A PROFITABLE SETTLEMENT.

I have just heard of two Louisville rivals who have disposed of their quarrel in a profitable way, says a correspondent of the New York Herald. At first they determined to fight for the girl. It was to have been pistols for two and a lunch for the survivor. For a few days matters looked desperate, but a woman who can't make up her mind which of two lovers she prefers isn't worth the trouble it takes to load a gun. Whichever of the two she married she would probably hunt up the other before the honeymoon became a wanting crescent. Now there was a third aspirant, a wealthy and gouty old biped, and he offered the youngsters a goodly sum of money if they would both retire and give him a chance. The money was accepted and divided share and share alike. It would be folly to waste precious gunpowder over a bit of feminine bric-a-brac as brittle as that. It was a good bargain for all except the old "biped."

Dallas Itemizer, dem.: We consider Oregon as very fortunate in having such a chief executive as Governor Lord and such a secretary of state as H. R. Kincaid. They are in no sense cranks, but are in every sense the friends of the people at large. With them the matter of popularity or the reverse cuts no figure, it being simply a question of duty to those they were chosen to serve. If we were a bitter democratic partisan, we should leave it to editors of their own faith to praise them, but we hope to always be found with enough manhood to approve what is worthy and condemn what is unworthy wherever found.

Astoria Budget: Ex-Sheriff Smith, was in office about seven years. The office was worth not less than $16,000 per year—$112,000 for the whole time. When he married his last wife she was worth about $17,000; now she is hopelessly involved. It is reasonable to estimate that he is in debt about $12,000. That makes $141,000 he has squandered in the time mentioned, and his wife accepted a situation in a dress making shop today at a salary of 75 cents per day; his daughter is compelled to work in the can factory for $3.50 per week. He left them without a nickel.

Bradstreet's reports show a big increase in clearances, take the whole U. S. for one week, over the corresponding one of last year. It is to be noticed though that the increase has not yet struck this coast, which rather shows a decrease, that of Portland being 21 per cent, Seattle 21.8 per cent, San Francisco 1.1 per cent. The largest increase is that of New York, over 50 per cent. Spokane shows an increase of 22 per cent, and Tacoma of 20.

The justices of the U. S. supreme court who voted against the income tax law were, Chief Justice Fuller and Justices Gray, Field, Brewer and Shiras. For the law were Justices Harlan, White, Brown and Jackson.

Wheat is steady and advancing in the markets of the world. It is good news to growers who have been selling on a very narrow margin or at a loss.

Dealers report an advance in quotations of wholesale rates in a number of commodities.

A Portland paper has this: Certificates of deposit on the Portland Savings bank are being hawked around the street and offered for sale for twenty-five cents on the dollar. The poor depositors in that institution are certainly deserving of universal sympathy.

The Times says the vitality is oozing out of the Corvallis street railroad. The actual cost was $11,000. Miles Wilkins traded real property and $2,250 cash for it. At one time the receipts were as high as $100; but now they have been flickering until they amount to only about $10 a month. A Portland company now owns the road, having taken it on a debt. As a license of $10 a year has been imposed it will have to stop running and the rails will no doubt be sold for old iron.

Medford Mail: R. N. Barker, of Cottage Grove, was here last week talking up a possible deal with W. W. Taylor for the purchase of a half interest in Mr. Taylor's saw mill, which is now over in the Jenny creek country, but which is proposed to be put at work on a 500 acre tract of timber land which belongs to the Taylor boys, and which is located not a great distance east of Medford. Mr. Barker is an old time acquaintance of G. P. Lindley.

HOUSEKEEPERS who are delicate, run-down, or overworked, and those who suffer from back-ache, headache, dragging-down sensations in the abdomen, and many other symptoms of derangement of the female functions can find renewed strength and health by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For the pains and aches, the periods of melancholy and sleeplessness—nothing can do you so much good as this vegetable compound. You save the doctor's fee, as well as your modesty, by purchasing this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce. For a great many years Dr. R. V. Pierce (chief consulting physician and specialist to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.) made a specialty of the diseases of women, and from his large experience he was able to compound a "Prescription" which acted directly upon the special internal parts of women. When in doubt as to your ailment write him, it will cost you nothing. A Book, on "Woman and Her Diseases," published by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., is of interest to all women. It will be sent for ten cents in stamps.

When women are afflicted with nervousness, irritability, nervous prostration or exhaustion and sleeplessness, in nine cases out of ten the source of the trouble is some displacement, irregularity or derangement of the special internal parts. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures permanently such cases as well as that distressing internal discharge from the mucous membrane, inflammation and ulceration.

Brooklyn, Jackson Co., Mich. Gentlemen—I am more than willing to say your most valuable medicine has cured me of female weakness and a catarrhal discharge from the lining membranes of the special parts. I suffered for years with pain in my back, never a night was free. At your request I commenced treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I could not sleep on a mattress; it seemed as though it would kill me. Since taking the medicine I can sleep anywhere; I am perfectly well. I would not be placed in my former condition for any money. Gratefully yours, Mrs. J. H. Parker
