YA-PO-AH.
The Indian Name of Skinner's Butte—The First House in Eugene Built 50 Years Ago.

How many of our people are aware of the significance of the word that heads this item? Ya-po-ah is the Indian name for Skinner's Butte, and was so used by the Indian tribes that frequented this locality when Eugene F Skinner took up his residence at the west end of the butte in the spring of 1847—fifty years ago.

His cabin was built about the middle of the end of the butte, and slightly above the level of the prairie. Old residents will remember the decayed timbers and the almost filled well that formerly marked the site of the first house within the present limits of Eugene. From recollection of the remains of the foundation we should say the house was about sixteen feet square.

Mining in Lane County.
Oregonian: Messrs Thomas Smith and Frank Henderson returned Friday from the head of Sharp's creek on a prospecting tour. They report snow leaving fast, the road being now open as far as Judson rock. They also located a quartz claim, calling it the Curiosity, from the fact of the ledge matter being so very different from the usual formation in the district. In fact, Mr Smith says it is different from anything he has ever found.

There seems to be an unlimited quantity of the ore in sight, and it is a puzzle to him, though an experienced miner, at the present moment.

The warm winds and the sunshine of the past week are melting the snow in the mountains rapidly, and the Bohemia mines will soon be alive with miners and mill men.

Serious Danger.
Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, since the germs of malarial diseases are inhaled from the air and are swallowed from the water of such a region. Medicinal safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify this danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hoxette's Stomach Bitters is incomparably the best and the most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, or malarial fever, but these are speedily rectified by the Bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular circulation of the system promoted by it. Constipation and dyspepsia are thus defended against the malarial fever by this medicinal preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

We have been having very nice weather lately, but it looks rather rainy today. Rain would be a fine thing for our grain and gardens.

Mr George Prescott left this place for Lorane Friday. He will go from there to Eugene on business.

M D Johnson, who has been in Coy-

A G Post and wife, who have been staying with their son, Frank, who resides at the McKenzie, returned home Friday.

Miss Lottie Bierce and Miss Laura Johnson are the guests of Miss Fannie Layne today.

A few men have been working on the river road down below here, for a day or two. We are in hopes of having a road clear through to the Head of Tide before fall.

Our school opened April 5th, and is now progressing nicely under the management of Miss Jennie Taylor, of Eugene. Miss Taylor gives good satisfaction and our directors have hired her for the fall term of school.

Miss Frances Bierce is talking of carrying the mail for her father as soon as the roads are a little better and the weather is settled.

THE MAYOR'S VETO.
The Amended Ordinance to Regulate the Issuance of Liquor Licenses Not Approved by Him.

At the session of the city council Monday night, Mayor Kuykendall returned the ordinance to amend the ordinance regulating the issuance of liquor licenses with his veto attached.

The ordinance provided that: "All licenses for the sale of spirituous or malt liquors shall expire on the second Wednesday of April following the annual city election and no licenses shall be issued for less than one year, except when it is necessary to have its expiration on the day above named; provided, that licenses may issue to saloons and breweries for three months."

The ordinance was passed by the council April 12.

The mayor's veto message contains expressions of the stand that will be maintained by him throughout his term of office. It is as follows:

"My reasons for not approving are, first:
"This change will result in the loss to the city of $24 per annum. We are paying interest on more than $13,000 in warrants. Any of them may be called at any time that we have the money with which to pay them: If the saloon licenses were payable annually in advance we would save $70 per year in interest by taking a corresponding amount of warrants. With licenses payable six months in advance, we make a saving of $24 per year over the terms of the proposed amendment.

These amounts are small, but with existing hard times it is necessary for us to look carefully after the small amounts.

"Second. It does not appear from the petition sent in by the holders of saloon licenses that they desired so radical and permanent a change in our laws as this amendment contemplates.
They asked that they be granted the privilege of paying licenses quarterly for the next six months only. It is probably contrary to their own best interests for the amendment to become a law, as it will enable outside men to drop in here during the active season of the year, such as hop picking in the fall, or during fair week, take out a license for three months, skim off the cream of the business and then drop out.

"Third. This amendment is against the settled policy of the state and city regarding the liquor business, inasmuch as it practically lowers the license fees. Without discussing the merits of the system, it may be stated as a fact that light license with rigid control has become the established policy of our city for dealing with the liquor traffic. This is also true of the state, whose law provides for a license fee of $400, payable annually in advance. I think that experience has demonstrated that this is about the proper fee in our case and I do not think it is wise to change unless it will be to conform to the general state law. It may be a debatable question whether the fee might not be raised, but I think all agree that it ought not to be lowered.

"Fourth. I fear that the amendment would be against the public good in that it would encourage transient men to take out licenses for a limited time and set up a saloon with no expectation of becoming permanent residents with us. Such men having no permanent property or other interests here, are much more likely to keep a place that would be detrimental to public peace and morals.

"For these reasons I cannot approve of the amendment.
"I veto the ordinance."
W. KUYKENDALL,
Mayor.

The veto was sustained.

Cottage Grove Accidents.
Friday was an unlucky day at

While at work in the mill, W J Smith, a single man, aged 19, had the misfortune to be caught between a slab and one of the rollers that carry the lumber with the result that both bones of his leg were broken half way between the ankle and knee. It was a clean square break. Dr Snapp, of Cot-

A few minutes after this accident happened, Willard Johnson while at Mr Albert A Haffenger of Portland, and Mrs. Ella Runey of Foley Springs, were married at 9 o'clock last evening decorated with cut flowers and ever-

After the ceremony was performed the wedding couple and guests repaired to the dining room of the Bon-boniere where an elegant banquet was spread, covers being laid for 28 persons.

The table was laden with choice entables and the guests lingered at the board until after 12 o'clock, many toasts being offered for the health and prosperity of the bride and groom.
Music was furnished by the Mandolin club. The table was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and smilax.
