The Celebrated Mediums

DR. HENRIE BEAUSANT

—AND—
—M'DOME BEAUSANT—

Assisted by a number of powerful mediums developed for the express purpose of demonstrating Spirit Power in this light.

—MATERIALIZATION.—

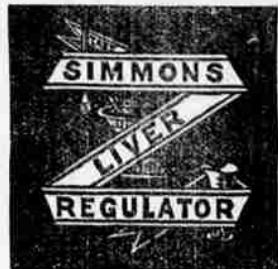

Spirits fly through the air. They are seen by all persons. They converse with you as in life. They shake hands with their friends. A table arises four or five feet in mid-air. Spirit hands and faces are plainly seen and recognized by friends. A guitar is played and passed around the room by invisible power. Flowers are brought and passed by the audience by hands plainly seen. Bells are rung. Harps are played and other tests of spirit nature take place in the presence of these wonderful mediums. Spirit Bride Levee, startling and bewildering. Bell without belfry. Transit of the tambourine. A spirit carpenter. Gravitation ignored. Wonderful holding test. Philosophers mystified. Scientists astounded. Clergy amazed. Scholars dumfounded. The unexplained wonder of the nineteenth century. Marvels in spiritualism. Comprehensive thinkers baffled.
Doors open at 7. Seance opens at 8. The expenses defrayed by a small fee for admittance.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Nebraska, as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."
Signed, W. F. Stevens, State Com.—

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

Is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in AI condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder, but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

KNOCKED DOWN $85.—One James Nixon of Harrisburg has laid himself liable to justice for knocking down the sum of $85, while buying poultry for Chas. Jacobsen & Co. of San Francisco. Nixon had been employed for some time to buy poultry in the vicinity of Harrisburg, and has been drawing money with which to pay for it, through W. Parker of this city who issued checks to him on the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank. On last Monday Nixon shipped 11 dozen chickens to San Francisco. He secured a bill of lading and raised the figures on it to 45 dozen and then presented it to Mr. Parker, as he was accustomed to do, as evidence that he had shipped the poultry. He was accordingly given a check to the amount of $112.50, as the price to be paid was $2.50 per dozen. As soon as the discrepancy was discovered Mark Katz, of the San Francisco firm, came to this city and an investigation was made. Nixon had quietly slipped away with the money, but the officers were put on his trail and soon succeeded in locating him. He is now at Kings Valley and Mr. Katz and Mr. Parker left for that place in a buggy this evening and will try and effect a settlement. If Nixon fails to make proper reimbursements he will at once be arrested.

PATIENCE.

A Fascinating Opera Admirably Rendered.

The opera, "Patience," given by students of the university under the auspices of the athletic association, was advertised to begin at 8 o'clock at Villard Hall last evening, and by that time the large room was well filled with people in both the pit and the gallery. It was a fashionable gathering and the audience formed a brilliant panorama of style and beauty.

Temporary curtains, draped across the top with the college colors, had been improvised across the front of the big stage and at 8:30 p. m.—just as the audience had begun to think that it required a great deal of "patience" on their part—the curtain rose. The scene that was presented to view was one of rare beauty which at once won the admiration of the audience and awakened its deepest interest for the remainder of the evening. The sides and rear of the stage formed a background of evergreens, consisting of fir and cedar, while in the center was an old-fashioned well curb with rope and buckets, and on the east side a small rocky butte had been improvised. Across the front of the stage and about the old well were posing and reclining, in various becoming attitudes, twenty pretty maidens attired in medieval costumes and entertaining extremely aesthetic ideas.

The above is but a faint description of only one of the many pleasing effects that were presented all the way through the opera. The dragoons, composing twelve students in uniform, were commonplace but had the desired effect. The poets, Reginald Banthorne and Archibald Grosvenor, respectively Harry Templeton and Carl Narreagan, were unique in costume and interesting in part. The downfall of the second poet from his exalted and eccentric position in life to that of a commonplace young man and the sudden change of the twenty rapturous young maidens who adored him and persisted in following his ideas, was effective in result and gave the audience the amusing side of the drama.

The change of the blunt and unattractive dragoons, who had been ruthlessly discarded by the foolish maidens for the more exalted poets, to the aesthetic for the purpose of winning back the distracted maidens, was one of the most amusing portions of the entertainment.

The choruses, under the direction of Mrs. Linn and assisted by the violin, Len Stevens, flute, Warner Brown, and violoncello, M. O. Warner, and piano accompaniments by Miss Mae Huff, were greeted with greatest satisfaction by the audience.

The solos by Miss Stella Dorris, one of Eugene's favorite vocalists, in the roll of "Patience" were highly pleasing and always brought out a hearty applause from the enraptured audience. Among others who won favor in solos and duets were Miss Blanche Straight, Miss Lotta Johnston, Miss Jennie Beattie, Miss Theresa Friendly, Mr. Harry Templeton, Mr. Carl Narreagan and Mr. George Bacher. The duet, "Sing Heigh to You," by Miss Beattie and Mr. Templeton, was the hit of the evening, and they were twice encored by the enthusiastic audience.

The entire opera was well put on and the difficult parts were admirably carried out. The music was excellent, and the cast of characters was good.

YAQUINA STONE.—E. C. Lake yesterday received a carload of stone from the Pioneer stone quarry at Yaquina, which he will use for bases in marble and granite work. This stone is said to be very fine and was used in the construction of the Southern Pacific company's large depot building in San Francisco and is being used quite extensively in other buildings of that city.

MRS. CHAPMAN IMPROVING.—Yesterday's Salem Daily Post: Dr. Clara M. Davidson is still at the bedside of Alice Hall Chapman, wife of Dr. Chapman of Eugene, having been unable to leave, on account of the critical condition of her patient. She is expected home, however, very shortly as Mrs. Chapman is now on the road to recovery, although not entirely out of danger.

Corvallis Times: The steamer Three Sisters came down the river Friday afternoon, bringing the officers and crew of the abandoned snag boat Corvallis. If the hull is not washed from her present position by high water, it is thought that the machinery may be saved when the river reaches its low stage of water.
