H. C. Stice, of Anderson, California, who arrived Tuesday on his return from a three months visit in the East, left here yesterday afternoon on the local for Roseburg. Mr. Stice has made arrangements with several business houses in this city to handle California fruit this coming season, he being an extensive fruit raiser. He will transact business in Roseburg for a few days and then go on to his California home.

A SURPRISE.—Last evening at her home on East Ninth street, Miss Belle Haines was pleasantly surprised by a number of her young friends, who came in upon her unannounced for the purpose of spending the evening and having a good time. As soon as Miss Haines had sufficiently recovered from her surprise she set about entertaining her guests in a way that proved both enjoyable and profitable. At a late hour all went home feeling that the evening had not been spent in vain.

FARM HOUSE BURNED.—The farm house on the old Pitney place, three miles west of Junction City, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. It was occupied by Johnny Williams and family, and it burned so rapidly they were unable to save any of their household effects, the wind being quite high. Our informant did not learn how the fire caught, whether it was insured or not, or the probable loss.

THE TIME EXPIRED.—The ten days having expired in which donors to the Nebraska sufferers' fund could receive back their goods, the committee will now proceed to distribute the same the major portion of the supplies being turned over to the Womens Relief Corps. It is but just to say that very few persons called to receive back their donations.

RIBS BROKEN.—Mr. Taliafers, who lives near Natron, was at Douglas & Levinger's dairy farm east of Springfield a few days ago in a cart when his horse became frightened and unmanageable and ran away, throwing him out and breaking three ribs. The horse broke loose from the cart but no other serious damage was done.

SHIPMENT OF PHEASANTS.—E. J. McClanahan will ship by tonight's express twenty Chinese pheasants to Mr. McNeill, Santa Ana, Cal., State Fish and Game Warden. Mr. McClanahan has obtained permission from the state authorities to make shipments of these birds for breeding purposes.

The Snagboat Corvallis.

At present the snagboat Corvallis is engaged on the Willamette at a point where the revetment is being constructed. This boat is being operated by the government under the general direction Major J. C. Post, United States engineer, with headquarters at Portland, and pulls snags and superintends the construction of government improvements wherever appropriations are made, on the Willamette and Yamhill rivers, and the Cowlitz, Lewis and other branches of the Columbia. The work, however, is principally confined to the Willamette, as that is the longest and swiftest stream, and logs and snags often get in the way of navigation, especially on the upper river. It is the intention to go to the Yamhill river soon and clean up that stream as far up as McMinnville. The Corvallis is manned as follows: H L Hatch, captain; O Galbreath, mate; J W Gwinn, engineer; Mrs H L Hatch, steward; Charles V Linley, watchman; Mrs M Bruce, cook; H Brown, fireman. There are five deck hands in addition to the above force.

WILL MAKE CHEESE.—Owing to the prevailing low price of butter this season Douglas & Levinger, of the dairy farm above Springfield, have decided to quit making that product during the summer months and will manufacture cheese. They have all the apparatus necessary and an experienced cheese-maker, and expect to commence making cheese about the middle of April. They believe that during the summer months while the price of butter is so low, cheese will pay best. They expect to market their product whenever the demand is greatest.

MOVING.—Mr. J. C. Goodale yesterday moved his family from this city to Coburg, where they will reside in future. Mr. Phinegar, of Coburg, who bought the property on Sixth street of Mr. Goodale, is moving his family and household effects into the same and will make this his home.

CYCLISTS ATTENTION.—The regular meeting of the Eugene Cycle and Road Club will be held at Mount's hall tonight at 8 p. m. A good attendance of members is requested Ladies are especially invited.
