PACIFIC METROPOLIS WILD WITH JOY WHEN NEWS OF VICTORY IS FLASHED OVER WIRES

San Francisco, Jan. 31 .- Following the news flashed from the national capital, telling that the house had voted in favor of the Western metropolis for the site of the proposed world's fair, San Francisco gave itself up to wild manifestations of joy. Bombs were exploded, whistles shrieked and bells clanged forth the news. Everywhere it was felt the battle was virtually won. and that only faint doubt remained of the ultimate result, when both houses of congress shall vote on the measure inviting the nations of the earth to unite in celebrating here the completion of the canal connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and city for a few days. bringing the ports of Europe thousands of miles nearer the Falls, arrived in Eugene this morn-Golden Gate.
