

SUFFRAGETTES GIVEN REHEARING BY ENGLISH LAWMAKERS

Guard Special Service.

London, July 16.—The suffragettes are very delighted over the fact that parliament has given the resolution enfranchising women a second hearing, and although there are those who say the resolution will never become a law, having been submitted in the hope of appeasing the suffragettes, the women declare that it will be a sorry day for the legislators who are discovered as being in earnest in their plans to quiet them temporarily.

Incidentally the man who attends London suffragette meetings for the purpose of interrupting the proceedings will need be careful in future, lest he find himself in the humiliating position of being thrown out neck and crop by a slip of a girl against whose science mere brute strength is of no avail. A Woman Athletic society, the latest development of the Women's Freedom league, has been organized by Mrs. Garrud, a jiu jitsu expert, and Miss Kelly, one of the younger thinkers and workers, and through their aid the suffragettes expect to preserve order in future.

Irish Insurgents.
William O'Brien, M. P., leader of the Irish insurgents, is conducting a campaign in Ireland against the policies of John Redmond, leader of the Irish national party. John Dillon and others of Mr. Redmond's advisers. Mr. O'Brien believes that Mr. Redmond has betrayed Ireland into the hands of her enemies and that this will result in the overtaxation of Ireland to the extent of $17,500,000 a year, the curtailment of the usefulness of the land purchase law and a diminished prospect for home rule.

Don't Use Royal Arms.
Americans can't use the royal arms in England without paying for it. Persons using crested note paper, whether they have a right to it or not, have to pay a small annual sumptuary tax for the privilege, and no one is allowed to use the royal arms on letter paper unless specially permitted to do so by the king or the court chamberlain.

Purveyors by appointment to the king hold this privilege under a special warrant which is usually prominently displayed, gorgeously framed, in shop windows.

Want New Word.
Some of the English newspapers, headed by the Times, are trying to introduce the word "airman" to replace "aviator" for one who travels through the air, defending their neologism by the analogy with "seaman." If the analogy were carried a little further travelers by the underground railways should be known as "earthmen."

Teddy Bear Supplanted.
The Teddy bear has been supplanted in London by Caesar, the large king's dog, who has been reproduced in toy form as the newest plaything for children. He has been copied as faithfully as possible with his rough coat made of plush and all his points movable. Attached to his collar is a medallion with the inscription, "I Am Caesar," which King Edward had engraved on the silver medallion the original Caesar always wore fastened to his silver collar.

Meanwhile the real Caesar is quiet unconscious of his fame and is resting at Sandringham until he goes with Queen Alexandra to Denmark. He has settled down once more to an ordinary existence and consents to eat and drink, thanks to the ministrations of the veterinary surgeon who has been untiring in his efforts to keep the little dog alive and well.

John Burns' Salary.
Mr. John Burns, the labor member of the cabinet, is to have a salary of $5000 a year instead of $10,000.

This is not bad for a man who, according to his statement in "Who's Who," is "still learning and still struggling." His former socialist friends have shaken him off, but with their exception the country approves the prime minister's praise of his colleague for "the assiduity and single-mindedness with which Mr. Burns has administered his department."

Mr. Burns has an effective way of silencing his socialist critics. He intends to devote his increase of $15,000 to social and economic projects in which he is interested. Certainly he is not altering his plain way of living. His modest house in the far from aristocratic district of Battersea still suits him.

He hates show of any sort, and his wife would not be happy without her housework. She keeps no servants but a day girl and an occasional scrub woman.

DOG MAN REACHES LOS ANGELES

William Brown Claims to Have Won Wager of $10,000

Los Angeles, July 16.—William Brown of St. Johns, Newfoundland, arrived here today in a cart drawn by four dogs, claiming that his arrival in this city completes a 25,000-mile journey in his unusual vehicle, thereby winning a wager of $10,000.

As a result of a discussion among members of the National Sporting club of Newfoundland, Brown says the money was put up in 1906, to be paid to him, provided that, after leaving St. Johns without money, he traveled a distance equal to the circumference of the earth within a time limit of seven years.

After traveling through the eastern states, he claims to have taken a steamer for Europe, having obtained the money for his passage by selling pictures of his outfit, and traveled through Ireland and England, as well as the continental countries.

Brown is the man who was in Eugene during the spring and won a damage suit against Dr. Southworth for killing his tame wolf.

GUFFEY GOES TO A RECEIVER

Multimillionaire of Billy Bryan Fame Takes Step for Protection of His Estate

Pittsburg, July 15.—Col. James F. Duffy, national democratic committeeman and multimillionaire oil man, who figured prominently as the object of attack by Bryan adherents of the democratic convention at Denver, has gone into the hands of a receiver. The receiver was appointed today upon a bill in equity alleging that Guffey's indebtedness is about $6,700,000, of which about $950,000 is unsecured; that Guffey has no ready money, and that his creditors are threatening to sell his collateral and enter suit. Guffey's assets are placed at more than $17,000,000, a large part of which is stock of the J. M. Guffey company and West Virginia company, two coal companies that own 136,000 acres of coking coal in West Virginia. The other assets of Colonel Guffey to the value of two or three million dollars consist of stocks and bonds of other corporations.

To the Associated Press Colonel Guffey stated tonight that the step was taken in order to conserve his estate for the benefit of his creditors and the protection of himself.

He said his assets were more than double his obligations and that it is simply a question of being permitted to dispose of them without sacrificing all of them to pay his obligations.

Those Pies of Boyhood
How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good; what's changed? The pies? No. It's you. You've lost the strong healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up of all organs of digestion by Electric Bitters—stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels—try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. See at W. A. Kuykendall's.

The Lafayette Nursery company have a $2800 contract with Potomac parties to furnish stock for an orchard tract to be set out with 20,000 apple trees with gooseberries between.

JUDGE HARRIS RETIRES FROM POLITICAL FIELD

Says That He Will Not Be a Candidate for Supreme Bench

Salem friends of Judge Lawrence T. Harris of Eugene received word from him yesterday that he had decided to retire from the race for the supreme bench. He did not state his reasons, saying he would give them upon making a personal visit to Salem.

Judge Harris is one of the most popular men on the bench, and it was believed would have received the unanimous support of the Marion county delegation along with Judge George H. Burnett, Chief Justice F. A. Moore and Justice Thomas A. McBride. Who the fourth man will be is now somewhat of a quantity.—Salem Statesman.

BEN WILLIAMS PASES AWAY

Ben J. Williams passed away at his home five miles east of Harrisburg last Friday, July 8, after an illness of some nine months' duration. The cause of his death is attributed to tumor on the brain.

Mr. Williams and his estimable family have been residents of this vicinity but a year, coming from Colorado. He has shown a progressive spirit, strictest honesty and made a good neighbor.

He was born in Texas Feb. 13, 1865, and made his home there until 1887, when he moved to Colorado and continued in the stock business. In this business he has always been very successful. He was married on Nov. 15, 1890, and was the father of nine children, five of whom died in infancy. His wife and four daughters, all at home, survive him.

The funeral services were held at the home Wednesday of this week, conducted by Rev. Taylor and Rev. Jones of Brownsville. Interment at Brownsville cemetery.—Bulletin.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to: Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
