

Clothing Sale at Stanleys

For the balance of this week we offer our entire stock of clothing at the following prices

MEN'S SUITS, Values to $ 9.00, sale price	$ 5.00
MEN'S SUITS, Values to $14.50, sale price	$ 7.50
MEN'S SUITS, Values to $22.50, sale price	$11.00
MEN'S KHAKI SHIRTS, 60c quality, sale price	42c
MEN'S 35c Suspenders, Sale price, the pair	19c
LADIES' ELASTIC BELTS, Regular 50c, sale price	25c
LADIES' 10c HANDKERCHIEFS, Sale price	5c
BEAUTY PINS, 25c, 35c and 50c Sets, sale price	10c

Men's Suits For $3.95

One lot Men's Suits, worth to $14.00, but not the latest styles, the coats being a trifle short; sizes from 33 to 39, ---CHOICE $3.95

Ladies' Hand Bags on Sale This Week

BOY'S SUIT, Knickerbocker Trousers, worth to $6.50, all sizes, Sale price, the suit	$2.95
MEN'S AND BOYS' CAPS, worth to $1.50, sale price	35c
STRAW HATS—Worth to $3.00, sale price	35c
MEN'S FELT HATS, values to $4.00, sale price	$1.95
COLGATE'S TALC POWDER, Our price	19c
ARMOUR'S 10c TAR SOAP, Special, the cake	5c
ARMOUR'S 10c GLYCERINE SOAP, Special, the cake	5c

You Can Buy Shoes For Less at Stanleys---Sale Prices on Every Pair

GROCERY SPECIALS---

For the Balance of the Week the Following Specials will be on Sale in the Grocery Department

"RADIO" LAUNDRY SOAP, large cakes, sells regularly for 5c straight, special, 7 cakes for	25c
LEMON FLAVORING EXTRACT, Highest grade, regular 25c, spec	19c
VANILLA FLAVORING EXTRACT, Highest grade, regular 35c, spec	27c

STANLEYS

PRICE CUTTERS

612-618 Willamette St., Eugene, Oregon.

JELLY, All flavors, regular 15c, special	9c
SHREDDED WHEAT, Special, the package	10c
STAR TOBACCO, The plug	45c
COFFEE, As good as you have been buying at 35c, our price, lb.	20c

CLASSIFIED COLUMN ADS

FOR SALE

CEDAR BOXES—Any quantity. Ad dress B., Box 105, Eugene. 131

WOOD FOR SALE—Balm, maple and ash. Four feet. Call Farmers 68, 130

FOR SALE—5 acres of good fruit land on car line. Inquire at 466 High street. 128

RIVER BOTTOM ACREAGE—One mile from railroad, $50 per acre. Bell & Skene, Lane County Abstract Co. 127

FOR SALE—By owner, 7-room modern house; lots of fruit on lot; close in; cheap if taken at once. 528 Ferry street. 127

FOR SALE—One of the most choice acre tracts in Blair Street addition. Reasonable price, with easy terms. See any real estate dealer. 127

FOR SALE—Special to investors—One block best College Hill property at a bargain. Inquire Hunter Electric Co., 22 W. 8th st. 127

FOR SALE—Brand new Victrola, with $25 worth of records, at a discount of 20 per cent. Address Red Cross Drug Store, Junction City, Or. 127

HOTEL FOR SALE—14 rooms and dining room furnished complete; 40 regular boarders, in thriving mill town. Price, $13,000. Latham & Nelson, Coburg, Oregon. 130

FOR SALE—City broken driving and saddle horses; halter broken and gentle ponies. Good unbroken 2-year-olds. G. E. Spaulding, 529 Willamette street. 129

FOR SALE OR TRADE—No. 28. 80 acres of good timber land, 16 miles of Eugene; three million feet of timber. Trade for city or close-in property. Price, $2,000. Good terms. H. E. Owen, 536 Willamette street. 128

FOR SALE—No. 102. 105 acres, 12 miles of Eugene; 60 acres in cultivation; rest in timber and pasture; well fenced; no improvements. Price $200 per acre. Good terms. H. E. Owen, 536 Willamette. 128

NOT CHEAP LAND—(We don't handle that kind) but high grade fruit, nut and garden land in small tracts at reasonable prices. Willamette Land Co., rooms 2 and 3 Cherry block. 127

FOR SALE—No. 125. 164 acres of land, 12 miles of Eugene; no improvements. There are between 3 and 4 million feet of timber on it; close to a sawmill. This is a snap and will not last long at the very low price, $1700. Terms cash. H. E. Owen, 536 Willamette. 128

FOR SALE—The Guard job printing department is prepared to turn out all kinds of commercial stationery, books and pamphlet work, promptly and under the supervision of expert workmen. Prices are always reasonable.

FOR SALE—Say, hadn't you better consider this, just think, 40 acre right in the heart of Pleasant Hill just on the market; the nicest place for a home; elegant fruit land, right at the finest high school in the county and nearly every bit in cultivation. This is the best snap of the season and won't last long. Better hurry, only $80 per acre; other small tracts will follow this sale; only last week a tract right across this sold for $200 per acre. E. C. Statton, Pleasant Hill, phone Springfield Farmers 191. 127

FOR SALE BY OWNER—Modern house, new, 9 rooms besides closets; sleeping porch; large front porch and basement; fine view; 3 blocks from either car line; lot 71x145, facing west on Fairmount boulevard at east end of 17th st.; street 80 feet wide and macadamized; good spring; city water connected; chimney for furnace; hot air pipes, electric lights; plumbed for toilet, bath, hand basin, sink and hot water tank. A bargain at $1099. Mrs. J. A. Holloway, Eugene, Oregon. 128

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—6-room house at 235 Jefferson street; good well; $10. 127

FOR RENT—6-room house, 325 Pearl street; sewer, bath, gas, electric lights; $15 per month, water free. Call at above number. 127

FOR RENT—Modern, furnished flat; bath. Schneider flats, W. Elgin street. 127

FOR RENT—Store room at 41 E. 9th st., 25x114 feet; double front, 9th and Park sts.; good location for any business; cheap rent. W. S. Moon, 63 E. 9th st., over store. 127

FOR RENT—Good six-room house close in; Has city water, sewer, lights, bath; well located. $15 per month. H. E. Owen, 536 Willamette. Main 475. 128

PASTURE FOR RENT—We are taking in all kinds of stock to pasture on the E. M. Warren place, 2-1/2 miles south west. See man in charge on place, G. W. Brown, route 3, box 20. 127

FOR RENT—New and finely furnished rooms on first and second floors; single and in suites; for light housekeeping. Light, heat, bath and cold water; 2 blocks from Willamette st. 136 E. 7th street. 127

TO RENT—120-acre farm 8 1-2 miles southwest of Eugene; 80 acres plow land, balance pasture; six-room house, barns, granary, hog pen, hen house and other buildings; water piped to house and watering trough; some strawberries and other fruit on place. For terms inquire of Gilbert Zacher, 439 W. 8th st. 128

WANTED. 127

WANTED—Bookkeeper; lady preferred. Address "G. M." care Guard. 128

WANTED—Good plain cook to do housework for family of two; very small house. Apply Mrs. Wm. S. Hall, Natron, Oregon. 127

TO TRADE—Property in Eugene valued at $1600 to exchange for small fruit or poultry ranch not more than five or six miles from Eugene. Address "Exchange," care Guard. dwj30

WANTED TO TRADE—On account of school, my 45-acre farm, for a house and lot near school, up to $2000, balance $500 cash or time. This is the finest apple land in Douglas county, 1 1/4 mile from town; sloping north and west. Small house, crops, etc., with the place. Address F. E. Tompkins, Yoncalla, Oregon. 130

MISCELLANEOUS. 127

12 PER CENT INTEREST—If interested, see Webster Kinsaid, 81 E. Ninth street, Eugene, Oregon. 127

WOOD-SAWYER—Prompt service; satisfaction guaranteed. Fred Davis, 926 Ferry street. Phone Red 3162. a15

CHARLES KINGWELL, Florist. Cut flowers, potted plants and carnations in fine assortment. West Springfield greenhouse. Telephone Main 54. 127

R. E. OVERMAN, Halsey, Ore., legal adviser in land titles, member of the National Co-operative Realty Co. Notary Public for Oregon, and I am the owner of a few land option contracts that I have with the view of selling, which I will show anyone interested, what I am getting for the use of my money by so doing. I have a large list of farms and city property for sale at all times, also business propositions, and mining stock in the Boyle Consolidated Mines Co., of Colorado. I will help you buy, build or sell your home. My price.

LOST AND FOUND. 127

LOST—Back comb, set with brilliant, lost between Creswell and Goshen Saturday evening, July 23. Finder please leave at Guard office. Reward. 128dw

SENATOR BROWN

CHAIRMAN AT LINCOLN

Lincoln, Neb., July 26.—The state convention of the republican party of Nebraska met at noon and organized, with United States Senator Morris Brown temporary chairman.

The sentiment of the convention is divided on the question of regulating the liquor traffic by the county option plan.

Lincoln, Neb., July 26.—In assuming the temporary chairmanship of the Nebraska republican state convention, United States Senator Morris Brown spoke only along general political lines, making no allusions to the questions uppermost in the minds of the delegates—the endorsement of the "insurgency" of some of Nebraska's congressmen, and the county option plan of regulating the liquor traffic.

Mentioning the democratic state convention being held today at Grand Island, Neb., Senator Brown declared that it is useless for democrats to fight over a platform as a democratic platform is "neither useful nor ornamental." He said:

"No one has ever pretended that that act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

That act was perfect. Its warmest friends have always admitted its imperfections. But notwithstanding its imperfections with the information congress had at the time, it was a better law than the law it superseded and is entitled to the commendation and support of the American people as a step toward the relief of the public from the duties of the Dingley law, which the country had outgrown."

"The men who make it forget it and the men who are elected on it are expected to repudiate it."

In support of this declaration he cited the record of democrats in the last congress. He said:

"The last national platform pledged the party to free lumber, but they voted against free lumber. They promised a postal savings bank. They kept their promise in the senate by casting 31 out of 32 votes in that body against it. They promised the people free coal; they voted for a duty on coal. They promised free iron ore they voted 'no' on the proposition."

Contrasting this record with that of the republican party, Senator Brown said:

"Fourteen years ago when McKinley was chosen president on the pledge that he would pass a tariff law with protection to American industries in it, he kept the pledge and the country prospered. Five years later Roosevelt succeeded to the presidency and in 1904 when re-elected by the people he promised to carry out the McKinley policies and retain the protective policies of McKinley's tariff act, he, too, kept the pledge and the country continued to prosper. When four years later, in 1908, William H. Taft was chosen president on the pledge to revise the tariff law but to retain its protective principles, he likewise kept his faith and the country still prospered."

The conservation law, the postal savings bank law, the admission of Arizona and New Mexico, the provision for a tariff board to investigate and report facts relating to manufacturing and commerce, were