Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wright, of the First Baptist church, were at home Tuesday evening to their friends. It was in truth a farewell reception to their Eugene friends, for they will leave soon for Monroe, Washington, where Mr. Wright will superintend the boys' reformatory. The members of the Baptist church feel most keenly Mr. Wright's departure, and all Eugene join them in their sorrow, for Mr. Wright at all times has played a prominent part in the city's work, and has ever been a powerful and aggressive force for good. Mr. Wright has held an equal place in the social and economic work of the church and city, and it is with great regret that we think of their leaving us. Dr. and Mrs. Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Converse received the guests with Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Mae Kinsey, Miss Lola Howe and Miss Ethel Plank served at the punch table, which was placed in a bower of ferns and flowers on the porch. The rooms were tastefully decorated with sweet peas, Shasta daisies and ferns. Music was furnished by Miss Gilbert and Mr. Stevens, which added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Mr. Charles A. Hardy and Mrs. Harry Dunbar entertained a large number of their friends with what this afternoon. The rooms were decorated in sweet peas, pink, cream and lavender, and the color design was carried out in the serving and the refreshments. Miss Rosalie Friendly, Mrs. Hidden and Mrs. Snodgrass assisted in entertaining the guests. Those present were: Mesdames P. K. Hammond, Frank Chambers, Charley Chambers, W. Polders, W. S. Hidden, L. T. Harris, John Keilby, J. D. Fields, J. S. Luckey, T. B. Luckey, Will Moran, L. E. Bean, W. Shumate, Sid Smith, Geo. N. Smith, S. S. Spencer, E. C. Hughes, L. E. Travis, A. K. Jepp, Charles Mayhew, Fred Flisk, L. E. Tidball, L. N. Edmunson, J. Seaver, John Pikes, Hollenbeck, Al Hampton, A. K. Pratt, B. Sear, Tromp, Paul W. Fringaby, Ross, Bryson, Misses Ida Patterson, Harriet Patterson, Eve Stinson, Mary Morgan and Lucille Abrams.

The Wednesday Afternoon Whist Club was delightfully entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Anos Wilkins. Each member was privileged to bring a guest, thus doubling the usual number of tables. Three prizes were awarded, the first to Mrs. W. U. Ren, the second to Mrs. Chesman and the third to Mrs. Duff. Each prize was a selected piece of Havellin. Miss Juanita Wilkins and Miss Grace Bingham added the hostess in serving dainty and tempting refreshments. The guests of the club were Mrs. E. C. Hughes, Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. C. E. Loomis, Mrs. Ann Whiteaker, Mrs. L. H. Bingham, Mrs. Tom G. Bert, Mrs. S. Babb (Spokane), Mrs. Jennie Wilson, Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. George Frazer, Jr. Mrs. Preston, Mrs. S. J. Wilson, Mrs. Chesman, Mrs. E. E. Mink, Mrs. Quiner, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. J. B. Willoughby, Mrs. G. N. Frazer, Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Littlefield were the members of the club present.

Mrs. Chas. Koepke entertained the ladies of the G. A. R. and friends at her home on West Eleventh street Friday afternoon. The house was appropriately decorated with flags and bunting. A sumptuous luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Anna M. Deal, Mrs. Phoebe Partridge Grimes and Miss Flora Deal.

Those present were Mrs. F. A. Baldwin, Mrs. E. A. Sylvester, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bartlett, Mrs. Mary E. Heller, Mrs. Peppard, Mrs. Erwin Walker, Mrs. C. P. Shucks, Mrs. Goodie, Mrs. Bratham, Mrs. A. F. Bonnett, Mrs. Anna Tuck, Mrs. Edwin Wheeler, Mrs. J. E. Gardner, Mrs. E. F. Chapman, Mrs. C. E. Hammond, Mrs. Mary Small, Mrs. Mary Clendenen, Mrs. D. McElroy, Mrs. C. Deau, Mrs. Bertha Condon, Mrs. Katherine Smith, Mrs. E. A. Forrest, Mrs. Addie Seprow, Mrs. Apperson, Mrs. Bloom, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Barringer, Mrs. Crum, Mrs. Cora Wood, Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. Cora Labree, Mrs. G. Cummins, Mrs. Ramapo, Mr. Wm. Ruth, Mr. John Koepke, Mr. Karl Koepke, Mrs. Anna Pryor, Mrs. P. G. Bradway and son Morrison, Mrs. Barblite, Mrs. C. P. Sylvester and son Clarence. Mrs. Buckholst and daughter Leone.

There were several theatre parties in lieu of Miss Henrietta Crosmann's appearance in "Anti-Matrimony" on Tuesday evening, and there certainly has been no opportunity this year for greater enjoyment of a keen play and acting that ranked far above the ordinary. Viewed from the ladies' standpoint, Miss Crosmann's gown added to the interest of the evening. They were beautiful and in exquisite taste, and we were thankful for a play which permitted of a varied and considerable number.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. M. Collier and Miss Mary McCormack entertained informally a number of their friends at Miss McCormack's home on West Seventh street. The affair was occasioned by the visit of Mrs. E. P. Geary, of Portland, who has many friends and acquaintances in this city. The afternoon was one of particular enjoyment to all the guests.

A merry crowd of Eugene girls left Thursday evening for a three weeks' outing on the McKenzie. Mr. Anos Wilkins drove them to their camping place, and they departed, leaving all cares and troubles behind them. Conscious in view of the last statement is the sign which will appear over their camp and make it known from the source of the McKenzie to Eugene. This amazing sign is "No Boys Admitted." The members of the party are Miss June Gray, Miss Jesse Ceder, Miss Lena Ceder, Miss Grace Bingham, Miss Althea Heit-Smith and Miss Juanita Wilkins.

The Ladies' Club of Bailey School District was entertained Thursday afternoon, July 14, by Mrs. A. M. Miller and Mrs. G. W. Prater, at City View Farm, the home of the latter. The club met in honor of Mrs. Hawkins, who has been very ill, and was able to be out for the first time. Music, refreshments and a social time were enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mrs. Waite, president, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. San Flaven, Mrs. Conger, Mrs. E. McCornack, Mrs. Sheldon and daughter, Mrs. Lee Bailey, Mrs. McMiller, Mrs. Prater and Miss Belle Prater.

Mr. O. A. Stowell was surprised Tuesday evening by a number of his friends, who planned to call upon him in a body. They had prepared a lunch and all passed a pleasant hour in listening to Mr. Stowell's account of pioneer days and events. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Miss Libby Moran, Miss Louise Moran, Mr. S. M. Moran, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howe, Mr. James Howe, Miss Elizabeth Howe, Miss Lola Howe, Miss Ann Whiteaker, Miss Beesley Day, Mr. K. K. Miller, Mr. Sam Mosher.

Friday afternoon Miss Norma Hendricks gave a towel shower for Miss Winifred Hadley, whose engagement to Mr. Eberle Kuykendall was announced last month. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable afternoon, and all extended the most sincere congratulations to Miss Hadley. Those present were: Miss Winifred Hadley, Miss Ella Doble, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Miss Rosalie Friendly, Miss Therese Friendly, Mrs. Simpson, Miss Lucia Campbell, Miss Elma Wendricks and Miss Florence DeBar.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church was entertained by Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Dunbar, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Ebbloom at the home of the latter Tuesday afternoon. About fifty ladies were present, and after the formal business meeting an hour or so was spent pleasantly with conversation and enjoyment of the beautiful view offered from Mrs. Ebbloom's Hill Crest home.

Mrs. C. S. Freeland entertained informally Wednesday evening for Miss Perry, of Rainier, Oregon, who is visiting in Eugene this week. The evening passed quickly and all enjoyed the games and music, which the hostess had prepared for entertainment.

The University of Oregon Summer School had a most delightful picnic on the river Friday evening. They all provided themselves with "weenies," which were roasted over a huge bonfire built on the shore. Many such excursions are planned for the six weeks' season.

The announcement of Miss Hazel Bean's engagement to Mr. Darrel Bristow, son of Mr. Darwin Bristow, of the First National Bank, was made this week. The wedding will be in September.

Mrs. J. W. Buoy gave a tea for Miss Siggins Tuesday evening at her pleasant home on West Tenth street.

THE DRAMA

By William S. Brewer

New York, July 16.—As many of the leading playhouses are planning to reopen during August, managers are busy with rehearsals and the formation of new companies for road work. Advice from the offices of the Messrs. Shubert state that these managers are busy engaging people for the coming attractions which will fly the Shubert banner next season. The first ones to leave New York will, of course, be the successes of last season. There will be four companies playing "The City," three playing "Love Some," and three "The Lottery Man." In fact, rehearsals of all these companies are now in progress.

The Plaza Music Hall is drawing crowds of music lovers nightly, also many of the patrons of the vaudeville performances, which have been discontinued for the remainder of the summer. Just now the Aborn Comic Opera company holds forth at The Plaza. Among the leading singers, who will offer a new opera each week, are Huntington May, Lillian Stain, Florence Rochester, Hattie Arnold, Ada Meade, Robert Letts and Phil Branson, and in addition, a chorus of fifty pretty girls.

At the Astor theater "Seven Days" enters upon its thirty-seventh week next Monday evening. It is nearing its 500th performance, but has been so popular that it will stick to its promise and keep going all summer, its manager says.

Louis Mann has an amusing farce in "The Theater," in which he is appearing at the Lyric theater. It is an adaptation by Mr. Mann himself from a German play and concerns the predicament of a reformed man who comes by inheritance into possession of an all-night saloon of the type against which he has inveighed most furiously. In addition to Mr. Mann the cast will contain Mathilde Contrelly, Miss Parke Patten, De Witt Jennings, Ethel Conroy, Melville Stewart, Jeffrey Lewis, E. A. Kelly, Albert Parker, John Bunney and Edward Norton.

Maria Dressler in Lew Field's production of "Tillie's Nightmare" is in its third month of success at the Herald Square theater. Miss Dressler herself, in the role of the boarding house drudge, has scored the greatest triumph of her laugh-making career.

"Grilles," at the New Amsterdam theater, has a new aeroplane number, which is in many respects one of the most remarkable stage effects that Frederic Thompson has produced. A biplane that follows the lines of the most successful models, manned by a pilot and twelve of the playgoers and her former associates in the theatrical world. "It all came about very suddenly, however. A few days before we left for New York, Edward Elmer, who was Miss Illington's stage director in "The Thief," submitted his play to her, and on reading it she became enthusiastic over its tremendous acting possibilities, and I told her that if she would like to appear in it I would make the production for her."

"Ideals on Home Life Unchanged."

"My wife's ideals regarding home life and domesticity are unchanged, and had it not been that I could be with her on the tour with her play we would not have considered it for a minute. She is enjoying excellent health and feels that she can give the best work of her career."

"It was our desire that our plans should not be made public until the greater part of the arrangements had been made, but we found it impossible to keep it secret."

"Two carloads of scenery and equipment have been selected, and will be shipped from New York. The company, consisting of twenty persons, will leave New York next Wednesday, and rehearsals will begin at once on their arrival, and the initial production will be Aug. 26 at the Tacoma theater."

Cragston Sing, Worth Many Times Weight In Gold

Cragston Sing, Worth Many Times Weight In Gold

Cragston Sing is a mite of a dog, but he is worth many times his weight in gold and requires the constant care of a keeper who watches over his every want. Sing is a Pekinese dog, owned by J. Pierpont Morgan. During the dog show in the Botanical gardens, London, Sing won three first prizes and eight specials. Mr. Morgan refuses to name a price for Sing. He was offered $1,000, but he shook his head, with a smile, for an answer.

Mr. Morgan would like to bring Sing to the United States, but his keeper fears the ocean voyage would not be to his liking. In the meantime Sing sleeps on velvet cushions, is powdered and perfumed each day and leads anything but a dog's life.

MISS ILLINGTON REACHES TACOMA

Reappearance on Stage Will Be Made in Tour of Coast States

Tacoma, Wash., July 15.—Margaret Illington and her husband, Edward J. Bowen, returned to Tacoma today from New York, where they have been making arrangements for Miss Illington's return to the foot lights. Of their plans Mr. Bowen said:

"Miss Illington's desire to return to the stage is the natural outcome of the complete recovery of her health, supported by urgent requests."

Two gay young frogs, from inland bogs, had spent the night in drinking. When morning broke and they awoke, while yet their eyes were blinking. A farmer's pail came to the swale and caught them quick as winking. Ere they could gather scattered senses, or breathe a prayer for past offenses, the granger grave, that guileless man, had dumped them in the milkman's can. The can filled up, the cover down. They soon were started off to town. The luckless frogs began to quake and sober up on cold milkshake. They quickly found their breath would stop. Unless they swam upon the top. They swam for life and still did swim until their weary eyes grew dim. Their muscles ached, their spirit great as death.

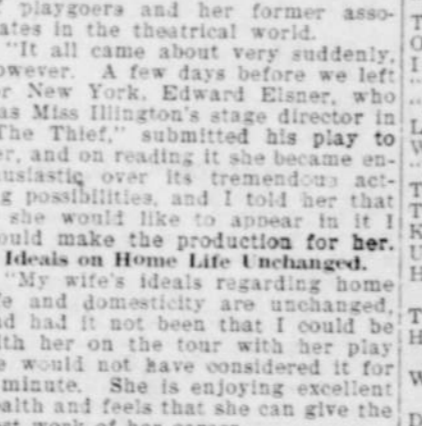

And gasping spoke one weary sport: "Say, dear old boy, it's pretty tough to die so young, but I've enough of kicks for life; no more I'll try; I was not raised on sour-milk diet; 'Tut, tut! my lad,' the other cries, 'A frog's not dead until he dies. Let's keep on kicking, that's my plan. We yet may see outside this can.' 'No use, no use,' faint heart replied. Turned up his toes and gently died. The braver frog, undaunted still, kept kicking with a right good will. Until, with joy too great to utter, He found he'd churned a lump of butter. Then climbing on that lump of grease He floated round with greatest ease. MORAL. When times are hard, no trade in town. Don't get discouraged and go down. But straight still, no murmur bring. A few more kicks may bring the butter.

KEEP ON KICKING.

MARGARET ILLINGTON

DIVORCED ACTRESS WILL MARRY AGAIN

Mary Manning to Become the Wife of Detroit Business Man

Chicago, July 15.—Although no final arrangement has been made, it is the understanding of friends of Miss Mary Manning, actress, that she will be married soon to Frederick W. Wadsworth, wealthy business man of Detroit, Mich. Asked about the report Miss Manning herself said that any announcement of her approaching marriage was "premature," but would say nothing further.

Miss Manning was divorced from James K. Hackett several months ago. She is starring in "A Man's World" at the Garrick theater. The wife of Wadsworth obtained a divorce Monday on charges of cruelty. She was given the custody of the child, a girl.

When Hackett was starring in the "Prisoner of Zenda" as the dashing Rudolph, Miss Manning was in the play, the queen with whom Rudolph falls in love. In the play Rudolph loses the queen, although she is in love with him. In real life the actor married the stage queen. Both in fiction and life have love affairs turned unhappily. In the divorce decree Miss Manning was awarded the custody of the 5-year-old daughter.

Pepper Times: Notwithstanding there is a great shortage of farm labor, the work of garnering the wheat crop is going along satisfactorily but slowly. Fall sown grain will make an average yield of about 20 bushels per acre, but the hot weather of the past 10 days will lower the spring crop considerably.

Mrs. Ricker Expects to Be Next Governor of New Hampshire

Mrs. Martilla M. Ricker of Dover, N. H., in signing her name adds, "The next governor of New Hampshire." Mrs. Ricker is so confident that she will be the next governor that she has sent her check for $100 to cover her expenses with the election commissioners. Mrs. Ricker is a lawyer and is considered a brilliant woman. She has been active in political circles for a long time, and when Roosevelt was president she applied for a diplomatic post but the colonel could not see his way clear to give an ambassadorship to one of the gentler sex.

Mrs. Ricker promises to make a hot campaign in New Hampshire at the coming election.

It was our desire that our plans should not be made public until the greater part of the arrangements had been made, but we found it impossible to keep it secret.

Halsey, Or., July 19.—Henry H. Kirk, one of Linn county's most prominent pioneers, died July 13, 1910, at his home in Halsey, aged 74 years, 2 months and 27 days.

Mr. Kirk was born in Owen county, Ind., April 16, 1836. When he was 4 years old his parents moved to Missouri. In 1846, when he was but 10 years old, his family crossed the plains and settled on a claim south of Brownsville. Mr. Kirk lived on his father's farm until 45 years ago when he moved to a farm between Halsey and Brownsville. Five years ago he moved into Halsey and has lived here since. During the time he was a farmer many large farms came into his possession. He was one of the first men in this county to raise fine horses. He has represented Linn county at many state conventions, and always took an active part in republican county politics.

Mr. Kirk is survived by his wife, Mrs. Isabella Kirk and nine children: Mrs. J. C. Wilbur, of Cove, Or.; Mrs. C. H. Bone, of Bickleton, Wash.; Alexander Kirk, of Athena, Or.; Frank Kirk, of Halsey; Charles Kirk, of Athena; William R. Kirk, of Halsey; Mrs. Effie Gilliford, of Montana, and Mrs. Nellie Frum, of Brownsville.

Mr. Kirk died of pneumonia, and a large number of people attended his funeral. He was buried in the Brownsville cemetery on Saturday.

S. S. S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, ETC.

ECZEMA, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc. are simply the ulceration of skin tissues, caused by humors and acids in the blood. The circulation has become infected with impurities which are being constantly deposited into the pores and glands of the cuticle, and a continual state of inflammation and irritation is thus kept up. Just as long as these humors and acids remain in the circulation the skin affection will continue. The trouble may be temporarily soothed and covered over with external applications, but such treatment does not make the blood any purer, and can therefore be of no permanent benefit. To cure any skin disease it is necessary to purify the blood—remove the cause. S. S. S. Cures Eczeema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, eruptions, etc. because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and drives out every humor, acid or impurity. It cools the feverish blood and allows it to furnish the skin with healthy nourishment, instead of fiery, acrid deposits. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, mild and pleasant in its action, it does not cure skin disease by forcing all the impurity to the surface, but stimulates the excretory members to carry it off through the natural avenues. If you have any skin affection you can not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It will assist nature in quickly restoring the smooth, even texture of the cuticle, and the cure will be permanent and lasting. Book on SKIN DISEASES free to all who write.
