

SOCIETY

The formal dancing party given Friday evening by the Assembly Club was one of the prettiest, as well as one of the most elaborate parties ever given by the Eugene society. The Osborn Hotel was the scene of the gaiety, and its large dining room and beautiful tea room were profusely decorated for the occasion. Cut flowers and baskets of ferns were hung from the chandeliers, and massed along the plate-rail. The patroness corner was fitted out with palms and pictures, until it was a veritable reception room.

Mrs. H. E. Ankeny, Mrs. D. A. Paine, Mrs. C. S. Dillon, Mrs. Chas. W. Williams, Mrs. Minnie Washburn, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass and Mrs. S. H. Friendly were in the receiving line. The ball started promptly at nine o'clock, the grand march being led by Miss Hazel McNair and Mr. Elmer Paine. The young people danced until nearly midnight, at which time, all adjourned to the tea room, where an elaborate luncheon was served. Among the guests of the evening were:

Wednesday was a day of great importance to the people interested in the welfare of the University of Oregon. On the success of this day to some extent, depended the granting of the four hundred thousand dollar appropriation, which would enable the University to make some advancement during the next year. To the people of Eugene, as headed by the Commercial Club, and to the alumni of the University is due the credit of the great things accomplished. The Commercial Club named the banquet and entertainment provided, but the alumni are the ones to be thanked. Mrs. Louis Bean acted as chairman of the day, and her success is unquestioned.

The men of the legislature, the guests, arrived in Eugene on a special train about twelve o'clock. They were immediately taken in automobiles to the men's gymnasium where a splendid luncheon was served. The decorations of the tables and rooms were beautiful. Scores of pennants were hung from the railing of the gallery, which gave a distinctly college air to the hall. Oregon grape and hanging baskets of ferns filled every available nook and corner. Pink carnations and pink candles in silver candelabra formed the table decorations and no more beautiful ones could have been found. Mrs. R. S. Bryson was chairman of the decorating committee and to her many praises have been sung.

Place cards in Oregon colors were placed at each plate, and these served as splendid little souvenirs of the day. As the guests came into the hall they were introduced to the receiving line, which comprised Mrs. and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. Louis Bean, Mrs. Collier, Mrs. L. T. Harris, Mrs. Hug, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. H. P. McCornack, Prof. Dunn, and Prof. Straub, by Messrs. Louis Bean and Allan Eaton.

Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mrs. E. R. Bryson had charge of the serving of the luncheon. They were ably assisted by the younger girls of the alumnae and some of the college students.

At three the guests adjourned to Villard hall, where an assembled meeting of all the fraternity students and alumnae was held. At the close of this assembly, which lasted till about five o'clock, the ladies were driven in machines to the Osborn hotel for dinner. The glee club and Hendershott's orchestra furnished music while the courses were being served.

Mr. E. S. Rolfe of Eugene acted as toastmaster. The following men either responded to toasts or gave informal talks: Mr. Helmas Thompson, Mr. J. W. Williams, Mr. Bigelow, (Multnomah county), Mrs. Singnot (Dallas), Mr. Bowerman and Mr. Ben Selling. All these men offered encouragement to the University men and promised to deal most fairly with Oregon. The day was thoroughly enjoyed by all, as was fittingly told by Mr. Ben Selling, who gave thanks to the Eugene people and the people of the University, in behalf of the legislators.

Mrs. Seth Lataway was hostess to the Bridge Club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Edmundson was the most fortunate of the ladies at the evening's entertainment, and won the first prize. Mr. Frank Page carried off the honors for the gentlemen.

The special guest of the club for Tuesday was Mrs. Adelaide Lilley. The club members present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Travis, Dr. and Mrs. Studley, Mr. and Mrs. Edmundson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mink, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Goldsmith, Miss Martha McPherson assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

The Alpha Xi Chapter, of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity of the University, held its annual re-union banquet at the Hotel Osborn Friday evening, January 27th is the fraternity's national birthday, and the day is celebrated by every chapter throughout the country. The dinner Friday was served in the tea room of the hotel. The table was decorated in the colors of the fraternity, which added greatly to the appearance of the whole scene. After the dinner an informal dancing party was held at the club house, to which the young men were invited.

The "Cradle Roll," a new organization in the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson. It was not a business meeting, but more of a social gathering, although the ladies took several measures to perfect the organization of the club. Toward the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilkinson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Dorothy.

The Woman's Republican patriotic League met this afternoon with Mrs. Geo. Hall, Sr. An interesting paper was read by Miss Laura Harris, which was very much enjoyed by the club members. The second part of the program was in charge of Miss Ethel Scieffe, who entertained the club with a discussion on art, a subject which she studied very thoroughly, while at Smith College. The afternoon was exceedingly pleasant and thoroughly entertaining.

Mrs. Robert C. Clarke was the charming hostess to a few of her friends last Saturday afternoon. The rooms of the cordy home were decorated in scarlet carnations and cut ferns. The afternoon was pleasantly spent at cards until about four, at which time Mrs. Clarke served a luncheon to her guests. She was assisted in serving by Miss Julia Glen. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Clarke's hospitality were Mrs. C. D. Emmons, Mrs. Collier, Mrs. F. G. Young, Mrs. I. M. Glen, Mrs. Minnie Washburne, Mrs. Geo. De Bar, Mrs. Loomis, Miss Nellie Loomis, Mrs. John C. Bovard, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Geo. McClain.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was entertained

Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Timothy Cloran and Mrs. J. J. Holt, at the home of Mr. Cloran. A large number of visitors were present, which added greatly to the interest and pleasure of the afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses to their guests.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Alex Cockerline was tendered a delightful surprise party by a number of her friends. The ladies came during the early part of the afternoon with their sewing, to spend the time with needlework and merry conversation. About six the husbands of the ladies joined them to share in the splendid dinner which the covered baskets contained.

Those who helped with this party were Dr. and Mrs. Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hard, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. William Preston, Mrs. Laura Harris, Mrs. Emma Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mink.

The Aid Society of the Methodist church held its regular monthly social meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Calkins. An especially large number of ladies were present to spend the afternoon in sewing together. The hostesses were Mrs. Calkins, Mrs. E. E. Mink, Mrs. R. C. Clark and Mrs. Theo. Miller.

The Tete-a-Tete Club was entertained this afternoon by Miss Katherine Henderson at her pleasant home on East Sixth street. The members of the club brought their needlework and spent a very happy afternoon together. Miss Henderson served a luncheon at about five o'clock.

Mrs. Richard Dearborn entertained the Charity Club at her pretty home Thursday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was spent by the guests and leave taking time came only too soon. The special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. T. Tuk, (Ohio), and Mrs. E. J. Fraiser.

Mrs. Frederick G. Young entertained very informally Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Dearborn, (Seattle), mother of Mr. Richard Dearborn. The few ladies invited brought their needlework and spent the afternoon sewing. Those present were Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. R. S.

Dearborn, Mrs. Minnie Washburn, Mrs. DeBar, Mrs. I. M. Glen, Mrs. Mary Packard, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Mrs. Packard and Mrs. Young.

The "Kaffe Klatsch" met Thursday afternoon at the home of Frau E. C. Hughes. These meetings are intensely popular with the club members and each appointed day is sure to be greeted by a full attendance. Frau Hughes' guests were Frau F. G. Young, Frau W. F. Osburn, Frau J. Pipes, Frau Julius Goldsmith, Frau DuBois, Frau Dearborn, Frau Schauscher, Frau Potter and Frau Lilley.

The teachers' training class of the Y. M. C. A. spent an enjoyable social evening at home of the Misses Lee on West Sixth street Friday evening. A goodly number were present. The entertainment planned by the committee afforded an excellent opportunity for the display of wit and repartee. The refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion.

This class meets every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building under the direction of Prof. Billington. A still larger number of young men and women also, who would like to have a clearer understanding of the Bible should take advantage of this class.

Since the organization of the Assembly and Benedict Clubs there has been a revival of dancing in Eugene society. Many of those elderly people who had given up dancing for more staid entertainment may be found at the dancing academy most any afternoon taking private lessons and practicing in this most enjoyable pastime.

Miss Bessie Davenport of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Otto Gilstrap, 649 Patterson street. Miss Davenport and Mrs. Gilstrap formerly lived in Petosky, Michigan.

Miss Irene Applegate, 106 East Eleventh street, entertained informally Wednesday evening of this week for Miss Bessie Davenport of Portland, who is visiting Mrs. Otto Gilstrap.

Eugene society folk read with regret the announcement in The Guard this week that Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt soon intend to leave for Walla Walla, Wash., or Nyssa, Or., to

Words by HARRY WILLIAMS

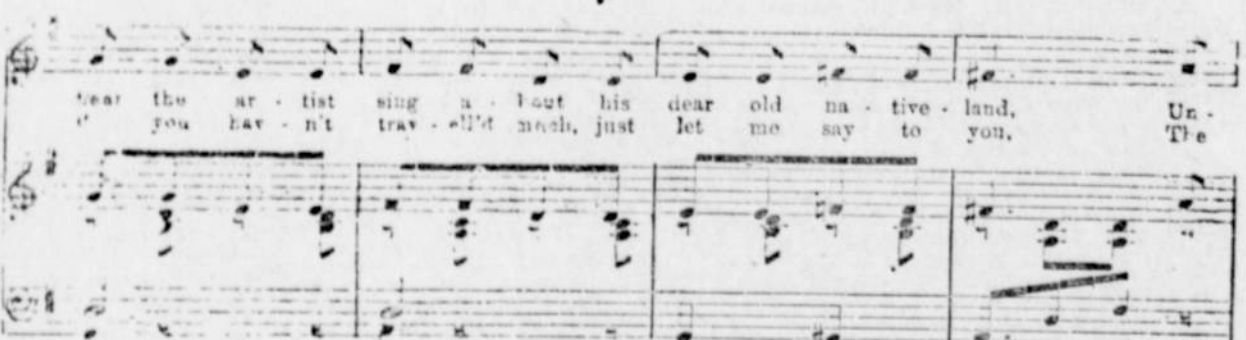

Music by ROBERT VAN ALSTYNE

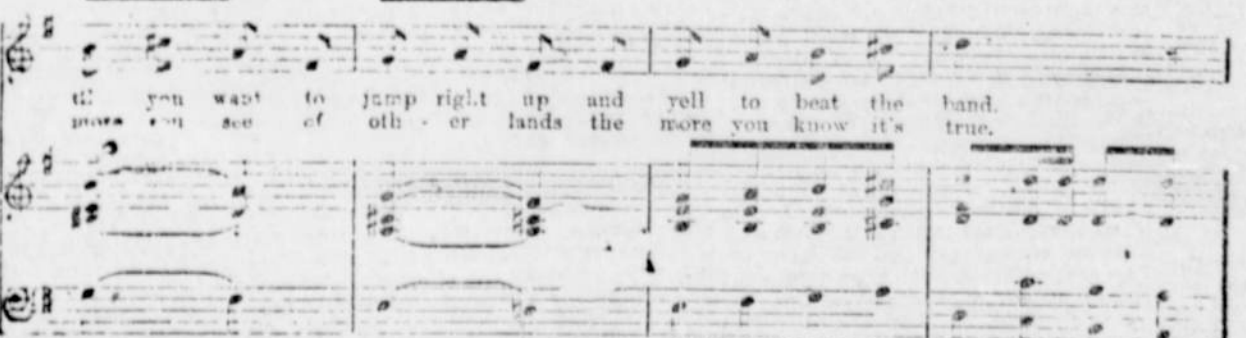

1. Oh, did you ever take a trip across the roll-ing
2. It's hu-man for a man to love the na-tion of his

And drop in to a Mu-sic Hall in Lon-don, or Pa-ree? Then We all want to see the mer-i-ca the great-est land on earth. And hear the ar-tist sing a-foot his dear old na-tive-land, Un-you hav-n't trav-el'd nash, just let me say to you, The

If you want to jump right up and yell to beat the band, you see of oth-er lands the more you know it's true.
