

BODY OF MAN FOUND IN TRUNK WHERE IT WAS SEALED UP OVER FIVE YEARS AGO

New York, Nov. 18.—Pending the inquest planned for today over a body found hermetically sealed in a trunk in the cellar of a West Fifty-fourth street apartment house, the authorities are not inclined to theorize. The body is known to have reposed in its hiding place for five years or more and is reduced almost to a skeleton, making difficult the fixing of its sex, although the smallness of the frame indicates it was a woman.

The body was discovered by Philip Meagher when he was preparing to move. He opened the trunk and found the body jammed in it, surrounded by quantities of plaster of paris and papers. The only clue is the name of W. Lewis on the outside of the trunk. Lewis was a boarder in the Meagher family up to six years ago. He told Meagher he was going away and would leave the trunk and call for it later. The zinc tank inside the trunk fits perfectly. The newspapers in the trunk are dated from February 18 to April 17, 1902.

Later Coroner's Physician Lehane, with Professor John McAllister, of Bellevue, made an examination of the body and found it to be that of a man. The surgeons declared he was placed in the trunk still alive, his death resulting from asphyxiation.

JACK THE GRABBER HAS APPEARED ONCE MORE

The despicable wretch known to the public as Jack the Grabber, who for the past two years has annoyed various women and girls of Eugene by grabbing them by the ankles and then disappearing in the darkness, appeared again early last evening, but this time the object of his attack was caught by the shoulders and the fellow was evidently trying to put his arms around the lady's neck when she screamed, whereupon he ran. The lady is the wife of a well-known educator. This occurred at the corner of East Twelfth and Mill streets, just opposite one of the University fraternity houses. Some of the students in the house at the time heard the lady's screams, and being told the direction in which the man ran, they set out on bicycles after him but were unable to locate him. The police were notified but they were unable to find any trace of the wretch.

The police recently made a quiet investigation as to the identity of the fellow and now have a pretty good idea who he is, but cannot at this time prove anything on the person suspected of being guilty of the outrages. They will continue the investigations and have hopes of catching him in the act in the near future.

NOTICE

The three best thieves caught at Harrisburg a few days ago with a haul of some provisions which they had stolen from the Booth-Kelly company at Coburg, were today charged with larceny in a house, it being decided not to prefer a charge of burglary against them. The case against Homer Williams and Harry Conroy were dismissed, but Harry Conroy was bound over to appear in the circuit court for trial. Williams and Conroy were placed under bonds of $100 to appear as witnesses. They were unable to furnish the bonds and were locked up with Conroy.

SENATOR BOURNE ON "OREGON SYSTEM"

Discusses Subject Before American Academy of Political and Social Science

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—An exposition of the much-discussed "Oregon system," which he declared to be the "best system of government in the world," was the contents of an address delivered by United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Oregon, before the American Academy of Political and Social Science at its opening session here last night. The senator declared the initiative and referendum "the keystone of the arch of popular government," and set forth in detail the reasons for his belief, analyzing as well the other features of the Oregon system.

In his address, Senator Bourne argued that the initiative educates and develops the people by compelling them to study public questions and placing upon them the responsibility for all laws. It gives every man an opportunity to submit his ideas to the people, providing eight per cent of them believe his ideas worthy of submission to popular vote; thus the speaker argued, there is a tendency to lift all people to the plane of the most advanced.

"Laws proposed under the initiative," said Senator Bourne, "are not subject to amendment and, therefore, cannot be made the means of enacting 'jokers,' as has often been done in the case of measures enacted by the legislature. Legislative blackmail and grants of special privilege are made impossible by the referendum."

The people of Oregon are satisfied with their system of direct legislation, and it has not been unreasonably oppressive.

Oregon has elected three United States senators by popular vote. Explaining the manner in which a democrat was elected senator in Oregon, Senator Bourne said that 51 out of 90 members of the Oregon legislature had subscribed to what is known as "Statement No. 1," a pledge, in which a member of the legislature pledges himself to the people to always vote for that candidate for United States senator who has received the largest number of votes for that office at the general election. In pursuance of such pledge, the legislature elected a democrat who had received the largest number of votes.

Senator Bourne advocated extending the direct primary to the selection of candidates for president and vice-president and of delegates to national conventions, thus relieving presidents of any obligations to men who make and manipulate conventions.

SEVERAL PRECINCTS VOTED AGAINST STOCK RUNNING AT LARGE

Camp Creek, Blanton, Thurston, Fairmount, Irving and Bailey Decide Matter

A number of precincts of Lane county at the recent election voted upon the question of whether or not to allow stock to run at large within their respective boundaries. In each precinct there was a majority against it, and hereafter cattle, hogs, horses and other livestock will have to be kept inside enclosures within the territory in which a vote was taken on the question. The precincts are as follows: Irving, Camp Creek, Blanton, Thurston, Bailey and Fairmount. Blanton and Bailey adjoin Eugene and Fairmount is a part of Eugene, although the precinct runs several miles south. There has always been trouble in these three precincts about stock wandering into the city and becoming impounded. Now that the voters have decided to keep the animals up there will be little or no annoyance in this regard unless the stock breaks out of the fields. County Clerk Lee is publishing a proclamation to the effect that these precincts voted to keep stock up, and the law will become effective in sixty days. The penalty is a $10 fine for the first offense and $20 for each subsequent offense.

SAN FRANCISCO HAS 416,912 POPULATION

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—The movement for "Greater San Francisco," received an impetus today following the announcement from Washington last night that the population of the California metropolis was 416,912, compared with 342,728 in 1900.

The figures presented by those favoring amalgamation of the bay cities are: San Francisco, 416,912; Oakland, 150,174; Berkeley, 49,434; Alameda, 23,352. Total 639,902.

In addition to these figures five other towns in Alameda county number, 18,836; 14 in Marion county, 19,090; nine in San Mateo county, 16,610; or a total of 54,536, bringing the grand total to 685,229, not including the scattered population in the counties in the vicinity of the towns that would be annexed. Conservatively figured, Greater San Francisco would exceed 700,000 persons.

San Francisco has gained 74,120 or 21.6 per cent since 1909, in spite of the earthquake and fire.

JURY IN SECOND PERRY-HUNT CASE FAVORS DEFENDANTS

Railroad Sub-Contractor Fails to Secure Judgment in Case No. 2

The jury in the second case of George Perry vs. W. B. Hunt & Son to recover money for work alleged to have been done on the Natron extension, returned a verdict last evening in favor of the defendants.

This morning the case of William H. Ward vs. James McGee, to recover damages or the return of a horse, was called in the circuit court and a jury as follows taken: John H. Perkins, Jens J. Jensen, Clate K. Warner, I. N. Dresser, S. A. Rhinevault, Henry Chilson, C. J. Baker, A. W. McLaughlin, E. J. Marquis, E. N. Sharp, B. P. Howard and Joseph Wicks. The case was on trial at a late hour this afternoon.

In the case of Dave Markley vs. J. E. Young, to recover money, a judgment by default was taken today for the sum of $323.60, with attorney's fees of $35.

CARL FISCHER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Springfield, Nov. 18.—Carl Fischer, one of the owners of the Fischer Daily sawmill, had a narrow escape from death Wednesday, and he owes his life to the quick presence of mind displayed when he plunged into the mill pond ahead of a flying log. He was helping unload a car of logs into the pond and one of the larger logs caught on the edge of the car. In trying to dislodge it, he

EUGENE HIGH WINS FROM COTTAGE GROVE

In the Eugene-Cottage Grove high school football game on Kinsaid field this afternoon Eugene had scored 23 and Cottage Grove 6 up to the latter part of the third quarter. The lads from "Nesmith" were outclassed in every department of the game, but put up a plucky fight.

The Commercial club has printed a large number of ordinary shipping tags with appropriate inscriptions, as souvenir mailing cards advertising the state dairymen's convention in Eugene December 8 and 9. stood in front of it and worked with his heavy. In an unexpected manner the stick became free and bore down on top of him. Dropping his bar he plunged headlong into the pond ahead of the timber, which struck him after he was in the water but did not injure him. Had there been another log in the pond he would have been mashed or had he failed to leap it would have meant instant death. This is the second time, it is said, that Mr. Fischer has escaped from a rolling log in this manner.

A number of farmers above Springfield have bought a fine Belgian stallion from the A. C. Ruby company of Portland, and will use the animal for breeding purposes to better their grade of horses. The Van Tyne, a representative of the Ruby Company is here, and has delivered the animal to the new owners. The stallion weighs 2,000 pounds, is a mahogany bay and was ordered from Belgium in August of this year. The farmers who made the purchase are: August Vitus, Dan T. Spores, G. W. Spores, L. H. Harris, D. A. Conley, C. G. Coe, W. C. Brunson, and F. B. Vaughn. The price paid for the animal was $3300.

WOMEN BATTLE WITH LONDON POLICEMEN

London, Nov. 18.—Suffragettes, under the leadership of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, made an attack upon parliament soon after the session opened today. Twelve women and one man were arrested.

The suffragettes marched, one thousand strong, on the parliament buildings and gave the police a lively fight. They had determined upon forcing the police cordon and reaching Premier Asquith, to insist on the introduction of a woman suffrage bill, but the police were too strongly entrenched and the women were thrown back. Repeatedly they required breathless and disheveled, only to have their places in the fighting line taken by reserves. Arrests continued and at three o'clock twenty-one women and two men were in the cells.

Later the leaders of the demonstration, headed by Mrs. Pankhurst, were allowed to enter the lobby chamber, where they were informed by Asquith's secretary that the premier refused to see them and that there was no chance for a suffragette bill to be presented to that session. The total number of arrests during the day was 150.
