ASSEMBLY LOSES MOST PLACES ON STATE TICKET

Republican Nominees

Governor—Jay Bowerman.
Representative in Congress, First District—W. C. Hawley.
Representative in Congress, Second District—A. W. Lafferty.
Judges Supreme Court, 4-year term—H. J. Bean and T. A. McBride.
Judges Supreme Court, 6-year term—G. H. Burnett, F. A. Moore.
Secretary of State—F. A. Benson.
State Treasurer—T. B. Kay.
Attorney General—A. M. Crawford.
School Superintendent—L. R. Alderman.
State Printer—W. S. Duniway.
Commissioner of Labor—in doubt.
Railroad Commissioner—Frank J. Miller.
State Engineer—John H. Lewis.
Water Superintendent, Division 1—J. T. Chinnock.

Portland, Or., Sept. 26.—Jay Bowerman, assembly candidate, on account of approximately two-thirds of the votes cast in the primary election of Saturday, has won the nomination for governor of Oregon by a plurality of 3500 to 4000 over Grant B. Dimick, of Oregon City, with Ernest Hofer, of Salem, third, and Albert Abraham, of Roseburg, fourth.

More nearly complete returns from Multnomah county and the state at large received yesterday do not materially change the forecast given yesterday on the remainder of the ticket. These returns seem to indicate conclusively the defeat of Ralph W. Hoyt, the assembly candidate for state Treasurer, by Thomas B. Kay by a majority of several thousand.

Crawford's 10,000 Lead Growing

For Attorney General, A. M. Crawford, on the latest returns, shows a majority over J. N. Hart, the assembly candidate, of about 10,000 which will be increased by the belated returns.

W. S. Duniway, the present state printer, has also defeated W. J. Clarke, assembly candidate, by a wide margin. Duniway now shows a majority of more than 8000 over Clarke, and each later report increases Duniway's lead.

The closest contest is between O. P. Hoff, asembly candidate for commissioner of labor statistics, and G. M. Orton. The closest returns, so far compiled, give Hoff 12,332 and Orton 12,397. While Orton is thus shown to have a slight lead, an analysis of the count indicates the election to Hoff. Mr. Hoff ran behind Orton about 1000 votes in Multnomah county, but on the returns so far received from other counties is nearly up with his opponent.

For suerintendent of water division No. 1, J. T. Chinnock has a strong lead over F. K. Gettin and is undoubtedly nominated. Mr. Gettin had the assembly endorsement.

Hawley's Lead Growing

For representative in congress from the First district the incomplete returns give W. C. Hawley a majority over B. F. Mulkey of 1646, but in these figures less than two-thirds of the vote cast is represented. On the final returns, estimating the vote on the way it is shown in the incomplete figures, Representative Hawley will be nominated for re-election by a majority over his opponent of approximately 3000.

In the second congressional district Representative Ellis is defeated for nomination for re-election by between 2800 and 3000 by A. W. Lafferty, as now indicated. On the vote so far reported Lafferty has a lead of 2893, in cluding the votes of all counties reported.

In Douglas County

Roseburg, Or., Sept. 26.—For representative from Douglas county, assembly candidates—Benjamin Huntington and George Neuner are nominated over the three anti-assembly opponents, Wade, Wixson and Jones, by a vote of nearly 2 to 1.

Among the successful republican county candidates for the nomination are J. C. Fullerton, county judge; George K. Quinn, sheriff; James Sawyers, treasurer; William Emory, clerk; Frank Cain, surveyor, and J. S. Wiley, commissioner.

Democratic county officers nominated are: G. W. Wonacott, county judge; B. Fenton, sheriff; E. H. Lenox, clerk, and Harry Rice, treasurer.

For joint representative—Austin 91; Reed, 34.

In Linn County

Albany, Or., Sept. 26.—For county oficers the succesful candidates in the republican primaries are: Willard L. Marks, county clerk; Grant Froman, for county recorder; W. W. Francis, for treasurer; Alfred L. Geddes, for surveyor; William Fortmiller, for coroner; O. H. Russell, for commissioner. The vote on sheriff is very close, with A. M. Templeton leading Sol Lindley by 28 votes, with five precincts to hear from.

Democratic nominees for county offices are: D. S. Smith, for sheriff; George M. Devaney, for recorder; W. A. Kimsey, for treasurer, and C. H. Elswick, for commissioner.

Anti-Assembly Wins

Portland, Or., Sept. 26.—The anti-assembly candidates made almost a clean sweep in Multnomah county. The winners are:

State Senator, Clackamas, Columbia and Multnomah—Dan J. Malarkey, by 4616 votes.

Representative, Clackamas and Multnomah—W. H. Chatten, by 2389 votes.

State Senator, Multnomah county—George W. Joseph, by 2387 votes.

State Senator, Multnomah county—James K. Locke, by 4228 votes.

Representatives—James D. Abbott, C. A. Bigelow, James M. Ambrose, J. C. Bryant, W. J. Clemens, James Cole, A. G. Rushlight, W. I. Cottell, Stephen Collins, Ralph C. Clyde, Seneca Fouts and Edwin G. Amme.

County Judge—T. J. Cletton.

County Commissioner—D. V. Hart, by 748 votes.

Sheriff—Robert L. Stevens, by 6567 votes.

County Clerk—Frank S. Fields, by 1536 votes.

County Treasurer—John M. Lewis.

County Auditor—Samuel B. Martin, by 4190 votes.

County Surveyor—Philo Holbrook.

County Coroner—Ben L. Norden, by 2048 votes.

Justices of Peace, Multnomah District—Fred L. Olson and J. W. Bell, by 1773 and 885 votes.

Constable, Multnomah District—Andy Wineberger, by 333 votes.

Preachers for Hawley

Hillsboro, Or., Sept. 25.—The total vott in yesterday's primaries was approximately 1250 and the result furnished several surprises.

Hawley was given a two to one vote over Mulkey, but nearly 100 votes which went to Hawley came from the visiting ministers in the Methodist conference here, who voted the district ticket on affidavit.
