Judge Crowell of Jackson county, has discovered something to the credit of the state railroad commission; he says it cut down one bull pine in that county. He does not state whether the act was beneficial or not, but it is to be presumed that it was; also, that there are no other bull pines that are a menace to the public well. Having therefore at an expense of some $75,000 during the past ten years, gotten rid of that tree, might it not be well to relieve the state of the expense of the commission for the future?

A Popular Combination.

There is not a more popular combination on the road than the well known Glee and Mandolin Clubs from Stanford University. They will play one night at Villard Hall, Jan. 2nd. The Seattle Post Intelligencer says: "It was a fashionable audience that greeted the Stanford Mandolin Club at the Opera House last night. There was singing and instrumental music of a most delightful character and the efforts of the performers met with liberal and entirely deserved applause. It was the most artistic and thoroughly delightful event in musical circles this year."

THE SPEAKERSHIP. — Roseburg Plaindealer, rep: "Hon A M Crawford, one of our representatives, has just returned from a short visit to Portland, and says there is a prospect of a lively fight in the organization of the house at the coming session of the legislature, over the election of a speaker. It appears a three cornered fight is on hand between Jonathan Bourne Jr., of Multnomah, Henry Benson of Josephine and G W Riddle of this county. On being interrogated as to the rumor that he would not support Judge Riddle for speaker, he said that he has no intention of supporting any one else, and that Judge Riddle would make a good speaker and is entitled to the support of his colleagues."

HARRIS BOUND OVER.—Thursday's Salem Journal: "John Harris was given an examination today before Recorder Edes and as a result, was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $150 in default of which he now is confined in the county jail. New Year's Party.

Quite a number of Eugene's young people were entertained New Year's eve by Misses E and C Loomis at the elegant home of their parents, Dr and Mrs Loomis on 12th street near the university.

The many friends of the young ladies, comfortably filled the large double parlors, library and dining rooms and enjoyed playing a series of novel games. It might be called a progressive novelty game, as a different game was played at each of the seven tables and each player changed partners after each game or more to the next table. The evening wore rapidly and shortly before the new year was ushered in a delicious luncheon was served. All joined in wishing the hostesses and their parents a happy New Year and many of them.

Among those present were: Dr and Mrs C E Loomis, Mr and Mrs Porter, Mr and Mrs D Linn, Misses Loomis, Condon, Wilkins, Yoran, Holt, Huff, Kerns, Hovey, Johnson, Wold and Hall. Messrs Al Hampton, H N Cokerline, Warner Brown, Louis Johnson, Chas McClure, H Keeney, Frank Wilkins, Ed Young, D Hopkins, W McClure and Frank Loomis.

A DESERTER.—Yesterday's Albany Democrat: William Gould came to Albany about two months ago from the north. Though an entire stranger he became acquainted with Miss Fannie Miller early and it was only a short time before they were engaged to be married. Miss Miller's father being satisfied Gould was not the proper young man for a son-in-law objected very emphatically to the marriage; but they were bound to get married, and Gould told the Democrat man several days ago that he would marry her any way, and the event was to come off tomorrow, we are informed. But it will be postponed indefinitely. A little over two months ago Gould deserted from the barracks at Vancouver. Chief of Police Lee discovered the fact that he was the man wanted there for desertion, and this morning arrested him and placed him in the county jail. Maj Wilson was notified and will send a detachment after him. Gould admitted to Chief of Police Lee that he was the man wanted, and said he had been afraid he would be discovered.

I K PETERS,

9th St.

Major C T Pieton is manager of the state hotel, and Denison, Texas, which the traveling man say is one of the best hotels in that section. In speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Major Pieton says: "I have used it myself and in my family for several years, and take pleasure in saying that I consider it an infallible cure for diarrhoea and dysentery. I always recommend it, and have frequently administered it to my guests in the hotel, and in every case it has proven itself worthy of unqualified endorsement." For sale by Osburn & Delano.

The origin of women's special privilege of "proposing" during leap year is stated to be that in the year 1288 a statute was published by the Scotch parliament, ordaining that during the reign of "Her Most Blessed Majesty Margaret" every maiden and lady of high and low estate should have liberty to speak to the man she liked. If he refused to take her to be his wife she would have the privilege of fining him $100, or less, according to his estate, unless he could make it appear that he was betrothed to another woman, in which case he would be free to refuse. After the death of Margaret the women of Scotland became clamorous for their privileges, and to appease them another act of parliament allowed them to propose every fourth year.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home such was the experience of Mr J Y Schenck, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says my wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Osburn & Delano.
