CHANGES IN CITY AFFAIRS.

Good Records Made by Retiring Officials—the ex-Mayor, and his Appointees.

The retiring officials of the city government are entitled to credit for the manner in which city affairs have been conducted during the past year. Ex-Mayor Matlock retires with the consciousness of having served the city well and faithfully. No inconsiderable burden of the financial affairs rests upon the hands of the mayor and it is to his credit that, with the assistance of a business like council, the financial affairs of the city have been well managed.

plied to them as if they were crimes against property, person or life. Such laws are more of the nature of family or social regulations, and while they should be enforced without fear or favor, undue and unusual methods should not be used in their enforcement. Recognize and act on this principle, then the petty disputes and personal bickerings over local affairs will be minimized. It will be for the general good and welfare of the community.

CONVICTS ARE HUMAN.

Prison labor roadmaking is to be practically tested, if a bill before the Michigan legislature can be passed. It provides for a limited amount of roadmaking by convicts. The men may be secured, if necessary, by ball and chain.

The Detroit Tribune makes the following comment: The reason why the evils of the contract system of prison employment have not everywhere been discarded is that doing so creates a worse condition than existed before.

Prisoners have to be unemployed or else put upon the public highways, and here is a dilemma which no human wisdom has yet been able to meet. To put the ball and chain on human beings and send them before the public gaze, you have to ignore wholly the reformatory principle in punitive discipline. This neglect cannot be tolerated in this age of the world. We must assume that the man is susceptible of salvation.

There is also the degrading effect upon the public life of the spectacle of human wretches consigned to slavery of the most wretched form, which no civilized state ought for a moment to tolerate. Few persons would be willing to consign a fellow being to such a fate whom they had ever known to have a spark of manhood in him that could be redeemed.

Many a nervous woman sits up all the night and tries to read herself sleepy. Nine to one she don't accomplish her purpose. Nine to one, she gets more and more nervous. The slightest sound strikes terror to her heart. The dark corners of the room contain a thousand frights. She doesn't know what she is afraid of, but she is afraid, actually, honestly, nervously, abjectly afraid. Healthy women are not cowards. If a woman is nervous and sleepless and afraid of the rustle of her own dress, there is something the matter with her. The most delicate nerves in her body are set on edge by weakness or disease. Nine-tenths of the nervousness, irritability and bad temper in women is merely a symptom of ill health—ill health of the delicate and sensitive organism that makes her a woman. If she is overworked, or over-worried, the effect will show itself there first. There is no use taking harmful and deadly narcotics for nervousness and sleeplessness. It will leave the body in a worse condition than it was before. The way to effect a cure is to cure the cause. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do it. It has cured tens of thousands of cases of female weakness and nervousness. It is a most wonderful invigorating nerve and nerve food. It brings sound healthy sleep and restores the glow and bloom of health. It is the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

The story of its discovery and its wonderful success is told in one part of Doctor Pierce's great thousand page book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," which will be sent free on receipt of one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. THE EUGENE

EVENING GUARD

IS one of the few prominent papers in Oregon that does not resort to Chromos, Coupons, Prize Packages, Picture Books, Corn Plasters or some other fake device to make an apparent showing of an increase in circulation. It therefore escapes the fate of papers that depend for a show of success upon these extraneous inducements, which are to be pitched into the street or thrown into the waste basket as soon as the coupon is cut from their columns.

THE GUARD, on the other hand, goes regularly and permanently into 80 per cent of the homes of Eugene solely and entirely on its merits as a bright, clean, enterprising progressive and comprehensive newspaper. It is delivered at an hour, moreover, when the household has both time and inclination to read, and it is read thoroughly and carefully by every member of the family. These conditions insure for every class of business announcements not only the widest but the best publicity that can be secured in our city.

The Evening Guard

Guarantees advertisers that it reaches more people than any other paper published in Eugene, and therefore has better results. THE EVENING GUARD, in short, covers the field completely, and no one who desires to reach the people can afford to do without the facilities placed at their command.

THE ABOVE PICTURE DOES NOT REPRESENT a passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. No. Its trains are vestibuled, heated, steam and lighted by electricity. Each sleeping car berth has an electric reading lamp. Its dining cars are the best in the world and its coaches are palaces on wheels.

This great railway, connecting as it does with all transcontinental lines at St. Paul and Omaha, assures to the traveling public the best service known. Tickets via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway are on sale at all railroad ticket offices to any point in the United States or Canada. For maps, tables and other information address: C. J. EDDY, General Agent, Portland, Oregon.
