The C-B a la Spirite THE ADVANCED IDEA IN CORSETS

Half of women's "nerves" are corset ills--caused directly by the discomfort and annoyance of an ill-fitting corset. In the C-B a la Spirite, science and common sense have evolved a corset for stout women that add sshapely lines to the wearer, and lends itself to the support of the body.

The C-B a la Spirite Corset is built and feels like any other type of corset. It is free of straps, harness-like arrangements and clumsily fitting contrivances. C-B a la Syirite Corsets are durable without being stiff--and valuable without being expensive

The C-B a la Spirite accomplishes its remarkable reduction of the figure from one to five inches--entirely by its scientific principle of goring.
