A BANKER'S VIEWS.

The following communication appeared recently in the Oregon City Courier, written by Hon. C. D. Latourette, a banker and leading attorney of that place. It is worthy of a careful consideration, especially by democrats. He says:

"There is something inexpressibly ludicrous in the manner in which the Oregonian administers the Gold faith cure to prominent democrats, and then when they are fairly under its hypnotic influence, gets them to speak out in meeting, to repudiate something or somebody."

"In regard to the great financial question that now agitates the people, democrats, regardless of individual opinions, should swing into line and support their party. The United States is a great silver producing country, and every true American, having the prosperity of his country at heart cannot object to proposed legislation which will tend to increase the production and enlarge the use of this great American product."

"But the Oregonian says that free coinage will destroy the parity, would drive gold away, and by contraction, would cause universal ruin, etc. Perhaps so; perhaps not. I cannot see that there would be danger in an honest attempt to remonetize silver. Of course we must not have a radical and sudden change in our financial policy. But that should not prevent us from endeavoring to find some expedient, some compromise, some middle ground that would favor an increased demand and use of silver especially American silver. Gold might just as well be sent abroad as to be locked up in the dark vaults at money centers of the East, so far as the good it does us here in the West, and if we cannot get gold but by giving interest bearing bonds and mortgages for it, we better let it alone."

"For one I am getting tired of the Oregonian's protracted calamity howl. It is time that all this twaddle be silenced and these fears be quieted. I am not much of a believer in the principle of prosperity being brought about by any species of legislation. I think it about time that the American people should begin to work the vast natural resources of their own country, thereby creating wealth, instead of trying to scheme themselves rich by air castle building upon borrowed capital. But legislation, if any, should not be altogether against ourselves and in favor of the old world."

"The democratic party, by its platform and nominees, has shown itself friendly to silver. The republican party has declared its enmity to silver. There are but two sides to this question and if I may be permitted to disagree with our 'Great Daily,' let me suggest to weak kneed brother democrats, that we all line up in support of the party that has always professed to stand, and which now stands fearlessly for the welfare of the common people of this country. It is folly for any one to say that the democratic party will put through any radical measure that would disrupt business or endanger enterprise. The party is purposing to do what can be done to relieve a debt ridden people who have been sweating veritable drops of blood, in order to carry a load of debt that has almost crushed them to the earth. Should it not be commended and supported?

"Let us trust the modern democracy, as led by the great young commoner from the central West. Do not make the subtle influence of the Oregonian make you stultify your political principles. Unite the forces; close up the broken lines and let us all join in the shout for 'Bryan and bimetalism.'"

McKinley is a Methodist in religion and Bryan is a Presbyterian. Both are good clean men in their private lives.

Albert Tozier, secretary of the Oregon Press association, and a warm friend of the editor, has been appointed health officer of the city of Portland by Mayor Penoyer. The appointment is one that will be commended by every one who knows the genial gentleman. He will fill the office honestly and with favor to no one. The GUARD congratulates Mr Tozier upon his success.

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they are inflamed. DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure subdues inflammation at once and completely removes the difficulty.

OSBURN & DELANO.

The dead body of William Jones was found on the Satsop river, near Elma, the other day, by Patrick Griffin, for whom Mr Jones had been working. The coroner decided that he was killed by being struck by a piece of a tree he was cutting down. His skull was crushed and his neck broken.

Mother-love is mixed with daily, hourly sacrifice. The love increases with the sacrifice it entails. The more a mother suffers and endures for her little one, the more precious it becomes. She loves it because she has labored and suffered for it. The physical organs concerned in maternity affect a woman's entire constitution to a degree only half realized by many doctors. Women are often treated specially for sick headaches, dyspepsia, melancholy, or what is supposed to be a liver or kidney affection or heart-disease, when in reality the whole trouble is with the reproductive organs. This delicate and intricate organism and the rational treatment for its peculiar ailments is a life study for the wisest physician. Probably no practitioner living has a higher reputation in this special direction, than Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids, and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. His "Favorite Prescription," is the most perfect remedy ever known for all "female complaints." It gets at the source of the trouble from the inside. It is not merely temporary, external, local, bolstering-up or palliative. It is a cure. It directly tones and strengthens the internal organs, restores them to health and regularity, and completely banishes the continual weakness, drag and drain which wear out body and mind. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

In every American household, there should be a copy of Dr. Pierce's great work, "Common Sense Medical Advice," last page, illustrated. One copy free to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date March 23, 1895:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,

Duquoy, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.
