WEINHARDS BUY PROPERTY FOR BIG ICE PLANT

The Weinhard estate, owner of the Weinhard brewery in Portland, the largest in the Northwest, also owner of the Eugene ice factory on West Ninth street, today purchased the old Ingham vinegar factory property adjacent to the Southern Pacific grounds and Pearl street from J. R. Taylor and W. J. Williams, and will at once install a large and up-to-date ice manufacturing plant in the building. Paul Wessinger, manager of the Portland brewery and other properties of the estate, arrived in Eugene this morning for the purpose of closing up the deal, and a payment was made by him to Messrs. Taylor and Williams today. The price agreed upon for the property is $6500. The lot has a frontage of 160 feet on the railroad tracks, and is approximately 100 feet deep, although it is irregularly shaped, with one end from less than 100 feet to over 100 feet at the other.

25-Ton Plant

Mr. Wessinger informed The Guard today that he has an ice plant of 25 tons per day capacity which he will at once have brought to Eugene and installed in the building as soon as it is remodeled for that purpose. The old plant on Ninth street, which has a capacity of less than five tons a day, will continue in operation until the new one is ready, and then it will be abandoned.

The reason for the purchase of the old plant is located in its proximity to the new and larger factory in its close proximity to the business centre of the city. The property is considered too valuable for business purposes to place upon it a factory. It is practically in the centre of the downtown district and Mr. Wessinger believes that it will not be many years before West Ninth street will have been built up solidly with business blocks from Willamette street west several blocks.

A Storage Plant

In connection with the new ice manufacturing plant, the Weinhard estate will install a complete cold storage plant of latest pattern, one that will meet the demands of the city in every respect. This is Mr. Wessinger's first visit to Eugene in six years. He is much surprised at the city's growth in that time and with the substantial improvements made on all sides, especially with the hard surface street pavement and miles of cement sidewalk. He believes there is a bright future for the city.

JUSTICE BREWER'S REMAINS AT OLD KANSAS HOME

Leavenworth, April 2.—The body of the late Justice David J. Brewer of the supreme court of the United States, arrived from Washington today and will lay in state in the church which Justice Brewer founded to be viewed by hundreds of persons. Later, after a simple service, the burial will take place at Mount Munice cemetery, beside the graves of the justice's first wife and her daughter.

OPERATORS AND MINERS TO CONFER ON WAGE SCALE

Indianapolis, April 2.—The operators and miners of the bituminous coal fields of the United States began with renewed activity today their negotiations looking to the signing of a new two-year wage contract that will mean the resumption of work in the mines. Similar conferences have been appointed for next week in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and the southwestern districts.

$500 AN ACRE FARMING LAND ON RIVER ROAD

Samuel Ostrander, a recent arrival here from Oklahoma, has just purchased from Mrs. Hannum, who lives only a few hundred yards north of the railroad on the river road, four and a half acres of land, paying $500 an acre for it without any improvements. W. P. Morse made the sale. This is considered a top notch price for farming lands without improvements. Mr. Ostrander will erect the necessary buildings on the place and will make it his home. It is very conveniently situated for truck gardening or for the raising of small fruit or chickens.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT REFUSES TO BE PRESENTED TO POPE IF CONDITIONS ARE NAMED

Rome, April 4.—The determination of ex-President Roosevelt to forego an audience with the pope rather than subscribe to the conditions imposed by the vatican has created a sensation. This unfortunate and unexpected incident overshadows every feature of the distinguished American's visit to the eternal city.

Roosevelt sought an audience with the pontiff through American Ambassador Leishman, and received word that the holy father would be delighted to see him, but the answer was coupled with an expression of hope that the audience would not be prevented by such a regrettable incident as made an audience for former Vice President Fairbanks impossible.

Colonel Roosevelt, in turn, stated that he could not accept any stipulation limiting his freedom of conduct.

To the latter message the vatican made answer that the audience could not take place excepting on the understanding first stated, and on March 29 Roosevelt sent Minister Leishman the following cablegram: "The proposed presentation, of course, is now impossible. Roosevelt."

Colonel Roosevelt insists that the incident be treated purely as a personal matter and earnestly hopes it will not give rise to any bitterness. He appreciated the attitude of the vatican, but feels that as a free American citizen he cannot consistently take any action that might be construed as a limitation of the freedom of his personal conduct. He had made no arrangement to address the Methodists or other religious bodies at Rome, but at the same time he thinks he should not make promises as to what he will do or will not do. It will appear today, so far as the vatican and Roosevelt are concerned, the incident is closed.

The news that the former president had abandoned his proposed visit to the vatican reached the morning papers late, but made a very deep impression. The Messenger, an anti-clerical organ, alone comments editorially and says: "When the news was spread, it was received with incredulity, many regarding it as a malicious fabrication of the enemies of the Catholic church, but was confirmed, it produced comment throughout the vatican. Men of every religion daily visit the pope without first giving an itinerary of the churches they intend to visit. Why should the vatican require Roosevelt to ignore the churches of his own religion during his stay in Rome? The incident will not add to the diplomatic fame of the Pope's advisers. "Roosevelt as head of the great American republic, followed the principle enunciated by Premier Luzzati, 'A free church under a sovereign state.'" The Messenger placed the responsibility for what it terms a "blunder" on the Pope's entourage, continuing: "For it was a blunder to ask a certificate of acceptability from a man illustrious everywhere for his intelligence and the nobleness of his life. The liberty which Roosevelt is defending for all, he could not renounce for himself."

SPRINGFIELD AND VICINITY

SPRINGFIELD PEOPLE ROAST 'PHONE SERVICE

It was Springfield's turn last Friday night to roast the Pacific States Telephone Company, and a number of expressions were heard at the meeting of the Commercial Club that would lead a stranger to think that the phone users were somewhat irritated. The trouble, it seems this time, is that the rates are being raised. They are being raised, a few at a time, from $1 to $1.50. But the worst of it is the club was told by Mr. Heaton a short time ago that the Springfield prices would be un molested, although all the other patrons over the country were having to pay more. And all this after the city has been patiently waiting, putting up with a service that the company acknowledges is poor, but which cannot be helped, they say, because of an inadequate switchboard, waiting upon promises of an improvement, "soon," and listening to complimentary excuses that the city has grown too fast. The matter, however, was referred to the Merchants' Protective Association.

It seems, however, that there is a slight misunderstanding on this, and an explanation from Mr. Heaton will clear it up. He denies that the rates are being raised in Springfield. The only change that is being made is that there are no more ten party lines. With ten phones on one line the best service cannot be expected, and because of the kicks that have come from these it was decided to place only four-party lines. The price for these is $1.50. The new switchboard has been shipped, he says, and will be installed in two or three weeks.

EXTEND GASOLINE CAR TO MARCOLA

Extend the gasoline car to Marcola and bring more shoppers to Springfield is to be the next request of the railroad company by the Commercial Club. The matter was brought up and discussed Friday evening, and it seems very feasible. Between 9:50 and 1:40 p. m. the car remains idle in the Springfield yard. It is thought that in this time the run of 18 miles to Marcola could be made and back, and give an opportunity to the residents of the Mohawk to shop in this city and return the same day at 4:30 on the regular train. The present service is poor.

$1500 RAISED FOR PROMOTION FUND

The soliciting committee of the Commercial Club Friday afternoon in a few hours raised the promotion fund to $1500, and they hope on promises to finish at $2000. They found an enthusiastic reception wherever they went. Friday Three of them started, but about 30 finished the round of the business houses. As fast as a man's name was on the list with an amount after it they told him to take his hat and join the fund.

BOOTH-KELLY MILL BEING OVERHAULED

The Booth-Kelly sawmill is taking a spring tonic in the way of a general overhauling. A new and heavier carriage is being put in, a new log slip, and new brick on the inside of the big burner are among the additions. All the machinery is being overhauled and repaired. The mill has been idle for a week, but will be ready to resume by next Wednesday. While closed the mill hands are having a good chance to work gardens and take part in the clean-up day next week.

EASTERN CAPITALISTS BUY ORCHARD LAND

Medford, Or., April 3.—The American Development Company has made the agreed payment on the options taken on 20,000 acres of land 12 miles from Medford. The land is said to have been sold for $1-250,000. Eastern capital is making the investment for the purpose of improving the land, which is ideal for fruit growing.

FRANCE LAUGHS OVER ROOSEVELT-VATICAN EPISODE

Paris, April 5.—Paris, always cheerful, appears to have found the funny side of the vatican-Roosevelt episode. Under the headline, "Roosevelt again, always Roosevelt," the Gil Blas, after stoutly upholding Roosevelt's attitude, continues in a satirical vein to hold the former president as one of the greatest self-advertisers in the world. It says no one more than he knows how to compel the attention of the masses by noisy manifestations or to punctuate his travels with sensational incidents. The vatican certainly lacked tact, but the affair entered upon the ridiculous when Roosevelt, wishing personally to profit, invoked the journalists and dictated a long telegram destined to appeal to his fellow citizens in America.

JAIL BREAKERS LYNCHED BY MOB IN TEXAS TOWN

Houston, Texas, April 5.—Following his sensational escape from jail, Frank Bates was lynched by hanging in the jail at Centerville last night. Dolly Bates, his son, was also strung up, but was cut down before life was extinct. The two Bates were ring-leaders in the jail delivery, and they were both wounded, as was the jailer. All the jail breakers were recaptured. The two Bates were awaiting trial in a murder charge and probably fatally wounded Jailer Jeff St. John in an unsuccessful attempt to escape. A mob gathered, obtained the jail keys and rushed into the building seeking vengeance.

HOLDER OF CLAIM NO. 1 FAILS TO TAKE LAND

Spokane, Wash., April 3.—A Chicago girl, Miss Mabel D. McNickle, drew No. 1 claim on the Spokane reservation yesterday. Although she held No. 2 in the big government lottery last year, the holder of No. 1, Allen Newton, of Helena, Mont., did not appear. Miss McNickle secured 153 acres in the northwest corner of the reservation. Fay J. Snoddy, of Miller, S. D., who held No. 3, appeared. The Northern Pacific during the filing of claims announced that it claimed every odd section, but the officials disregarded the claim, and the matter may go to the courts for settlement.

That he saw under one cultivation 6000 acres of growing wheat. He was about to take a four-days' automobile trip into the interior to examine some wheat land, which he may purchase.

GAS CAR MAY MEAN BETTER MAIL SERVICE

Although the new gasoline car at present doesn't carry any mail, it is thought that arrangements are being made to better the mail service by carrying the closed pouches on it. The postoffice has received orders that it will hereafter receive no mail from No. 11, at 9:45 p. m. It is on this train that the mail for Brownsville and Coburg is delivered. The postoffice at Albany has had the mail it would bring Portland mail half a day earlier.

DODGE WILL START BRANCH STORE

E. Dodge, the Eugene merchant, will open a branch department store in the new Sutton block in Springfield by the middle of the month. He will carry a line of dry goods and groceries and it will give Springfield the same chance to trade as in Eugene. The fittings of the new store are now being made. Now that this location has been taken there is not an available location left in Springfield. Every store room is occupied.

W. G. Nesmith came down from Blue River yesterday. He has been snowed in at the Treasure mine all winter by some seven feet of snow. The Fall Creek road was before the Commercial Club agents on Friday night. It seems that the road is still as bad as ever, and the committee will again endeavor to help them to secure a new road. The railroad some time ago promised to take out the piling in the county road in West Springfield and put in steel girders on the trestle. Now that the new road is being built, it seems a good time to have the piles taken out.

SIMON SLATED FOR GOVERNOR

Portland's Mayor Will Probably Be Republican Assembly Choice

Portland, April 3.—Joseph Simon for governor, Thomas C. Taylor of Pendleton for state treasurer—that is the way it is framed up now. In addition to that the slate makers also want to put Frank W. Benson on the program for secretary of state and Willis S. Dunway for state printer, notwithstanding the hostility of Dunway to the convention plan, and the fact that Benson has not announced himself as favoring the scheme.

There has been much wonderment in political circles about this governorship business. Every body has been asking "Whom have they slated for the nomination?" And the guesses have been numerous. At first there were many who contended that it was Fulton; then it was Bowerman.

Wants to Be Governor

Mayor Simon wants to be governor. So his closest friends say. One of them is authority for the statement that Mr. Simon said, soon after he had been elected mayor, that he would rather have been elected governor of Oregon than United States senator. He had been senator, he said, but he had not been governor, and he wanted to experience the sensation, or words to that effect.

Meets Opposition

All this is not to the liking of Jay Bowerman, of Condon, or J. H. Ackerman, of Salem, or J. W. Bailey, state dairy commissioner, all of whom have, or had, aspirations to rouse the convention to one of its old-time bursts of enthusiasm which would end in a nomination. Covert rumblings are beginning to

Ackerman Not Sure

At the present writing Ackerman is not sure about the success of the convention, and does not know what he is going to do, while Dr. Withycombe has about made up his mind not to make the race.

Neither are there any particularly bright rays of political sunshine about stamping ground of J. B. Coffey, who aspires to be secretary of state. Mr. Coffey, however, says he is still out for the nomination and that he is going into the convention and will take his chances.
