University Items.
Two weeks vacation.
Examinations were more severe than usual this term. Students are awaiting the result with some anxiety.
The Athletic Club is talking of getting up a play in the near future.
The Sophomores held a meeting yesterday for the purpose of electing a president, Mr Miller having resigned.
The orations for the contest are about completed and rehearsals will begin on the opening of the new term. The local contest takes place the first Friday in February.
The Senior class has concluded to adopt the Eastern fashion and wear caps and gowns commencement. The last term will see twenty dignified and learned looking people traversing the streets in that garb.
The Laurean society held a very interesting meeting last night. The question, "Resolved, That Turkey Should be Dismembered," was debated, and was won by the affirmative.
A grin of exultation was depicted on the faces of the students yesterday when one of the oldest professors came late with great humility into his recitation room. In fact he was a half an hour tardy with only the paltry excuse of having overslept. As this was a first offense during long years of instruction, the students after a consultation forgave and will strive to forget. But the faculty is expected to take warning from this example and the tardy eight o'clock hereafter will look for a tender smile of sympathy instead of the frown with which he has hitherto been greeted.
SNAG BOAT HERE.—The U S snag boat Corvallis arrived here this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The river is reported to be in much better condition than last year. The boat will probably have a month's work between here and Harrisburg.
The Steamship Farallon will leave Yaquina Bay for San Francisco next Tuesday.
MAT-SUR-KI-TA.—The new Japanese perfumes, at Yerington's. Ladies call.

Mrs S K Munra, of Meacham eating house fame, arrived this afternoon and will spend a few days visiting with her daughter, Mrs Watkins, of the dormitory.

The Other Side.
EDITOR GUARD.—The "Review" in yesterday's GUARD on Dr. Grant's lecture was "entirely unnecessary," as no one who read it "will be the least shaken in his belief," as to the able manner in which Dr. Grant maintained his arguments against evolution. Dr. Grant's lecture was most timely; he told the people of Eugene facts concerning the interests of the university. Taxpayers throughout the state are complaining loudly against state funds being appropriated to individuals who are propagating a skeptical creed. It is a well known fact that it has in the past taken vigorous and concerted action on the part of friends of the university to have the appropriation continued. If these inconsistencies are perpetrated further the "loyal" men of Eugene and the state of Oregon will awake some morning to find that the educational sinew of their promising state has been abolished.
A large delegation of students left on the Roseburg local this morning for their homes to spend the holidays. They were a jolly crowd, and when the train pulled out of the station gave the college yell. A large number of people were at the depot to see them off.

CONGRESSMAN HERMANN LEFT.
A New York Man Gets the Chairmanship of Rivers and Harbors.
The following dispatch received here this afternoon is self-explanatory: WASHINGTON, D C, Dec. 21.—Col. B. F. Alley, Eugene, Oregon: I am reappointed a member of the river and harbor committee, but not chairman. New York obtains the chairmanship. I am chairman of another committee.
BINGER HERMANN.
Insurance Notes.
[Advertisement.]
The modern Woodmen order has increased its assessments 40 per cent. The Legion of Justice of New York is in the hands of a receiver. Next. The Prov. Aid Society of Maine quits because it can't secure "new blood." This is the special weakness of the assessment plan. Next. The Knights of Honor order is in serious trouble. Seventeen thousand members have recently resigned, and now it is time for the remainder to feel resigned.
Assessment Insurance—Failures are numerous, and the people view this class of insurance with suspicion.—Minn. Ins. Report.
The Northwestern Masonic, like the Mutual Reserve, has "punctured its tire." Both associations have lost "wind" anyway, and will be forced hereafter to confine themselves more closely to facts and the law of mortality. "Insurance at half price" is "a Cheap John" promise.—Coast Review, September, 1895.
The "Spectator Company" gives the following figures for the Prov. Aid Society referred to above: "Membership in 1890, 2300. Assessments and dues, $49,822. In 1894, membership, 1898. Assessments and dues, $61,445." Note the loss of members and the greatly increased cost in four years. This order commenced business in 1885 and quit in 1895. What have the survivors got?
Everything to Be Sold.
G Bettman here gives notice that he will hold his final auction Monday. Everything in the store must be sold at this sale. Be sure and attend.
BOATS TO EUGENE.—Today's Oregonian: "Mr. B Campbell, general freight agent of the O R & N Co, returned yesterday from a trip up the river as far as Eugene, to examine into the prospects for business for the company's boats on the upper river. He left last Saturday morning, and arrived at Corvallis that evening, and transferred to the Gypsy, which reached Harrisburg Sunday afternoon and Eugene Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Heretofore boats have reached Eugene only two or three times in the year; but, with the river in its present condition, continuous service can be given between Portland and Eugene for six months in the year, and with some improvements to confine the water to one channel, the service could be maintained, with a boat like the Gypsy, the entire year. The conditions are promising for securing freight, and if business warrants the weekly service will be increased to two trips per week."

Brevities.
Considerable holiday trade today. MANICURE GOODS at YERINGTON'S. The low hills are still covered with snow.
Several Drain Normal students arrived this morning.
The Rescue and Oregon football teams practice each evening.
Have your Xmas presents engraved by the "Lightning Engraver."
The club dance was quite well attended last night and was a social success.
W Sanders is loading a car with cascara segrada for the New York City market.
Weather prediction for Sunday: Rain and snow with stationary temperature.
Over 60 families received presents from the public school Christmas donations today.
Julius Goldsmith's dog is in the pound. An unfair advantage was taken of the dog.
According to the Oregonian Dr Grant denies attacking the university in his lecture. However, we think differently.
B F Finn, of Gate Creek, has been granted an original pension, and Orville Green's pension has been increased.
The moon was full on last Monday and it will be full again on the 30th of this month, but that's no reason for you to go and do likewise.
This is the shortest day in the year. In this latitude the sun rose at 7:35 and set at 4:23. This leaves the day just 8 hours and 48 minutes long, and the night 15 hours and 12 minutes long.
The board of equalization, by resolution, yesterday appointed a committee "to examine the assessment rolls of each county in the matter of national bank stock and report the matter and the rate per cent upon capital stock of the same, and what action should be taken to equalize the same." The president appointed Messrs Woodcock, Auldon and Willis as such committee.
Cottage Grove Leader: The friends of Rev Joseph Sams made up a lot of provisions for him Monday. A wagon load of supplies left Cottage Grove, and we learn that it was about all a two horse team could do to haul it to Mr Sam's house, a few miles in the country. The hills were fairly alive with people carrying supplies on horseback and on their shoulders. Mr Sams was needing help and appreciates the kindness of his friends.

Junction City Items.
Times, Dec. 21.
Died.—Saturday, December 14, 1895, Mildred Edith, only daughter of Mr and Mrs W M Pitney, aged 2 years, 6 months and 3 days.
Miss Emma Washburne returned home Thursday after an absence of nearly a year. She has been with her sister at Colfax, Washington.
W H Baber sold 40,000 bushels of wheat last Monday and received the top market price. He was quite lucky as wheat has declined since that time.
A subscription paper was circulated during the past week to raise funds for the purpose of purchasing Christmas goods for the poor of the city. Quite a liberal purse was secured.
Married.—At the residence of J K Criss, December 15, 1895, Mr Manford Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Criss, all of Lane county, Rev Wm Houston officiating. A most excellent repast was heartily enjoyed by all.

THE CHARGES SUSTAINED.—Today's Corvallis Times: "In a trial that began at 7:30 last night and ended at 3:30 this morning, the chief of police of Corvallis was found guilty of misfeasance, inattention and incapacity in office, on complaint of 18 citizens and business men; lodged with the council at its last regular meeting. The charges were sustained by a vote of 7 to 2, but as the ballot was secret, and taken in a private chamber adjoining the council chamber, the names of the two councilmen who said "nay" to the proposition to sustain the charges cannot yet be stated."
The supper given last evening by the ladies of the Baptist church was quite well attended. It was a success both socially and financially.
