From South Lane.

Edenville, Jan 4, 1899.

San Parks of Creswell visited relatives here last Sunday and Monday.

Miss Allie Whitney of Eugene, spent the holidays with her parents at this place.

Bernice and Blanche Warbinton who have been spending the holidays at home, returned to Eugene today.

Rev. Kelums who is conducting protracted meetings at Jasper, visited at Howard Baughmans one day last week.

Misses Beulah McGuire and Edythe Vincent of Eugene, were visitors in this neighborhood, several days of last week.

Forrest Drury who has been ill with malarial fever for several weeks, is improving fast and is now considered out of danger.

The recent cold weather is thought to have done some damage to winter wheat in this section, particularly that on wet ground.

Miss Pearl Bridges who has been staying with the family of Ed Edwards of High Banks for several months returned home last week.

John West has gone to Southern Oregon, and may possibly locate in that part of the state. His family are still here, but will probably leave in the spring.

The ferry between this place and Jasper, has been in great demand since the beginning of the protracted meeting at the latter place. Mr. Eaton the ferryman, reports seventy-five passengers at one trip.

Miss Alice Smith entertained a party of young people at the residence of Mrs. Caroline Branton, on the evening of Dec 30th. Literary games were played and refreshments served; and all agreed that Miss Smith was a capital hand at entertaining.

Don't forget that Watts has moved his optical business to the corner rooms up stairs over McClung's store, watches, clocks, and jewelry repaired as usual.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

AFTER A THREE-MONTHS' Clearance Sale, I find many remnants which it is necessary to clear up. Among these goods are a large number of SHOES, men's women's and children's, which will be sold much below cost. They are broken sizes, but if you can find a fit, you will get a pair of shoes at about half price. Call and examine these goods before they are all gone.

J. H. McClung.

TRULY COMMENDABLE.—Roseburg Review: "Some months ago Mark Munson of this city, became acquainted with a crippled girl of Eugene who was particularly deserving and early in need of surgical treatment. He accordingly laid the matter before the Congregational society in Boston, by which he is employed in missionary work, and they took charge of the matter of raising the necessary funds. This morning Mr. S. H. Munson received a draft for $119 from the society to be used in assisting the cripple to procure the much needed treatment at some hospital. Surely this is charitable work of a most practical and commendable kind."

IN CONSULTATION.—Senators Kuykendall and Driver, and Representatives Gray, Brattain, and McQueen were in Eugene today holding a consultation as to what was needed by Lane county in the legislature which convenes at Salem next Monday.

LOST.—A black shepherd pup with ring around neck and white stripe down his forehead. Had small strap around his neck when last seen. Leave information at Patterson's meat market.

TOILET SETS.—For 75 cents. Toilet Sets for $1.00, and so on upward. AT YERINGTON'S.

FOR SALE.—Two lots with good house and barn, for sale cheap, dirt cheap. Inquire of R. McMurphy.

WANTED.—A girl to do general house-work, apply at S. H. Friendly's.

BRANTON.—Yesterday's Salem Statesman: "Sheriff Withers returned to Eugene on the overland train last night. In speaking of Branton, the convicted murderer of John A. Lind, he said the young criminal seemed to be standing the confinement pretty well. Branton was to have been hanged December 23, 1898, but the supreme court granted a stay of execution pending the argument of a motion for a new trial. While that motion has not yet been argued, Sheriff Withers said the prisoner hardly expected to be granted a new trial, but in the event another trial is granted, Branton has no hopes of being acquitted of the crime. Branton is becoming restless, cranky and obstinate. Attorneys Hale & Norton, of Eugene, have interested themselves in Branton's behalf, and will make every effort to save him from the gallows."

MARRIED.—Independence West Side: "At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Hoeler, in this city, on Jan 4, 1899, Mrs. Ida Maloney, to Judge Wallace Mount, of Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Maloney has been staying in this city for the past six months and has made many friends here. Judge Mount is state senator from Spokane. They left Wednesday afternoon for their new home in Spokane, Wash." Judge Mount is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is well known in Eugene.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—Dr. L. W. Brown was called to Cottage Grove yesterday to treat Martin Snell, a young man afflicted with hernia in acute form. Dr. Brown, assisted by Dr. Snapp, operated on the young man, successfully, and great hopes are entertained for his recovery.

GIVES A FULL SHOW.—The "Bunch of Keys" company that appears at the Parker tonight will not cut its show short on account of making train connections. The company goes north, its next stand being at Salem, therefore has plenty of time to reach the train after the show closes.

A BAND.—Last night a number of band men met at the court house to consider the question of organizing a band at this place. Eugene has some excellent musicians, and should have a fine band. A first-class cornet player would be a valuable acquisition at present.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.—A marriage license was issued late yesterday afternoon to Oscar McClellan, 23 years and Grace Osburn, 23 years.
