AMENDED FRANCHISE GRANTED ASSET CO. IN SPRINGFIELD

Gives Railway People Right to Build on Main Street and Rent to Others

The Springfield city council held a busy meeting Monday evening which was followed by a special meeting yesterday afternoon and a called meeting for tonight in order to pass an ordinance granting the Lane County Asset company a new franchise. The new charter differs only in that the bond to be forfeited in case of no railroad was reduced from $5000 to $1000, and the company was given Main street for "common usage".

prevent the molesting of the city books was passed. The ordinance carries the maximum penalty running from five to 100 days imprisonment or fine varying from $5.00 to $200.00 of both. The formal ordinance necessary to make the purchase of the safe for the city records was also passed.

The more than of the street grades was again brought up and gone over thoroughly with representative property owners present. The system adopted last year was explained to the apparent satisfaction of all and the city engineer gave out the correct grades to those who applied to prevent as much filling.

CLEAN-UP DAY PLANNED BY LADIES

The ladies' auxiliary to the Commercial club are planning a big day for clean up some time within the next few weeks and with other organizations of the city hope even has been planned by the ladies to make Springfield beautiful. The for some time and it was their intention to bring it before the Commercial club for their help at last week's session that did not meet, but the matter will be again brought up at the next meeting.

Already this work has been carried out by the children of the lower grades at the school house by setting out gardens and beautifying the yard which until now has always been more or less barren. The school children will be asked to cooperate on clean-up day and a holiday may be secured for them.

PETITION FOR KESTLY'S RESIGNATION

A surprise was sprung at the council meeting Monday when a petition signed by some 150 names, was presented that the council require Councilman Kestly's resignation on the ground that he is no longer a citizen of Springfield, because he is now living in Eugene. The matter was not dealt with, however, as the city attorney who was present stated that there was no legal grounds for complaint on this cause and the only remedy for which a city officer can be recalled is misconduct or neglect of duty. The affair was a good deal of a surprise to the rest of the council and they took occasion to resent the affair and very complimentary remarks for Mr. Kestly went down in the city records. It is not thought that this petition is representative of the general opinion throughout the city.

DEVLIN GRILLED BY MOORE'S LAWYERS

Former Receiver of Oregon Trust Under Gross Examination Portland, March 23.—For six or seven hours yesterday Thomas C. Devlin, receiver of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, was the object of an attack by Attorney Fulton, in the defense of Walter H. Moore, accused president of the bank, now on trial. Mr. Devlin proved himself an adroit and resourceful antagonist in the play of wits.

PINCHOT SAILS TO MEET TEDDY

Washington, March 22.—Washington woke up today to the fact that Gifford Pinchot, whom President Taft recently removed from the position of chief forester of the United States, was on the ocean already four days out on the steamer President Grant, on his way to meet ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, probably at Naples. Mr. Pinchot is due at Hamburg next Monday; Colonel Roosevelt is to arrive at Naples on the following Saturday. The widely current rumor here is that Mr. Pinchot goes to meet the returned traveler in response to a summons received by cable Friday. Nobody in a position to know would either confirm or deny this part of the story. There is no disposition to deny that Mr. Pinchot's principal errand abroad is to meet Mr. Roosevelt.

In her complaint filed by Attorney Jesse G. SELF RELIANCE

The story is told of Darius that when a foreign visitor expressed surprise at the defenseless condition of his capital city, the great king replied: "I have the strongest kind of a wall. Look at my army of brave men; every one of them is a brick." In looking for the walls of our country we are too apt to notice forts and guns and battleships and coal and cotton and grain and gold, unmindful that the only safe defense is in the character of our people. By men and women and children who are solid and square and true. In looking for the sources of strength in our smaller groups of church and school and city we give too much prominence to number of members, amount of money and land and show of buildings, forgetting that the only lasting strength of any social group is in the moral worth of the separate persons that compose it; in conviction, loyalty, and devotion which can be measured only in deeds.

While we reckon our own worth in money or position or outward success, we are as defenseless against circumstances as a typical world fair building is against artillery. It is a philosophical truth that a body passing from one place to another must pass through and hold in succession all the places and positions between. It is a natural truth that a plant or a child can become large and mature and strong only growing through all the stages between these small beginnings and the large result.

It is natural for young people to seek short line routes to wealth, wisdom, and power; and they may indeed get the money or reputation or position that stands for these things without going over the long and hard route of work and growth. However, when this is done, they have yet to learn that there is no true ownership in things not earned. Every brick in the building of a strong character and noble life must be paid for at the full market price. All quicker methods depend on borrowed capital secured by a mortgage and self-respect. All other results are insecure.

While self-dependent power can time defy As rocks resist the billows and the sky" ARTHUR HAYES-SARGENT.

The attorneys for F. T. Plank in the case against him by the state for alleged gambling, have found a statute which provides that in case a man charged with gambling has gone before the grand jury, he cannot be indicted, which was overlooked by the prosecutor, and he was indicted anyway. An agreement has been reached by the attorneys on both sides that the case be continued and it will probably be dismissed.

Chief of office Farrington last evening received word from the state insane asylum authorities that Alexander H. Goldstone, the young man who was taken off the train here several months ago in an insane condition and committed to the asylum, had died at that institution. Goldstone left quite a sum of money and a valuable watch with the chief of police. If no relatives of the deceased can be found the property will go to the state.

NEWS OF LOWER SIUSLAW COUNTRY

Preliminary Work of Building the Jetty Will Soon Begin

F. T. Condon of North Fork went to Eugene a few days ago on a business trip. We are informed that he has recently given an option on his ranch and has received the first payment. The purchaser is a stranger here, coming from some place in the Columbia River below Portland.

Ethan Collier, deputy surveyor and A. C. Jennings and Mr. Donaldson, road viewers, came in Friday from the cape having finished surveying a route for a road from upper North Fork over the ridge to Big Creek and thence out to the ocean beach. In conversation one of the party stated that they found a good place for a road but that it would take considerable work to build it.

C. H. Young the forest ranger, left Saturday by way of Mapleton and Indian Creek, enroute to Saddle Mountain in the coast country north of Florence. A crew of fifteen or 20 men employed by the government were to commence planting seeds last Monday to reforest some of the hills that were burned over last fall, and Mr. Young had instructions to be on hand to superintend the work. He expected to be gone about two weeks.

The steamer Lillian which has been out of commission for two or three years past, is being repaired and will be thoroughly overhauled, a new boiler added, and the machinery put in first class condition for work. The boat is to be used for towing the rock for the jetty, from the quarry to the mouth of the river.

We learn from Kyle & Sons that the steamer Roberts has been engaged by Contractor Wakefield to tow up from Coquille the rock scows to be used in jetty work and to bring in his freight from outside points. There are five scows to be brought up and the steamer will probably go after the first one the latter part of this week. Lumber for the receiving wharf at the mouth of the river, a pile driver and a hoisting engine will be brought up on the scow, and operations will be commenced at once.

Steps are being taken to organize a fruit and produce association in Florence, the object being for the ranchers to co-operate with each other in shipping their farm products to market. At a meeting the name of the Siuslaw Fruit & Produce Association was chosen for the new organization.—Florence West.

DEMOCRAT ELECTED IN MASSACHUSETTS

Remarkable Political Revolution in the Old Bay State

Brockton, Mass., March 22.—The political weathercock turned Democratward in Massachusetts today, when the Old Colony section, one of the Republican strongholds of the state, placed F. Foss, of Boston, one of the country's leading exponents of reciprocity with Canada, in the congressional seat of the late William C. Lovering. Mr. Foss accomplished what is regarded as almost a political miracle. He turned a Republican plurality of 14,350 into a Democratic plurality of 5840.

The vote today was: Eugene N. Foss, of Boston, Dem., 14,980; William R. Buchanan, of Brooklyn, Republican, 9340.

Republican Defeat Great. It was the most overwhelming defeat the Republicans have met in Massachusetts since Governor Bates was overthrown by William L. Douglas six years ago. The result is considered as of more than state-wide importance, for Mr. Foss stamped the Fourteenth district on National questions and the people backed him up with a whoop.

Spring, most capricious, did spring in so suddenly that the so-called spring poet did not launch out as usual with his poetry or even in prose give vent to his long suppressed emotions, and dwell at length upon the beautiful phase of nature so long hidden away, but now bursting forth in all the splendor justly here. It may not be too late, however, and we shall then the more be brought to realize that spring, beautiful spring, is here to stay.

HOG PRICE RECORD

BROKEN AT PORTLAND

Eleven Dollars and a Half a Hundred Was Paid Yesterday

Portland, Or., March 22.—Live-stock prices in the local market are moving up with regularity. Notwithstanding the decline in hogs in all the eastern markets yesterday, buyers bid up the price of hogs a quarter at the Portland Union Stockyards. A bunch of 60 extra fine corn-fed hogs from Lewiston were sold at $11.50 a hundred, the highest price yet realized for pork material in any American market, and 75 cents higher than yesterday's Eastern price.

Cattle prices were also lifted, prime steers advancing 15 cents a hundred to $6.75. Cattle in the East, however, are much higher than here, steers selling in the Chicago, Omaha and Kansas City markets at $8.50 and higher.

Small Spring lambs of an average weight of 40 pounds brought $12 a hundred at the Portland yards, but 75-pound lambs moved at $8, which is 22 a hundred less than the current price in the Eastern markets.
