morning at Alta Bates hospital. The cause of his death is not know. He had been ill a month.

Oakland, Oct. 5—The cause of the death of Professor Stringham has been diagnosed as uraemic poisoning.

Berkeley, Calif. Oct. 5.—President Taft arrived on the Oakland shore of San Francisco Bay shortly after 7 o'clock this morning to find a typical fog hanging over the water and the bay shrouded by a cloak of gray mist. From Oakland the president's train was taken to Berkeley, arriving here at 8 o'clock. The president had breakfasted early and was ready to receive the local committee when the train came to a standstill. A brief automobile ride through the city brought the president to the famous Greek theatre of the University of California, where he was greeted by a throng which filled the great ampitheatre.

Professor Eernard Moses, of the university, welcomed the president, and then introduced Mayor Hoggshead, of Berkeley, who made a fifteen minute speech of welcome in behalf of the city.

President Taft replied briefly, referring to the higher criticism and ideals that came from universities, and declaring himself an optimist as to popular government.

The president then proceeded to California field, where he was welcomed by the school children, after which he boarded a train for Oakland.

This evening the president will be the guest of honor at a banquet at the Fraimount Hotel in San Francisco, which will be attended by all the leading men of the city, leaving the city tomorrow for a three-day visit to the Yosemite valley. Secretary of State Knox joined the party today to continue the trip with the president.

Oakland, Oct. 5.—Arriving in this city, after the usual formalities, the president was taken to the shores of Lake Merritt, in the heart of the residence section, where thousands had gathered around a grandstand erected for the occasion. As he was about to begin a short address there was a loud crash to the right and the huge branch of a willow tree, used by men and boys as a point of vantage from which to see and hear the president, had broken. The president looked in the derection of the disturbance, and forming his hands in a mezaphone, shouted: "Is anybody hurt?"

There was no response, and the president turned to the audience and remarked: "The Lord looks after the drunken men, and boys and the United States."

He then made a short address and spoke a word in favor of the consolidation of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. The three cities on the Alameda county side of San Francisco Bay.

In San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—President Taft reached this city shortly after one o'clock. A parade through the principal streets, a review of the school children and the laying of the corner stone of the new building of the Y. M. C. A., and a reception at the Union League Club, occupied nearly all the afternoon.

WILBUR WRIGHT'S FLIGHT TODAY MOST SUCCESSFUL

New York, Oct. 4.—Wilbur Wright today defied the air, water and land in a marvelous flight over the numberless craft in New York harbor and the North river. The aviator flew over ferry boats, yachts, steamers and other craft in the harbor, and flying high went up the North river over the fleet of battleships and on past Grant's tomb, encircling the British cruiser Argyll, and returning at a faster speed, with the wind, he came back over the water and landed at his starting point.

The flight occupied thirty-three minutes and thirty-three seconds, making one of the most perilous trips ever attempted. The estimated distance was more than twenty miles.

PEARY ARCTIC CLUB PASSES UPON PROOFS FILED BY PEARY

New York, Oct. 4.—Officers of the Peary Arctic Club held a meeting today to formally pass upon the proofs presented by Peary to show Cook did not reach the pole. A statement will be made public in a few days.

The following resolutions were adopted by the officers of the club:

"That the Peary Arctic Club cordially welcomes home Commander Robert E. Peary, C. E. U. S. N., and congratulates him upon the attainment in April 6, 1909, of the North Pole, crowning years of adruous Arctic efforts, given to ideals and loyalty to his country and invites him to honor it with his company at dinner at a date convenient to him.

"That the club tenders to the officers, scientific staff and men of the expedition its thanks and appreciation for this zealous performance of duty, which with superior discipline and excellent 'team work' resulted in complete success."

The crew of Roosevelt was given transportation home to Newfoundland.

Cook at Baltimore.

Baltimore, Oct. 4.—Dr. Cook reached this city today from Washington for a lecture tonight. At an informal reception in the city hall, Dr. Cook was introduced by Mayor Mahool, to about one thousand persons.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE AND CITY HALL ILLUMINATED.

The illuminations in Greater New York for the Hudson-Fulton celebration cost far into the millions of dollars. All of the public buildings both in Manhattan and Brooklyn were festooned with electric light bulbs, and the currents were frequently turned on in advance of the celebration to test the wiring. These photographs of the Brooklyn city hall and Brooklyn bridge were taken on one of these occasions.

HAILS PEARY AS DISCOVERER OF NORTH POLE

New York, Oct. 5.—The following message from President J. G. Schurman, of Cornell University, to Commander Peary was received in this city from Ithaca, N. Y., today:

"Cordial congratulations on your discovery of the North Pole, a superb triumph of organization, skill and endurance. Regret that Marvin is not here to share your triumps."

Copenhagen First

Copenhagen, Oct. 5.—Professor Torp, rector of the university here, received the following cablegram from Dr. Cook today:

"The press reports are incorrect. My records will go to you first."

Dr. Cook, in a statement today, said a wrong impression had been gathered from his remarks in Washington. He will submit the proofs to Copenhagen, but will ask the university to withhold its announcement of the result of the examination until the records shall have been examined simultaneously by all geographical societies of the world.

COOK WELCOMED TO WASHINGTON

Washington, Oct. 4.—"This is the home of the American flag which you carried to the north pole," was the expression of recognition given Cook by H. B. W. McFarland, president of the district board of commissioners, in officially welcoming the explorer at the municipal building today in the presence of a crowd that taxed its capacity.

President Taft, Admiral Dewey, General Greely, Admiral Schley and other distinguished residents of Washington have individually expressed their appreciation of your achievement," said the commissioner. "It is fitting that the entire national capital, through its executive government, should give you a hearty welcome and cordial congratulations." Dr. Cook was given an ovation when he arrived at the municipal building and when he arose to respond to the commissioners' tribute he was greeted with prolonged cheering.

"I fail to find words to suit my appreciation of your kindness," Cook said, "I am a man of few words and I can only say I thank you." The explorer then stood up in the center of the room and was given hearty hand clasps by his friends who passed in line.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

O. A. C. ATTENDANCE HAS NOT INCREASED

Eight hundred and ninety were registered at O. A. C. Saturday evening. This is somewhat in advance of the registration on the same date last year. However, the registration next Saturday will have to pass 1000 in order to be in excess of that of the corresponding week last year. Quite a number of students came in today, and none doubt that next Saturday will show up satisfactorily.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.
