THE EUGENE COUSINS.

The Corvallis Times, editorially says: "Mr. and Mrs. McQueen, of Eugene are embarrassed at the predicament in which they find themselves."

"Mr. and Mrs. McQueen, of Eugene are embarrassed at the predicament in which they find themselves." They were cousins, and June 8th procured a marriage license, went through the marriage ceremony, and until last Saturday when they were arrested for incest, lived together as man and wife. They did not know that the legislature of 1893 passed a law forbidding the marriage of cousins. The law prohibits the following marriages: first, when either party has a wife or husband at the time of such marriage; second, when the parties thereto are first cousins, or any nearer of kin to each other; third when either of the parties is a white person, and the other a negro or mongolian, or one-fourth or more of negro or mongolian blood. The crime is made incest, and the penalty is one to three years in the penitentiary, three months to one year in the county jail, or a fine of $200 to $1,000.

"The unfortunate Eugene cousins aged respectively 20 and 15 are not married, and under arrest as they are for incest when they like millions before them have simply married each other, it is no wonder that they are embarrassed at the predicament in which they find themselves." Their ignorance of the statute, unfortunately for them, goes for naught in law, but may cut some figure if a tender hearted man or two gets in the jury box. After they have escaped or endured the penalty for incest, if their love is still undimmed, and their longing to be each other's husband and wife still possesses them, to carry out their purpose they will have to leave Oregon for a state where cousins, negroes and mongolians may intermarry.

"The moral of the accident is—if the child who essayed to become a bride had remained single until old enough to assume a wife's responsibility, she would probably have learned before it was too late that she could not marry her cousin in Oregon, and thus have forfeited an embarrassing predicament."

Corvallis Gazette: The Oregonian and its cuckoos, the Pendleton Tribune and others, are emptying their vials of wrath upon the devoted head of Secretary of State Kincaid. They want him to donate part of his earnings, as secretary, to the state. It is not because they like the dear people the more, but because they love Kincaid the less. They are not prompted by a spirit of public economy, but are trying to obtain a little revenge for Kincaid's refusal to stand in with the Dolph combination during the last session of the legislature. Mr. Kincaid is an able conscientious officer. People recognize the motives that prompt these spiteful attacks upon him and resent them accordingly.

Pendleton E. O.: A feeble attempt is being made to raise in Oregon $10,500 to purchase a suitable testimonial to be presented to the battle ship Oregon. Not a cent should be raised for any such purpose. Oregon can put her money to a better use than spending it for a silver service for a battle ship which happened to be named after her. Oregon people should not play at such a game. It savors too much of a tribute to a class who have already drawn heavily from the plain people and given them barely nothing in return. It is something in the line of the custom of giving pensions to the families of deceased statesmen who "served the country" by drawing a salary for doing nothing all their lives. This gathering of the people's money when it is not earned should be put a stop to, and we would like to see Oregon make a beginning in that direction by failing to raise the desired $10,500.

President Cleveland has declined the honor of the degree of LL. D. conferred upon him by the university at Wilberforce, Ohio, an institution devoted to the education of colored men, because he was not college bred. But he has refused the same degree from other institutions, and therefore no political capital can be made out of the act.

In a State of Bankruptcy

—is the condition of our system if the liver becomes inactive so that the germs and poisons can accumulate within the body. Keep the liver and bowels active and we are in a condition of healthy prosperity and have sufficiently well invested capital to draw upon in the hour of need. The liver filters out the poisonous germs which enter the system, just so surely as the liver regulates the system, so do Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the liver. Keep this in mind, and you solve the problem of good health and good living. The "Pleasant Pellets" have a tonic, strengthening effect upon the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, which effectually cures Biliousness, Sick Headache, Costiveness, or Constipation, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste in Mouth, Sour Risings from Stomach, and will often cure Dyspepsia. The "Pellets" are tiny, because the vegetable extracts are refined and concentrated. Easy in action, no gripping as with old-fashioned pills. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets."

Mrs. MELISSA ATWATER, of Steuben, Washington Co., Me., writes: "As regards the little 'Pellets,' I think I could not do without them in the house. I have spoken very highly to friends and neighbors of them, and many are taking them through my advertising them. I will say they are the best pill I can take, especially for an after-dinner pill, I think they have no equal."

Unity Happenings. June 10, 1895. Pleasant weather. Fish seem to be more plentiful than common this year. The rain Saturday and Sunday was beneficial to crops. Rev Sprague preached here on Sunday to a small congregation. Miss Estella Hyland visited at Mrs Walker's over Saturday. The stage is now running between Eugene and the Kitson springs, up the middle fork of the Willamette. The Kitson springs are becoming a favorite summer resort on account of the hot mineral springs and excellent fishing. Mr E Barbara visits over this side of the river quite frequently. Felix Russell, with several assistants, has been getting his cattle together and branding them this week preparatory to starting across the mountains. A campmeeting commences at the Lowell campground next Thursday under the auspices of the M E church. Everybody is invited. Several men met at Mrs Walker's last Saturday to finish covering the barn left unfinished at the death of her husband; but the rainy weather prevented them completing it. She was very thankful for what they did do. On account of the death of her father Mr. H P Hayes is teaching Miss Susan Walker's school at Poverty Ridge. J C F Randal, our justice of the peace, and family, started across the mountains Tuesday. He rented his farm to R N Griffin. Rufus Callison has been appointed his successor as J. P.

Born—June 14, to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Humphrey, a ten pound girl. Felix Russell and family started across the mountains today. Alec Griffin, Oscar Drury and George Young went with him to help him cross the mountain with their cattle. John Renfro will drive one of the wagons and will go all the way with them to Oklahoma.

In our items last week we stated the Sunday school convention would be June 23 and 24, which was a mistake. It will be June 22 and 23. REGULAR.
