BETRAYER AND BETRAYED.

Exchange: The world demands purity and sweet innocence from woman—holds her more incapable of sin than man. If she forgets for the moment that "she is but little lower than the Angels" and falls, the world forgets mercy and its divine attributes; the christian ceases to be Christ-like, walking not in his footsteps, and she, the betrayed, is make by all alike, to pay the heavy penalty of her impurity with compound interest. She the betrayed, is made to bear the guilt of both; she is spit upon and driven from every door; she is shunned as the leper, in her pitiful woe and misery, she is driven often to the deeper hell by harshness, cruelty, and the lack of sympathetic words and good deeds, when she "might have been" saved from a darker, deeper plunge, to "go and sin no more." O, that "might have been!" How it will stare us in the face at the great Last Day, as a pointer to neglected duty.

He, the betrayer, unmarked by scorn and contempt, with head erect, on the alert for other victims whom he can beguile to destruction, is recognized and received by the world as a gentleman. Saluted by sweet innocent ones, the latch string hanging out to him and sought for by the elite of the social realm. The woman may be stoned here on earth, the man go free from merited disgrace, but in the sight of God sex makes no difference in sin. In that final day of fire and flame, when all shall stand unveiled before the great Omnipotent, the betrayed and the betrayer will stand on the same platform. Will He the great, the merciful, and just God, decree, to "condemn the woman and forgive the man?"

A RETURN TO PRIMITIVE WAYS.

Jefferson merchants haul their freight from boats at Salem. The people have begun to realize that the country makes the railroad instead of the reverse.—EUGENE GUARD.

The Dalles Chronicle: "The people of the Willamette valley are taking hold of the transportation problem in the proper way, with such a river and a country so capable of making good roads, every town along the Willamette should have copmetitive rates. The GUARD is doing good work in arousing the people to their apportunities. The Dalles went through the experience, and knows that concentrated effort and unselfish work will accomplish what was deemed impossible. Their line of boats stand as a shining example of what self help will do, and reflect a lustre on the citizens of this town who made them possible. In another article the GUARD says that the 'example of The Dalles should strengthen the few earnest men in Eugene who are working for steamer competition."

Idaho Statesman: The Oregon sheriff who permitted himself to be relieved of his pistol and badge of office on board the train that was held up near Roseburg no doubt considered discretion the better part of valor, but he has evidently failed to comprehend the duties of his official position. He permitted a single robber to go through that car and even to take his own weapon. The people who elected him should ask him to resign. When a man assumes an office of that kind he places himself in a position where he cannot show the white feather without demonstrating that he is unfit for the place. It is the duty of a peace officer to run risks in defending people from robbers, and if he is not ready to do it he should take a place in the ranks of private citizenship.

If the federal troops at the battle of Gettysburg had been armed with the new repeaters now issued to the army, the troops making the celebrated movement known as Pickett's charge would have been under fire from start to finish and in all probability would have been destroyed. Pickett's right when formed, was 1,800 yards from the federal lines and the new rifle sight is graduated to 1,900 yards, with a range of 5,280 yards.

The American Beauty owes her prestige more to a clear complexion than to any other attribute. A cup of Parks' Tea will enable anyone to possess this. It clears the skin and removes pimples and that sallow, muddy look. Parks' Tea is used by thousands of ladies for the complexion. Without being a cathartic it cures constipation. Sold by A. YERINGTON.

Fair and beautiful—the woman who keeps at a distance the complexion beautifiers, paints and powders, which soon ruin the face. A healthy glow to the skin, a face without wrinkles, and sparkling eyes, will be yours if you keep the system and the special internal organs in good condition. The young girl, or woman, often grows pale, wrinkled and thin, eats little, everything wearies her, she complains of herself as aching and sore and as sleeping poorly. Often she is troubled with backache, or a tender spine, with a bearing-down weight in the abdomen, or at periods she may be irregular, or suffer extreme pain from functional derangements.

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his long and active experience, met many cases of this kind, for which he used a prescription which was found to cure such difficulties permanently in ninety-eight per cent. of all cases. Having proven so successful, Dr. Pierce put his "Favorite Prescription" on the market, and it is to-day sold more largely than any other medicine for the ills of woman.

For all functional derangements, displacements, ulceration, inflammation, and the catarrhal drain from the lining membranes of the special internal organs of women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble, and corrects it.

MRS. CRIM.

MRS. MARY CRIM, of Frankfort, Franklin Co., Ill., writes: "A few years ago I took cold, which resulted in female trouble, and affected my whole system. About a year ago, I took chills, had one or two a month; they were very weakening. Had pains in my sides, more frequently in left side; gradually grew worse until, finally, I had to take to bed. I had a bad cough and couldn't rest. I commenced taking your medicine, took it about four months, taking seven bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of his "Golden Medical Discovery." My weight has increased, and I feel better and stouter than I have for years."
