

Los Angeles, Oct. 3 .- Seven bodies have been taken from e ruins of the Times building since a force of 300 men from e city street department began the work of clearing away the reckage. Two were identified as J. Wesley Reaves, private cretary to Assistant General Manager Harry Chandler, of the mes, and Elmer Frink, one of the Linotype operators.

Seventeen men are now in the city jail booked as suspects. owever, the best clue so far obtained came from the offices of e Giant Powder Company, of San Francisco, where it was said vo men, named Boylston and Morris, and a third man purased 500 pounds of explosives similar in power and kind to at found in the infernal machine discovered at the home of F. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' ssociation. This clue is regarded as very important, and dectives and others have gone to San Francisco to take up the read. A man is believed to have come south on a boat with e explosive.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK GUARD, EUGENE, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1910

The investigation of the charges of bribery being made by a congressional committee against Senator William Lorimer of Illinois at the latter's request has commenced at Chicago and promises to last for several weeks. The committee, of which Senator J. C. Burrows is chairman, consists of Senators Heyburn of Idaho, Dillingham of Vermont, Gamble of South Dakota, Frazier of Tennessee and Johnson of Alabama. These men are examining wit-nesses in Chicago and will likely visit Springfield, BL, to take testimony. The report of the committee is not expected before the coming session of congress.
