Eugene society is indeed indebted to Mrs. M. F. Griggs, Mrs. Chas. H. Fisher and Mrs. David Link for two delightful affairs this week. The beautiful home of Mrs. Griggs on East Eleventh street was most attractive with its decorations of pink carnations, smilax and Oregon grape on Tuesday afternoon when the ladies were invited for whist, at which prizes were won by Mrs. R. S. Bryson and Mrs. J. W. Buoy. On Wednesday needlework and a guessing contest were the diversions for a pleasant afternoon. In the guessing contest Mrs. W. G. Allen won the first prize and Mrs. M. D. Beals the second. In serving luncheon, which carried out the pink color scheme the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Lulu Hartley, Miss Irene Applegate, Miss Grace Magladry and Mrs. Henry Schwering.

On Tuesday the guests were Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mrs. B. L. Bogart, Mrs. R. S. Bryson, Mrs. W. P. Boynton, Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mrs. G. S. Beardsley, Mrs. W. C. Yoran, Mrs. I. H. Bingham, Mrs. M. J. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Travis were delightful hosts at a dinner party given at their home on Olive street. The table decorations were violets and places were laid for the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Prentice, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. York, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pratt, Major Edwards, Mrs. Hayes (Baker City), Dr. G. Wall, Judge Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Edmunson. In serving, Miss Emma Travis and Miss Nellie Beaufield assited the hostess.

Mrs. Stephen Tinker was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club on Thursday afternoon. The guests of the club were Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mrs. C. B. Willoughby, Mrs. G. S. Beardsley and Mrs. J. K. Pratt. Mrs. Laraway entertains at the next meeting.

♠ ♠ ♠

Miss Elizabeth Howe entertained the Tete-a-Tete club at her home on Twelfth street this afternoon. Sewing and conversation, followed by a delicious luncheon, was the order of the afternoon. The table decorations were suggestive of Valentine day, hearts and cupids and the red color scheme being carried out in the decorations. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Frank Loomis (Portland), was the guest of the club.

♠ ♠ ♠

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. F. L. Chambers gave a dinner party for her daughter, Miss Mary Chambers, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. The dinner table around which eighteen of her friends assembled, was most beautiful in its appointments. Pink rosebuds and candles in the same shade adorned the table. The place cards were also rosebuds done in water colors. The dinner was served by Mrs. Chambers. The guests were Miss Evelyn Bristow, Miss Meta Goldsmith, Miss Cosby Gilstrap, Miss Vena Taylor, Miss Grace Bingham, Miss Gladys Wilkins, Miss Ethel Gibson, Miss Juanita Wilkins, Mss Ruth Roach, Miss Helene DeLano, Miss Merle Lill, Miss Katherine Watson, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Katherine Northrup, Miss Nora Matterude, Miss Lucile Dunn, Miss Flora Patterson, and Miss Leon Griffin.

♠ ♠ ♠

Miss Jaca Willoughby entertained the Women's Republican Patriotic League this afternoon at her home on East Twelfth street. After the regular business meeting two interesting papers were read by Mrs. Wm. Preston and Mrs. E. E. Mink. During the social hour which followed, refreshments were served by the hostess. The guests of the club were Mrs. Fay and Mrs. Mary Yerington. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Wm. Kuykendall in two weeks.

♠ ♠ ♠

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Buoy entertained in a most informal manner a few friends in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Zurcher of Roseburg. Several hours were most enjoyably spent with whist, Mr. Zurcher being awarded the evening trophy. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tinker, Mr. and Mrs. Zurcher, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Bingham, and Mrs. U'Ren.

♠ ♠ ♠

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. E. E. DeCou entertained a few ladies in honor of Mrs. H. S. Wilkinson. Needlework and a contest, followed by a delicious luncheon, characterized the afternoon. Those invited to meet Mrs. Wilkinson were Mrs. Geo. DeBar, Mrs. Lischen Miller, Mrs. R. A. Booth, Mrs. E. O. Potter, Miss Mary Perkins, Dr. Bertha Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. C. D. Emmons, Mrs. Charlotte Zieber, Miss Julia Burgess, Mrs. F. G. G. Schmidt, Miss Barker and Mrs. Timothy Cloran.

The Shakespeare club met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. P. K. Hammond. They are now devoting their hour of study to Anthony and Cleopatra.

The Thimble Club meets next Thursday afternoon February 16, with Mrs. F. L. Chambers, at her home on West Seventh street.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Jennie U'Ren entertained informally a few friends in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Zurcher of Roseburg. There were three tables of whist, Mrs. Tinker won the ladies' prize and Mr. Zurcher the gentlemen's. Miss Esther U'Ren assisted her mother in serving delicious refreshments. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Zurcher, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tromp, Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tinker, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yoran, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buoy.

Dancing parties have been very much in vogue the past week, among the college students, now that the semester examinations are over. Thursday evening the Eugene girls invited their gentleman friends to a dancing party in the Folly hall which proved a most successful and enjoyable affair. Their patronesses were Mrs. Thier, Mrs. Sexton, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. Nettle and Mrs. M. E. Watson. The same evening the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity entertained a few friends at their beautiful new chapter house on Oak street, where dancing also was enjoyed for several hours. Last evening Miss Eva Frazier invited about twelve couples to her home on South Pearl street for dancing. The Kappa Sigmas also opened their elegant new home on East Eleventh street to a few of their friends last evening for the purpose of spending a social evening in dancing.

The annual reception to the faculty and students of the Eugene Bible University was held on Monday evening, February 6, from 8 to 10 o'clock, at the elegant home of the president on East Twelfth and Alder streets. The large rooms were beautifully and tastefully decorated with flowers and festoons, and pennants of the school. The color scheme, pink and white, in the dining room, was especially attractive. Miss Ruth Sanderson and little sister, Frances and Donna Billington, assisted in welcoming the guests. In the receiving line with President and Mrs. Sanderson were other members of the faculty and their wives. They were Professor and Mrs. E. C. Wigmore, Professor and Mrs. D. C. Kellems, Professor Utz, and Professor and Mrs. F. B. Billington.

President A. F. Sanderson and his charming wife are very successfully looking after the affairs of the University during the absence of the regular president, and have by their kindliness, sympathy and love, won their way into the hearts of the entire student body. The occasion was a purely social one, and yet with their warm southern hospitality, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson contrived to make the evening so pleasant that it will be long remembered by those present. After a very jolly introductory game, which put everyone at ease, dainty refreshments were served by Miss Ruth Sanderson, Miss Vivian Kellems, Miss Madge Humbert, and Miss Bernice Holmes.

Besides the faculty and students and their families, the following invited guests were present: Rev. J. S. McCallum and wife, C. F. Swander of Portland, Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis of Seattle, Mrs. G. S. O. Humbert, Mrs. John Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benton, Miss Belle Keeney, Miss Fannie Cornelius and Miss Vernon.

♠ ♠ ♠

Friday evening the Assembly Club gave the sixth of their series of dancing parties at the Folly dancing hall. The bachelors have already established the reputation of being splendid entertainers and the party last evening only goes to strengthen this reputation.

♠ ♠ ♠

Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Travis entertained a number of friends at dinner Monday evening of this week. Table decorations were crimson carnations. Guests present were Dr. and Mrs. M. L. York, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt, Mrs. Hayes, (The Dalles), Mr. and Mrs. Leon R. Edmunson, Helmus Thompson, Dr. Geo. Wall, Major Forrest, Miss Nellie Banfield and Miss Emma Travis.
