PORTLAND, June 21 1898, 9:30 A. M.
WEATHER FORECAST FOR EUGENE, OREGON.

Tonight and Wednesday: Showers.

FELT HERE.

The amount which the war revenue bill will effect local prices of the articles taxed cannot yet be fully determined. A great deal of questioning of grocerymen, tobacco and drug dealers in the city has been done, but no exact data could be obtained, and even the dealers themselves are ignorant yet as to what turn they will make in order to keep retail prices down and yet secure their business.

The amount of taxable goods already on hand will probably be stamped as soon as the deputy internal revenue collector appears. Some of the goods, such as patent medicines, of which a large stock is usually kept on hand, will not be taxed until sold, and only an invoice of the goods will be taken now.

Liberality from the collector is taken for granted in a large number of cases. But tobacco and several other kinds of articles will be stamped on the shelves.

On all goods bought by the retail dealers from now on, the tax will be paid by the manufacturers. This, of course, in many cases will raise the price on the local dealers and consumers. In some instances, where a price has been long established, it is supposed the manufacturers will suffer the loss, with perhaps a partial loss to the retailers, and none to the consumers.

Coast breweries, whose tax has been raised from $1 to $2 a barrel, claim most of their profit will be taken off, but they can stand it better than the larger breweries of the eastern states. In fact, it may prove a good thing for the small plants and give them a better opportunity for competition. A member of a San Francisco company says his institution will not advance prices unless the large establishments do and even in that event they will not increase the prices much, as the large competitors may.

In the case of cigarettes eight instead of 10 will be put in a package.

The prices of cigars will probably remain the same, but some means will be taken to avoid losses. A smoking tobacco package will be one-quarter ounce less for 10 cents.

Plug tobaccos have risen 12½ cents a pound. The price of tea has increased 10 cents. With these exceptions no change in prices has yet taken place in Eugene.

STATE OFFICIAL TERMS.

Governor-elect T T Geer will not assume the duties of chief magistrate of Oregon until the second Monday of January, 1899. The official returns on the vote for governor are sealed up and sent to the speaker of the house, who opens them in the presence of both houses of the legislature and announces the result. The secretary of state canvasses the election returns of state officers and furnishes certificates of election to those receiving the highest number of votes. The supreme court judge elected will assume his duties the first Monday in July, but all other state officers take their places in January following their election.

The Arkell Publishing Company, the publisher of Judge and other journals, one of the loudest screechers for the "advance agent of prosperity" in 1896, has failed, with liabilities exceeding a million dollars and assets of less than half this amount. It will probably pay about 16 cents for every dollar it owes. The publications of the company advocate "sound money," but the company's creditors are willing to accept even that kind of money which the publications have so often declared unsound. Even "43 cent dollars" would be preferable to 16 centers.

The Pullman Car Co announces that it will fight the war tax. That is the company that appealed to the United States for military protection against striking employes not long since. "Soulless corporations" is not an unmeaning term.

Mortgages between $1000 and $1500 will be taxed 25 cents, and for each additional $500, 25 cents, by the new war revenue bill. The summer tourists who go abroad will be taxed $1 to $5 as a ticket tax.

Eternal Vigilance.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of everything worth having.

It is the price of life itself. A man needn't be always looking for danger, afraid that something will happen to him; but a wise man will form a habit of care about the important things of life.

It isn't half so much trouble to take care of yourself as it is not to. A man who follows regular, healthy habits, feels good all the time. Life is worth living to him. But a man who "don't want to bother" with taking care of himself has more pain and misery crowded into one day than a good healthy, hearty man who lives right would ever know of in a whole year.

When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work; when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force.

He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow;" but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs, and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutritious elements and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all bilious impurities and pour into the circulation an abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength, and nerve-energy. It does not make flabby flesh. It is the only suitable tonic and strength-builder for corpulent people.

An Army and Navy

Memorandum book is what you have been wanting. The Northern Pacific has it. It contains cut of the Maine, map of Cuba, list of U S and Spanish naval vessels, interior drawings of a battleship, illustrations of U S and Spanish ships, glossary of navy and army words, table of distances, commanders of U S ships and army corps, list of U S regiments and their commanders and other information very useful and valuable at this time.

The book fits the vest pocket and is up to date. Send Chas S Fee, general passenger agent N P R, St Paul, Minn ten cents and the book is yours.

A Case of Development

The picture taking process is a case of development from a simple foundation of one of the most wonderful forms of art known.

Photographs now must have more than a suggestion of resemblance to the subject. They must be full of life and spirit, characteristic of the individual, as well as artistic and true.

Our work looks toward these lines of advancement.

Consumption

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.
