New Fall and Winter Suits

To Meet the Demand

$14.95 $16.50 $18.95 $24.75

Haven't you noticed how few stores are ready with popular priced suits this season? Well, it was only foresight on our part together with good fortune, that allowed us to be prepared. Way back in the early part of June we had a hint of the labor troubles in New York and contracted for immediate delivery on popular priced garments to sell at the above prices. There are some suits today that would bring fully one-third more; you are welcome to look and you have our assurance you won't be urged to buy.

OUR POLICY

For over ten years the policy of this establishment has been as high in its ideals as it has been simple in its text—namely, "Deal Honorably." You can rely on us when purchasing here, having perfect confidence in anything that comes from this store, because our policy is founded on the rock of honest dealing and we are more anxious to have things right than you are.

The wonderful growth of this business did not just happen. It is a result of business honor that began with the first day's business and it has been rigidly lived up to this day.
