

SOCIETY

On Monday evening at their home on North Pearl street, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hopkins celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Their home had been beautifully decorated by friends with ivy, daffodils, yellow tulips and other cut flowers. Mrs. Frank Porter and Miss Nellie Loomis received the guests while little Miss Gertrude Porter, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, opened the door. During the evening Rev. H. L. Bates of Forest Grove, the first pastor of the Congregational church in Eugene and an old friend of the Hopkins family, gave a very interesting talk while Mrs. Short, a sister of Mr. Hopkins who was present at their wedding fifty years ago, told some very interesting incidents concerning their early life. Mrs. Miller also read a poem which she had written for the occasion. The golden idea was carried out in the appointments of the luncheon, which was served by Mrs. Frank Chambers, and the Misses Emma and Nettie Chase.

A noteworthy fact is that five golden weddings have been celebrated in Mrs. Hopkins' family, two of her brothers and two of her sisters having already lived to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Out of a family of eight children, Mrs. Hopkins went to school with Mr. Hopkins in New York, which resulted in their marriage in Richville, New York on March 6, 1831. The first four years of their married life they spent at the home of Mr. Hopkins' father, where Mr. Hopkins took up the study of law. In 1855 they moved to St. Joe, where their first son, Dwight B. Hopkins, was born. After two years they moved to Minnesota, where they remained for twenty-one years. Here their other two children, Harold Hopkins and Kate Hopkins, were born. During their residence in Rice county, Mr. Hopkins took a very active part in politics, and held many county offices. In 1888 they came to Oregon, after spending a few months in Forest Grove they came to Eugene where they have made their home ever since. Since coming to Eugene Mr. Hopkins has been engaged in the lumber business. He is a charter member of the Eugene Congregational church, as well as in Rice county, and helped to build both churches. The out-of-town guests at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Porter and two daughters, Gertrude and Amy Porter, of Malheur, Mrs. Sarah R. Short, Mr. W. H. Short, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reed and son Frank, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hopkins, all from Spokane. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Koppe, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Wheeler, Mrs. Idaho Campbell, Prof. and Mrs. E. H. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurphy, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Loomis, Prof. and Mrs. E. E. DeCoo, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Melvin Miller, Rev. H. L. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ganeenbush, Mr. J. N. B. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elliott, the Misses Nellie Loomis, Emma and Nettie Chase.

On Wednesday afternoon in the Commercial club parlors, the ladies of the auxiliary entertained in honor of newcomers. The parlor was attractive with daffodils and other cut flowers. The ladies were invited to come and bring their needlework, about seventy-five responding to the invitation, and a delightful time was spent serving and getting acquainted. At the close of the afternoon light refreshments were passed by the following ladies: Mrs. Elizabeth Prescott, Mrs. F. R. Webber, Mrs. Darwin Moran, Mrs. E. B. Mink, Mrs. Robert McMurphy, Mrs. E. D. Matlock, Mrs. Ed. Frasier, Mrs. Laura Harris and Mrs. W. A. Bell.

The alumnae of the University of Oregon were entertained by Mrs. Richard Shore Smith, Mrs. Ray Goodrich and Miss Pauline Davis, at the home of Mrs. Goodrich on West Ninth street, Friday afternoon. After the regular business meeting an informal lunch was served. Mrs. T. G. Hendricks and Mrs. W. A. Irwin, (Episc.), presided over the coffee-urns. The next meeting on April 14, will be with Mrs. Bean and Miss Winifred Cockerline, at the home of the latter. Those present Friday were Mrs. R. S. Bryson, Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mrs. L. T. Harris, Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Mrs. Glen, Mrs. J. S. Luckey, Mrs. McCornack, Mrs. L. R. Edmondson, Miss Lola Howe, Miss Pearl Hawthorne, Miss Mabel Tiffany, Miss Mary McCormack, Miss Kate Henderson, Miss Maudie Miller, Miss Grata Bristol, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Harriet Patterson, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Miss Ida Patterson, Miss Anne Whiteaker, Miss Elma Hendricks and Miss Spencer.

One of the prettiest sorority dances ever held in University circles was the annual formal event of the Gamma Delta Gamma in their pretty new sorority house on East Thirteenth street near Alder, on March 4. The dance was in every sense ideal and the evening hours sped as minutes to the happy students. The decorations were beautiful in their simplicity. A three course luncheon was served by freshmen coeds in an upstairs nook, which was tastefully arranged for the occasion. The Gamma Delta Gamma girls proved themselves charming entertainers in every way, and nothing was overlooked in carrying out the most successful dancing party of the year.

The following were the guests: Misses Cecile Wilcox, Edith Woodcock, Lila Prosser, Laura Kennon, Naomi Williamson, Mabel Hill, Eleanor Brodie, Evangeline Roche, Beatrice Lilley, Jennie Lilley, Lottie Banfield, Mary Leach, Irma Doble, Lydia White, Miss Eve Stinson, Miss Ethel Roland, and Messrs. Ralph Moore, James Cecil, Chester Moore, Delbert Stannard, Neal, Kendall, Fennel Walte, Hawley Bean, Alfred Clark, Lloyd Barzoe, Lyman Rice, Ralph Cato, Ralph Stewart, William Dunlap, Harold Quigley, Franklin Allen, Walter Doble, Wallace Benson, Theodore Williams, William Ferguson, Bert Prescott, Daniel Collins, George White, David Daniels, Harold Dabney, Leigh Huggins, Sam Robinson, George Carter, Wendall Barbour, Raphael Geisler, and Mr. Edward Allen Thurber.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church met on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Gatchell. It was their annual election of officers. The following officers being elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Nellie Loomis; vice-president, Mrs. Douglas; secretary, Mrs. Van Oven and treasurer, Mrs. D. Moran. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially. Light refreshments were served by the joint hostesses, Mr. Gatchell and Mrs. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Griffin entertained the Jerry Elston Whist Club at the home on North Pearl street Thursday evening. The invited guests were Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dillard, Miss Eva Park and Miss Ensil Barker. The prize winners at cards were Mrs. Chas. Littlefield and Mr. Frank McAllister. Miss Ensil Barker assisted the hostess in serving a dainty appetizing luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be with Mr. and Mrs. Gross.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. W. Harris and her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Gray, most delightfully entertained the Pythian sisters and a few invited guests at the home of the former on Ferry street. Needlework and conversation characterized the afternoon. After a dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. M. C. Harris. The invited guests were Mrs. Henry Schwerling, Mrs. Dora Gray, Mrs. Chas. Watts, Mrs. Drew Griffin, Mrs. Ed Starr and Miss June Gray.

The Westminster Guild met today with Mrs. Shank. The afternoon's study was devoted to Cuba under the leadership of Mrs. Omar Gullion. Light refreshments were passed by the hostess.

On Thursday evening the members of the Congregational church held their annual business meeting at the church. Business for the ensuing year was transacted and matters of interest concerning the church were discussed. Preceding the meeting a chicken pie supper was enjoyed by the congregationalists, which was prepared by the Methodist Aid Society.

The Tuesday Evening Whist Club met this week with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Travis. The prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. Frank Page and Mr. Seth Laraway. Mrs. A. Lilley was the guest of the club.

Miss Mabel Kuykendall was hostess this afternoon to the Tete-a-Tete Club. A social time was spent by the young ladies chatting over their embroidery hoops. Mrs. Kuykendall served a most delicious luncheon late in the afternoon.

This evening the Sigma Nu fraternity are entertaining a number of their friends at a dancing party in the Folly hall. The Sigma Nus are royal entertainers and a splendid time is anticipated. Their patronesses will be Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. Catlin, (Salem), and Mrs. Geo. DeBar. The affair is the Sigma Nu annual formal, and many well known old grand members of the fraternity are in town to attend the ball. Among those who are here are Dr. Zeigler, Joe Knapp, Frank Templeton, Terry Beck, Ormond Bean, of Portland and Clifford Brown of Salem.

The patronesses were Miss Maude Stinson, Mrs. E. E. DeCoo, Mrs. F. S. Chambers, Mrs. L. M. Glen, Mrs. W. Noon, Mrs. F. G. Young, and Mrs. P. E. Campbell.

The Women's Republican Patriotic League met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Mink on West Seventh street. The first part of the afternoon was devoted to a short business session which was followed by two excellent papers, one on the "Life and Work of Miller" by Mrs. Sam Taylor, and the other by Mrs. Emma Walton on the laws dealing with Oregon fisheries. During the social hour which followed Mrs. Mink was assisted in serving a delicious supper by Mrs. Archie Livermore. The guest of the W. R. P. L. was Mrs. Fay.

The annual meeting of the Unitarian church held Thursday evening in the grill room of the Osburn hotel, was well attended. The business began 7:30 promptly when the president, Mr. C. A. Brown stated briefly the object of the meeting and its celebrating the close of the first organized year's work, and then asked for the secretary's report which was read by Miss Ida Patterson, giving a brief account of the calling upon March 6, 1911, of Rev. Arthur Hayes Sargent, to the church, which then had a membership of 42 names, with the covenant, "We unite for the worship of God and the service of Man."

The treasurer, Mrs. L. H. Potter, showed the church had received no financial assistance beyond its own congregation and had a balance credit and debit side about even. It was shown that the Sunday school, which began with but one class and one teacher, had increased until now there are five interested classes, with as many teachers. The Woman's Alliance in connection with the church, presented a report by the secretary, Mrs. A. E. S. Stearns stating its membership embraced 29 who are uniting in their efforts pertaining to their branch of church work. This report showed a gift during the year of $350 to the trustees to be applied to their church lot and building fund, this amount having been realized by sewing, sales and a Christmas bazaar.

Mr. Dugald Campbell, one of the trustees, voiced the thought of all present, when he spoke in highest praise of the work undertaken and so successfully performed by Mr. Sargent in his energetic and untiring efforts for the very best results. It was the unanimous expression of all present that Mr. Sargent be called for the ensuing year and a raise of salary, coming as a graceful surprise, was by vote authorized. Mr. Sargent, in accepting the call, gave a very interesting talk along several lines, which he hoped to follow, as well as giving some personal reminiscence of his past life.

A social hour followed the business, when tea and cake was served by the woman's alliance.

One more national sorority has been added to the four now at the University of Oregon. Nu chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, was installed Friday and Saturday, March 3 and 4. The installation took place at the music studios and was conducted by the supreme president, Miss Elfrida Langlois, of Detroit, Michigan. In the evening, after the installation of officers had taken place in the wistaria room of the Osburn, the society retired to the grill room. The banquet table was resplendent in purple and white, the society colors. In the center a huge bowl of violets, the Mu Phi Epsilon flower, added their beauty and fragrance to the occasion. Long strands of smilex intertwined with chiffon wreathed the table. The place cards, with the menus, were in the shape of the society emblems and hand painted in gold and violets. The Phi Epsilon numbers among its honorary members, Germaine Schmitzer, Schumann-Heinke, Louise Homer, and Alice Nielson, of the Metropolitan Grand opera company, Mue, Chaminade, the composer, Leonore Jackson, the violinist, and Ragna Linne. The honorary members of the Nu chapter are Mrs. M. C. Douglas and Mrs. Susie Fennel-Pipes. Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. I. M. Glen, Mrs. A. C. Dixon are patronesses, and Prof. I. M. Glen, dean of the school of music is patron of the chapter. The members are as follows: Lila C. Prosser, Nelle Murphy, Mary G. Morgan, Eve L. Stinson, Edwina Prosser, Ethel Rowland, Ethel Evans, Juliette Cross, Ida Watkins, Alberta Campbell, Nancy Peterson.

Miss Langlois left Tuesday night for Berkeley and Frisco. While here dinners and teas were given complimentary to her. She was the guest of the Misses Lila and Edwina Prosser.

Following is the list of the delegates attending the intercollegiate contest at the university last night from the various colleges of Oregon, and the various club houses where they were entertained:

Albany college—Fannie Chase, Winifred Rood, Kate Stewart, Eva Cushman, at the Lambda Rho Sorority on Alder street; Lena Heinrich, Amy Olmstead, Ruth Smith, at the Beth Rea house on Patterson street; Grover Rirchet, K. E. McLean, A. R. Hodge, at the Acadia house on East Ninth street.

McMinnville college—F. P. Mann, C. H. Moody, William Foster, George

This Phrase Exactly Fits the Sherman-Clay Way of Doing Business

Quality Higher Than Price

Because

—everything is conducted in the open.
—rich and poor are treated alike.
—no other piano store in the country can be fairer to its customers than

Sherman Clay & Co.

On Willamette Street at Sixth Eugene, Oregon

---and because, at the Beginning
—the price is set so low that "contests" or other fake systems could not change them.

THINK RIGHT about a piano

Remember the Savings You Make When Buying Direct from the Factory

Agents for the World's Renowned Geo. P. Bent Pianos and Player Pianos

I wonder where I should buy my PIANO! That is what most people say when about to purchase one.

THERE IS ONE THING SURE, YOU WILL FIND TRUE VALUES IN HIGH-GRADE PIANOS AT LARAWAY'S.

No other dealer can duplicate our prices. Why? Because we sell direct from the factory to you, saving you the dealer's profit. A call at our warerooms will at once convince you of the CONSTRUCTION, the SUPERB TONES AND LASTING QUALITIES OF OUR INSTRUMENTS.

We do not deal in stencil pianos.

Daily demonstration on our Player Pianos. You are invited to call and hear them.

Sold on Terms to Suit Your Convenience

The Building of a Business Depends on Giving the Public Full Value in Return for their Money, this you will find here

SETH E. LARAWAY

THE BEST JEWELER AND PIANO DEALER
557 WILLAMETTE ST., EUGENE, OREGON

Stewart, at the Delta Sigma house on Alder street; J. Butterfield, Wendell Miller, Gordon Pettit, Ray Culver, at the Beta Theta Pi on Mill street; Ruth Latourette, Elizabeth Mardis, at the Chi Omega house on Mill street.

Willamette university—Paul Todd, Austin Fleagle, at the Avava house, on East Thirteenth street; Carl Hollingsworth, J. W. Crawford, Harry G. McCain, at the Kappa Sigma house, on Eleventh street; Theo Bennett, Grace Eddington, Edna Clark, Alta Altman, Marie Schmidt at the Kappa Alpha Theta house on Hill-yard street.

Pacific college—R. A. Newby, Richard Williams, Claude Newlin, Victor Roos, at the Alpha Tau Omega house on Oak street; Edna Paulson, Gladys Hannon, Neil Reuter, at the Tri Delta house, on Alder street; Laura Hammer, Florence Rees, at the Gamma Delta Gamma house on East Thirteenth street.

O. A. C. Corvallis—L. R. Chapman, W. S. Sibray, A. A. Ashahr, at the Tawah house on Alder street; W. E. Morris, W. F. Morris, at the Avava club, on Thirteenth street; Vina Richards, Jennie Bossen, Karine Davis, at the Gamma Phi Beta house on Hillyard street; Della Parvis, Rose Mayson, at the Chi Omega house, on Mill street.

Pacific university—Vivian Shute, Genevieve Cochrin, at the Gamma Delta Gamma; J. H. Turner, V. V. Gould, at the dormitory; C. E. Ward and L. L. Hope at the Frasier residence.

There were a number of other delegates, but the above are only those who had credentials.

As a complete surprise to Mrs. W. M. O. A. last Wednesday afternoon a few of her lady friends assembled with her at her home on West Fourth and Monroe streets. After an hour or two of merry-making an elaborate luncheon was served by the ladies. Those who participated in the surprise were: Mrs. McClusky, Mrs. Jesse Inman, Mrs. Tom Saunway, Mrs. R. Henderson, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. McFall, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. R. H. Blewitt, Mrs. Hans Olson, Mrs. Lindley, Mrs. L. Walker, Mrs. Purdy, Mrs. Mack, Mrs. David Cartmell, Mrs. R. Femery, Mrs. Clayborne Bounney, Mrs. Wm. Sherman, and Miss Dot Walker.

The Helmetta Club ladies were entertained by Mrs. Claude Gray and Mrs. John Harris at the home of the latter on Ferry street. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation and needlework, after which a business session was held. The hostess assisted by Mrs. M. C. Harris, served a very dainty luncheon. The guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Isaac Gray, Mrs. Chas. Watts, Mrs. E. B. Starr and Mrs. Schwerling.

For Miss Lottie Banfield of Portland, who is a guest in Eugene this week, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Travis gave a dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Olive street.

The Ferry street club held a pleasant social afternoon at the home of Mrs. Felix Moore on Thursday.

Sixteen High school girls of the Presbyterian church met this afternoon for a social hour.

Mrs. P. L. Campbell entertained at her home on the University campus Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Leonard, mother of Dr. H. L. Leonard. The guests were Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. Arthur Collier, Mrs. I. M. Glen, Mrs. F. G. Young, Mrs. Dugald Campbell, Mrs. C. E. Loomis, Mrs. H. W. Davis, Mrs. J. T. Green, Mrs. Everts, Mrs. Charlotte Zeiber, Mrs. M. J. Campbell, Mrs. Lischen Miller, Mrs. Bennett, and Miss Gilkinson.

At Springfield.

Wednesday evening the Needleworkers club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Middleton, and it was one of the most enjoyable meetings yet held by the club. The program was added to by Mrs. Middleton who rendered several instrumental solos and also sang a number of songs. The rooms were beautifully decorated with daffodils, and the effect was most pleasing. A most tempting two-course lunch was served and the toasts rendered brought forth much comment. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. A. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Peery, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. H. Korf, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Littell, Paul Bettelheim and daughter Annette, Mrs. Wilbur Coffin, and daughter Florence, and Mrs. Clark Wheaton.—News.

AT CRESWELL.

Miss Alma Point was guest of honor at a farewell party given by a number of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitt Monday evening. The evening was very enjoyably spent and games of various kinds and music were the principal pastime. Ice cream and cake was served by Mrs. Schmitt. She was assisted by Mrs. Noland and Mrs. Hackett. Those present were: Misses Bertha Stratford, Willie McGee, Lottie Butler, Iva Hoagland, Alma Point, Jennie Roberts, Vera Harrington, Elva Richardson, Grace Schaub, Mrs. L. A. Hackett, Mrs. J. E. Noland, Mrs. O. B. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitt, Messrs. Bryce Posey, Will Schmitt, Troy Morton, Leo Martin, Melvin Miller, Willie Weber and Chester Noland.—Cronicle.

♦♦♦♦♦

VACUUM CARPET CLEANING

Orders taken for both Eugene and Springfield. Phone 245-J.

♦♦♦♦♦

The Moore you want
Moore, the Carpet Cleaner.
Phone Black, 7091.

To Get
Its Beneficial Effects
Always Buy the Genuine

SYRUP OF FIGS

and
ELIXIR OF SENNA

manufactured by the
CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

Sold by all leading Druggists
One Size Only, 50¢ a Bottle