A COMPARISON OF NAVIES.

At the present time when rumors of war with England seem to be the uppermost topic in the popular mind; it is a matter of absorbing interest to note the respective naval strength of each of the possible combatants. A classified list of the relative fighting power of the two nations is herewith given, as found in "The Statesman's Year Book," a publication of the highest authority, and by which it appears, that of first class sea-going battleships, England possesses no less than 25, while the United States has only six such vessels. Of second class battleships England has 9 and third class battleships 11 vessels, while the United States possesses none of the two last mentioned classes. Of first class cruisers England heads the list with 35 vessels and the United States shows but 7 such vessels. Again, England looms up with 63 second class cruisers to our 13; third class cruisers, England has 189, while the United States follows a long ways behind with the ridiculously small number of only 21 ships of that class. Of torpedo boats, England has 136, and the U. S. but 3, or a smaller number than any other naval power on earth today. Counting vessels of all classes, of modern construction, and fit for modern warfare, the total number of vessels in the British navy available for offensive and defensive purposes is no less than 486, while the total for the United States is but 67.

"THE ETERNAL FEMININE"

The eternal feminine is what we prize in woman, and whenever she deflects from this there does her power wane and her usefulness become impaired. And conversely, the more and the higher she advances along the line of her own nature, the better for the world. Nor does the claim that she has been hampered hitherto and consequently been unable to show what her attributes really are, seem relevant; for it is only when she develops in directions which threaten to clash with the eternal feminine that she encounters opposition or serious criticism. And here even the excitability and unreasonableness of some men find a certain justification. Their fumes and fury, however unintelligent, proceed from an instinctive repugnance to the departure or deviation from nature, which they find or fear to find in the modern woman. Once let them realize that there was no danger of anything of the kind, and they would become as gentle as doves, if not all smiles and approval.—Robert Grant in the October Scribner's.

The circuit court of Baker county has decided that the county must pay its debts. Action was brought to restrain the county officials from paying off outstanding warrants, for the reason the county's indebtedness was greater than allowable by the state constitution, viz: $5000. While such debts are prohibited by the constitution, if a county creates a debt it is still bound to pay it. The court will not favor repudiation of the debt if it does repudiate the officials who created it.

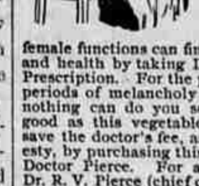
Roseburg Review: It is rumored that state Senator Cogswell, of Lake county, has returned to the republican party which he left in 1872. We sincerely hope that this is true, since some of the senator's legislative acts indicated that he could never forget his early training. That fat special attorney's fee of $5000 allowed him in the general appropriation bill of the late republican legislature, was one thing that made the Review wonder "where he was at" politically.



HOUSEKEEPERS who are delicate, run-down, or overworked, and those who suffer from backache, headache, dragging-down sensations in the abdomen, and many other symptoms of derangement of the female functions can find renewed strength and health by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For the pains and aches, the periods of melancholy and sleeplessness—nothing can do you so much permanent good as this vegetable compound. You save the doctor's fee, as well as your modesty, by purchasing this "Prescription" of Doctor Pierce. For a great many years Dr. R. V. Pierce (chief consulting physician and specialist to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.) made a specialty of the diseases of women, and from his large experience he was able to compound a "Prescription" which acted directly upon the special internal parts of women. When in doubt as to your ailment write him, it will cost you nothing. A Book, on "Woman and Her Diseases," published by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., is of interest to all women. It will be sent for ten cents in stamps.

When women are afflicted with nervousness, irritability, nervous prostration or exhaustion and sleeplessness, in nine cases out of ten the source of the trouble is some displacement, irregularity or derangement of the special internal parts. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures permanently such cases as well as that distressing internal discharge from the mucous membrane, inflammation and ulceration.

Brooklyn, Jackson Co., Mich.

Gentlemen—I am more than willing to say your most valuable medicine has cured me of female weakness and a catarrhal discharge from the lining membranes of the special parts. I suffered for years with pain in my back, never a night was I free. At your request I commenced treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I could not sleep on a mattrass; it seemed as though it would kill me. Since taking the medicine I can sleep anywhere; I am perfectly well. I would not be placed in my former condition for any money. Gratefully yours,

Mrs. T. H. Parker
