There are others—we have them at Yerington's.
Don't forget that Watts has moved his optical business to the corner rooms up stairs over McClung's store, watches, clocks, and jewelry repaired as usual.
Brownsville Times of Jan 6: "Isaac Loudon came home from the Blue River mines Friday. He reports the new road to the Lucky Boy mine finished to within about one mile of the mine. Good."

Albany Democrat: Fish Warden McGuire will ask the state legislature for an appropriation of $25,000. McGuire is doing all he can to make this commission take the place of the railroad commission in the expenditure of money. It seems to be a Columbia river affair. Unless it is watched with a big glass it will become obnoxious like the railroad commission.
"TRUE LOVE."
Mrs Lizzie Buffum and Isaac Newton Will Wed.
FIRST CHAPTER.
It will be remembered by our readers that a few weeks ago an old soldier named Isaac Newton came here to marry one Lizzie Buffum, the match having resulted from a correspondence, and according to which the intended groom was to be in Eugene wearing a red ribbon around his coat sleeve on a certain day, and the fair Lizzie was to wear a bunch of red white and blue ribbons on her breast. The old soldier came on the day appointed, but fell in the hands of some comrades of the civil war, and after explanations, he untied the red ribbon from his sleeve, with tears streaming from his eyes, and returned to his Benton county farm a broken hearted man. Lizzie, when she heard how her lover had been treated, was exceedingly wrathful and swore vengeance. She also told her story in a card in the GUARD and told everybody, in the words of our ex-governor "mind your business and I will attend to mine." She also declared that she would marry the man before three months; that "true love" was never frustrated, at least only temporarily.
THE SECOND CHAPTER.
This morning the fair widow was on the streets walking with a quick step and a smile on her face. When interviewed she said: "I have won, and before tomorrow I will be Mrs Isaac Newton, notwithstanding all the old soldiers who fought so nobly in the civil war."
She left for Wren station, on the Corvallis & Eastern railroad by this forenoon's local train, where she said the ceremony of marriage would take place, and where Mr Newton has a farm.

BORN—Near Thurston, Jan 4, 1899, to the wife of Ben Russell, Jr, a 10 pound daughter.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.—At the regular assembly meeting at the State University yesterday afternoon, there was a large attendance, in fact larger than most of the year, and that considering the fact of all present being advanced students, and that sixteen vacant seats were left by the young men who followed the fortunes of war to the Philippines. Mayor Kuykendall was present, and feelingly alluded to the absentees, and the patriotism that caused them to risk health and life for their country.

STORE ROOMS LEASED.—Miss J V Kauffman has leased of W E Warren the two store rooms in the Corner block on Williamette street, formerly occupied by Yoran & Son and E Hanson. This will give her the large store that her increasing business has demanded for some time, and also four show windows. The partition will be removed and the two rooms thrown into one; and the same will be thoroughly renovated. It will probably be a month before the removal takes place.

"BUNCH OF KEYS."—The "Bunch of Keys" Dramatic Company played to a fair house at Parker's Opera House last night. It is a splendid play and some meritorious acting was done. A better house should have greeted them. The company went north on this forenoon's train.

SHINGLES FOR SALE.—A carload of first class Washington cedar shingles just received and for sale in any quantity at Andrew's lumber yard.

LADY DETECTIVE.—A young woman, who resides on the west side of town, did some successful detective work the other day. The night before the chicken house was stripped of its feathered occupants to the number of two dozen. Next morning the lady began a round of inquiry, and soon the familiar old chauntier and his harem were located in a certain poultry establishment. The proprietor informed the lady as to the persons from whom he purchased the chickens, and promised to make restitution. That evening two young boys appeared at the residence carrying two sacks of chickens for delivery. That, in diplomatic language, "closed the incident."

JUNCTION'S NEW CHARTER.—From proceedings of city council Monday, Jan 2: "On motion a committee of three was appointed to canvas returns of election on charter. The mayor appointed Messrs Washburn, Houston and Kik, who upon investigation reported that they find 64 votes were polled, 33 for and 31 against the charter carried by a majority of 2. It was moved and seconded that the Recorder place the charter in the hands of some member of the legislature for introduction. Carried."

BURIED.—The funeral of Miss Lizzie Eames, who died Thursday at the Davis residence, near the Eugene bridge, of typhoid fever, took place to the Masonic cemetery today. The mother of the dead girl was notified of the death of her daughter and made the trip of twenty-seven miles to town on horseback, carrying in her arms a three months' old infant.

MARRIED.—Independence West Side Jan 5: "At the home of the bride's parents, five miles north of Irving, Lane county, on Sunday, Jan. 1, 1899, Miss Armanella Lemmon to Mr Wm B Barnett, of this city."

LOST.—A black shepherd pup with ring around neck and white stripe down his forehead. Had small strap around his neck when last seen. Leave information at Patterson's meat market.

SPECIAL SESSION.—A special session of the council will be held tonight. This is made necessary on account of Mayor Kuykendall being compelled to be in Salem Monday, hence he will deliver his message this evening.

TOLLET SETS.—For 75 cents. Tollet Sets for $1.00, and so on upward.

FOR SALE.—Two lots with good house and barn, for sale cheap, dirt cheap. Inquire of R McMurphy.
